

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

S. W. SMITH, Editor and Proprietor.

CENTRE HALL, PENN'A.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1907.

TERMS—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.

ADVERTISEMENTS—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

State Treasurer. JOHN G. HARMAN, Columbia county.

Prothonotary ARTHUR B. KIMFORT, Bellefonte. District Attorney WILLIAM G. RUNKLE, Bellefonte. County Surveyor J. HENRY WETZEL, Bellefonte.

If the American fleet looks for trouble while in the Eastern waters, no doubt some one of the countries will accommodate them. The bully who walks the pike with a chip on both shoulders is liable to have one or both knocked off. Ought not a Nation claiming to be peaceful and Christian keep its great engines of war in the back-ground until obliged to bring them forward in self defense.

Bush Meeting.

There will be a Bush meeting in Moyer's grove, about three-fourths of a mile east of Colyer, commencing September 21st, and continuing over the Sabbath. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. J. K. Mumau, of the Free Methodist church. Everybody invited.

Hardenburgh-Foster.

Wednesday morning of last week Dr. John A. Hardenburgh, of Millheim, and Miss Viola G. Foster, of Philadelphia, were married in New York city. Dr. Hardenburgh is a young physician at Millheim who has been meeting with more than ordinary success. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster, of Philadelphia, and is a young lady of accomplishments. Of course, they will make their home in Millheim.

The Magician Wednesday Night.

Mr. Morphet, the Magician, who will appear in the Auditorium, Grange Park, Wednesday evening of next week, stands pre-eminent, introducing new and startling effects in a most pleasing manner. His repertoire of mysteries is bewildering to old and young alike. Particular attention is called to his original flag productions, when in he causes to materialize from small pieces of tissue paper, flags of all nations, as well as hundreds of small flags, all colors, which are distributed to the audience. Exploding soap bubbles is a fascinating entertainment feature originated and performed only by Mr. Morphet.

Rebersburg.

Harry Musser, accompanied by his sisters, Esta and Carrie, all of West Bruah Valley, spent Sunday in town. Miss Sarah Guisewite and mother, of Aaronsburg, were in Rebersburg one day this week.

Edwin Gilbert is the proudest man in town since the arrival of that boy. Miss Maude Beck, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting relatives here. Miss Sadie Weber, of this place, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

Rev. Edwin Bierly is the guest of his mother in this place. William Kreamer and wife, of Millheim, and Mrs. Rose Blair, of Williamsport, visited relatives here on Saturday.

Miss Mabel Gilbert, who was employed in Aaronsburg for several months, is at present staying at the home of her brother Edwin.

Harry Musser moved his family from Williamsport to this place, one day last week, and now occupies part of Harvey Corman's house. Mr. Musser is employed as teacher of the Stover school, at the east end of the valley.

Georges Valley.

Miss Elizabeth Faust, of Jeannette, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. James Faust.

A number of young people from the valley attended Bush meeting at Colyer, Sunday.

Miss Jennie Decker attended the Williams reunion, at Martha Furnace. Miss Rena Zettle, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Zettle.

Edward Decker is at present employed by Oliver Strunk, of Centre Hall. He is assisting to thresh grain. Preaching services will be held in the United Evangelical church, Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

Fillmore Aukerman is painting a house for Edward Allison, at Potters Mills.

Andrew Long spent Sunday with F. Aukerman and family. Frederick Zettle and family, accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Reeder, spent Sunday with Mrs. James Faust.

Miss Margaret Kreisher is attending the Mountain school this term.

The charity that begins at home is generally too weak to travel.

Mr. Morphet, the Magician. This is what a Freeport, Illinois, paper says of Mr. Morphet, who will appear in the Auditorium, Grange Park, Wednesday evening of next week:

Mr. Morphet is a peer in the art of sleight-of-hand, his work being done entirely with the hands, no cages, boxes or other paraphernalia being employed. His palming and card work were the best ever seen here and he presents a number of Hindoo and Chinese feats of magic that no other magician in America attempts. As a ventriloquist Mr. Morphet is also an expert.

Valuable Property for Sale.

The Dinges property consisting of a nine room brick dwelling, two story brick store building, large barn and all out buildings located in the central part of Centre Hall and one of the most desirable properties in the town can be purchased at a bargain. Inquire of Mrs. Mary A. Dinges, Centre Hall, Penn. o. sept 19

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday, September 20.

LOCALS.

The various Sabbath schools of Aaronsburg held a picnic Saturday.

A great program has been prepared for Saturday evening's entertainment in the Auditorium, Grange Park.

Mrs. Margaret Bradley, of Burnham, is at the home of her nephew, Frank W. Shutt, in Centre Hall.

Hon. John G. McHenry, of Columbia county, will be at the Grange Fair to address the farmers on the organization of farmers banks.

Mary Dinges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dinges, Wednesday returned from Tyrone where she visited among friends.

James Foust, Dairy and Food Commissioner, will talk of the Dairy and Pure Food laws of the State at the Grange Fair.

Misses Lola Strohm and Roxanna Brisbin are in Philadelphia engaged as trimmers in large millinery stores. They expect to remain until the holiday season.

In order to become manager of the gents' furnishing department in the J. N. Burson & Co. store, Philadelphia, William H. Garman, of Bellefonte, left for that city a few days ago. There will be an array of talented speakers at the Encampment and Fair. The supply is drawn from the ranks of college presidents, state departments, senators, representatives, etc.

Col. D. F. Fortney and Prothonotary Kimfort, of Bellefonte, were on the south side of Centre county Friday. They were in Harris township looking over the old Kimfort homestead to which the young man remains very much attached.

The telegraph office at Bald Eagle station was closed and the telegraph office at the new tower, one mile east of Bald Eagle station, opened. B. L. Frantz has been telegraph operator at Bald Eagle station for more than ten years and will now remain as agent and post master.

Miss Amy Duncan, of Gordon, Schuylkill county, and George Runkle, of Philadelphia, first officer on the school-ship Saratoga, are guests of Miss Laura Runkle, at the Centre Hall hotel. The former will remain over the Encampment and Fair, and the latter for several weeks longer.

Miss Anna Wilkinson, a well known young lady of Potters Mills, who has been living with her sister, Mrs. Harry Spangler, in Chicago, for the past two years, is at the present time in the Angustana hospital of that city, having undergone an operation for appendicitis. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing rapidly.

J. Mitchell Garberick who was principal of the schools at Hummelstown during the past year has been elected to the same position at Clearfield. He is now engaged in the work at that place. On account of the delicate health of their child, Mrs. Garberick will remain at Hummelstown until the weather becomes cooler, when she will go to their new home.

Two ladies, Mrs. Margaret Gregg Dikeman, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. S. D. Longenecker, of Petersburg, were in Centre Hall last week to view the scenes of their childhood days. They are granddaughters of Peter Durst, deceased, and step-granddaughters of Mrs. Katie Durst, the oldest female resident in Centre Hall. Mrs. Dikeman is the daughter of Gregg Kikney, and Mrs. Elmira Longenecker is the daughter of Thomas Yarnell, both deceased. The former has not been in Centre Hall