The Dead Came To Life.

A remarkable case of the dead returning to life was furnished by John A. Hall, a railroad man, who came here from Sabetha, Kans., recently, to look for work. He dropped unconscious in the yards and was found apparently dead. He was taken to the morgue and left on a table all

The coroner decided upon a postmortem to determine the cause of death and left his assistant to do the work. No sooner had the point of the surgeon's knife touched the body than it suddenly began to sit up on

'You needn't cut me open," said Hall. "I'll answer any questions you ask me." Hall explained that he had not lain senseless at all, but knew all that had been going on. He heard all that was said about a post-mortem, but was unable to make a sound of any kind.

"About that time," said Hall, "I was doing some hard thinking."-Philadelphia Press.

Costly Coffins.

A well-known American millionaire is reported to have expended £20,000 on a coffin. This is thought to be the record in this form of postmortem extravagance. Several coffins, however, have been known to cost over £1,000, and not many years ago a woman buried her husband in a coffin of elaborately carved mahogany, with gold fittings and silk lining, the whole costing £4,000. another case a woman directed that an electric light should be kept burning in her tomb and another inside her coffin, at an annual cost of £100. Li Hung Chang's coffin is said to have cost £13,000, and to have been profusely embellished with gold figures and clusters of precious stones. -Tit-Bits

"I suffered severely for four years from poison oak and ivy. My condition was serious, as I could not rest night or day and he free from a terrible itching sensation from scratching on my hands between the fingers, my feet and face, and eczema followed. My eyesight was affected, and I went to a hospital especially for the eyes and got relief, but eczema got a terrible hold on my system. I was about to give up all hope of ever being cured, yet I could not be reconciled to such results, as my health had been good and free from any disease all my life. My age is seventy-three years. In my extremity I happened to read of Cuticura Remedies for skin diseases. I bought five boxes Cuticura Ointment, also some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Pills as I required them.
