School Is In.

Feelin' sad an' sour; School is in. Gettin' glummer ev'ry hour; School is in. And I've got to give up swimmin'; No more climbin' the persimmon; Got to mind a lot of women; School is in. My shoes I've got to shine; School is in. My hair must be combed fine; School is in. Just to study sums and hist'ry; Which just makes one's brain all twist'ry; And remains as much a myst'ry; School is in. Twice a day I've got to wash; School is in. Must stay spicker than a squash; School is in. Now I've got to give up fightin'; And a lazy good position; For a lot of dull addition; School is in. Arithmetic and grammar I just hate. It is foolishness to cram a Little pate That is full of fun and flury; With a lot of studious worry; But, gee whizz! if I don't hurry, I'll be late.

What does it mean,—all this quiet about the capitol steal? Did some one steal the commission's report? or a part of Governor Stuart's back bone? Which? What?

Prothonotary Kimpport and District Attorney Runkle attended the Odd Fellows' picnic Thursday of last week, and remained here during the evening and spent the time pleasantly with their numerous acquaintances. They are both candidates for re-election, and no one would accuse the voters of Centre county to attempt to do other than re-elect these most obliging and efficient officials.

Probably no county official ever served his first term of office with such complete satisfaction to all voters and persons who transacted business with him as did Mr. Kimpport, the prothonotary. Everywhere one hears the most kindly expressions of his qualifications as an official and his manliness both in and out of his office. If all officials retained the respect and confidence of the people through their term of office like Arthur Kimpport, who left the farm in Harris township, to fill the place, there would be no occasion for regret that an interest was taken in their candidacy.

It is altogether unfair to accuse the county commissioners of failing to do their full duty in connection with the attempted discovery of the several murderers in Centre county during the past year. They used every means possible to bring to light the perpetrators of the crimes, and the failure of it casts no reflection on them. If some one else, in the meantime, had produced evidence sufficient to convict without cost to the county there might be some excuse for accusing the commissioners of spending money needlessly, but who has a scintilla of evidence other than what has already been legally declared insufficient to warrant trial for life? The Gazette is simply trying to dupe voters into believing untruths.

Seed Wheat.

Choice Fultz seed wheat, clean of rye, at ten cents above market price. Inquire at the Reporter office.

Seeds.

We have now on hand choice timothy, clover and alsike seed. These seeds are as clean as can be found in the market.

J. H. and S. E. WEBER, Centre Hall and Oak Hall.

The Grange Encampment and Fair.

The committee is leaving nothing undone to make this the best Grange Fair ever held at Centre Hall. New buildings have been erected and many improvements made.

The people of Penns and Brush Valleys ought to take special interest in filling up this fair, as it has become one of the established institutions in this rich agricultural district of Centre county. To make this fair a success it is only necessary for every one to take sufficient interest to bring something to fill the large and commodious buildings that have been erected, and in this way do credit not only to our Grange Fair but also to the community and agricultural people.

Let every one bring something and you will receive a premium when the article is entered.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by

The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

THE REPORTER HEADQUARTERS

At the Encampment and Fair Will Be Open to All Corners.

As previously announced the Centre Reporter's headquarters at the Encampment and Fair will comprise three tents. No. 1 will be devoted to business; No. 2 will be open to everybody—everybody's tent, and No. 3, exclusively to mothers and the babies.

An effort will be made to equip each of the tents to suit the purposes intended. The mother's tent, especially, will be arranged with a view to the comfort of both the mothers and the little ones. This tent, No. 3, will be open at all times, and so located that it will be sufficiently private. The outside court will afford a good view of the grounds and be provided with ample seating capacity.

The American Flag will indicate the headquarters of the Centre Reporter. Call around, all of you—the Reporter readers and their friends.

Yearick-Hoy Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the Yearick and Hoy families at Hecla Park, Wednesday, August 28th, was a pleasant event. Notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the weather in the morning, about 200 of the relationship and friends were present.

The executive committee met at 10 a. m. and elected the following as the committee for next year: N. H. Yearick, Jacksonville; D. K. Miller, Lock Haven; Benjamin Royer, Madisonburg; William Yearick, Mill Hall; Albert Spayd, Hubersburg; Samuel R. Gettig, Aaronsburg; Henry Yearick, Lock Haven; Samuel C. Hoy, Hubersburg; John S. Hoy, Jacksonville; Allison Rishel, Clintondale, and Amos Garberick, Bellefonte.

The following are the officers: President, Adam R. Yearick, Lamar; vice pres., John Hoy, Jr., Hubersburg; sec., Hon. J. H. Wetzel, Bellefonte, and treas., Albert Spayd.

The program of services and addresses was carried out at 1:30 p. m. The president presided, and Mrs. George Hoy, of Jacksonville, led the congregational singing by officiating at the piano. Addresses were delivered by John S. Hoy, Revs. Z. A. Yearick, of Shenandoah; H. I. Crow, of Hubersburg, and J. M. Runkle, of Williamsport.

The balance of the day was spent in social intercourse, all feeling that it was one of the most enjoyable reunions of these two families thus far held. It was resolved to hold next year's reunion at Hecla Park in the month of June. There are fully 500 representatives of these two families in Centre and Clinton counties.

LOCALS.

Many a man shoots off his mouth without hitting the mark. Robert Thompson, of Milroy, was a visitor in Centre Hall Monday.

When at the Encampment and Fair, keep in mind tents Nos. 1, 2, 3. The American Flag will direct you.

The Evangelical Sunday school has secured the basement of the Reformed church in which to hold its meetings.

W. O. Rearick, of Milroy, visited in Centre Hall over Sunday. On his return he was accompanied by Mrs. J. Frank Rearick.

There is no better heater made than the Red Cross Oak, straight or down draft. The price is made an object.—J. A. Reesman.

Byron Garis, who is doing masonry work in Siglerville, having spent the Sabbath at his home, returned to his work on Monday.

Dr. P. H. Dale is making good headway with a number of chronic cases he is treating. He is using the most modern means and methods in his practice, and they are proving successful.

Mrs. W. A. Krise, after a month's stay at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Brown, in Milroy, returned on Monday, accompanied by her granddaughter, Nina Slick, and Mr. Krise, who spent over a week at the same place.

The story published in the Lewis-town Daily Sentinel to the effect that an automobile party had been held up by highwaymen was a Simon pure fake. The paper was imposed on, and gave the perpetrator a good scoring in Saturday's issue.

Issac Campbell, Charles Myers, John Homan and Bert Musser, of Pine Grove Mills, left Tuesday morning for ten days sight seeing at Jamestown Exposition. They will also visit the Queen City of the South and the National Capitol.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Homan, of Altoona, and Charles C. Homan, of Cleveland, Ohio, accompanied by Miss Lucy Wise, of Williamsport, for a week were guests of Mrs. Emma Homan, in Centre Hall. The former, for several years, has been located in Altoona, where he has become an experienced boiler-maker in the Penny shops, and is making top wages. The younger Mr. Homan is advertising manager and assistant sales agent for the Standard Welding Company, a concern of considerable importance in the beautiful Ohio city. How long Miss Wise will remain wise, in name, Mr. Homan would not say, but the "day of days," it is surmised, is not so far off.

DEATHS.

JAMES EMERICK.

James Emerick, one of the oldest residents of Altoona, died at his home in this city Tuesday evening of last week, after a month's illness of senile debility. Deceased was born in Nantony Valley, this county, in 1822, and was thus close to eighty-five years of age. He was a wagon-maker by occupation and after following his trade in this county for forty years moved to Altoona twenty-six years ago where he has lived ever since. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and is survived by his wife, six sons and two daughters, as follows: John, of Bellefonte; Thomas, of Pittsburg; William, George, James D. and Frank, of Altoona; Mrs. Eliza Waters, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. William Caltaugh, of Altoona. Funeral services were held at his late home in Altoona and Friday morning the remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment.

Mr. Emerick was the last surviving member of the Emerick family, a number of whom lived for many years in Penns Valley. A large number of children and grandchildren of these pioneers are now living in the valley.

ANDREW JORDAN.

Andrew Jordan was born March 1, 1830, and died at his home near Colyer, August 24, 1907, aged seventy-seven years, five months, twenty-three days. He was a cripple all his life.

He was married in 1863, and had ten children, seven of whom survive. He was converted in 1859, under the labors of Philip Graham, and joined the Evangelical Association, remaining a faithful member until death. He was resigned to the will of God, his last words being, "I am going home."

A widow, seven children and fifteen grand children are left to mourn his loss. Rev. E. E. Haney conducted the funeral services.

Dr. Waldo C. Van Valin, who spent most of his life at Unionville, but about a year ago left there with his family and a number of others to found a Free Methodist colony at Colville, in the state of Washington, died at his home in that place from paralysis. During the years he spent in Unionville he became widely known throughout the Bald Eagle Valley, and his services as a physician were constantly in demand. He was sixty-eight years of age, and is survived by his wife and the following children: Clyde, of Unionville, who is a dentist and has an office in Bellefonte; Forrest, Ralph, Arthur, Raymond and Miss Olive, at home.

WILLIAM Z. MEYER.

William Z. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Meyer, died at the home of his parents at Coburn, Tuesday evening of last week of consumption, aged twenty-one years. Funeral services were held Saturday, conducted by Rev. W. D. Donat, and interment was made in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor, wife of W. A. Taylor, of Birmingham, died of stomach trouble, after an illness of over two years. Deceased's maiden name was Roop, and she was born in Buffalo Run Valley. She was aged sixty-two years, and is survived by her husband and two sons.

Daniel B. Mulholland died at his home in Pine Glenn of general infirmities, aged eighty-five years. He served through the Civil War as a member of Company E. Surviving him are three sisters, one half sister and one half brother.

The death of Mrs. Hannah T. Richardson, mother of Rev. Edwin G. Richardson, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, Bellefonte, occurred at her home in Alexandria Bay, Va. The cause of her death was typhoid fever.

Letter to J. W. Runkle, Centre Hall, Pa.

Dear Sir: They're glad they found out Devoe.

Corpus Christi, Texas, is right on the Gulf and one of the hardest climates for paint; hot sun, salt air, and strong winds.

The Sidbury Building, painted Devoe in 1899, is a shining example of perfect paint snow-white after 7 years, as if painted last week.

We should like every property-owner from Maine to Mexico to see that white, white, white.

Experience teaches who wants to learn as well as who waits to be kicked.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

THE MODERN "PITTSBURGH PERFECT" WIRE FENCE, WELDED BY ELECTRICITY.

What a Marvel it would have been to Abraham Lincoln splitter of rails.

Mr. Farmer: Your progressiveness is keeping you in close touch with improvements in farm machinery, in dairy methods, and with all the scientific facts that bring about the greatest possible agricultural production.

You are also informing yourself about fence. We know you are.

- First—there was the stone fence of medieval history. Second—pioneer America converted its timber into rails. Third—somebody found a way to weave wire and slats. Fourth—along came barb wire, with its marvelous sale. Fifth—machines were invented to twist or clamp one wire around another: the woven wire fence.

But, most important of all, electricity now welds the wires at the joint, making no longer necessary these wraps and clamps. Stay and strand, wizard-like, become one.

The greatest step forward in fence building is thus accomplished at a single, master stroke.

Of course, you are not using anything else. Surely you are familiarizing yourself with this remarkable improvement, to be found only in "Pittsburgh Perfect."

A large variety of this fence is kept on hand, and any varieties not in stock will promptly be secured from the factory.

When at the Grange Encampment and Fair, please make an effort to call around and see our display of furniture. It will be impossible, of course, to have a complete line on the grounds, but there will be enough to give you an idea of the kind of goods we handle and the prices asked for them.

We will have catalogues galore, and will be able to take your order for all kinds of furniture and deliver it right to your door, and assist you to set it up in your house.

The quality of goods we offer you will be guaranteed as represented. We have no desire to catch trade by offering you a lot of trash, a little lower in price than well constructed furniture of good material, yet in the end the most expensive.

The furniture we sell bears turning UP-SIDE-DOWN for examination. Its beauty is not all in the varnish and putty.
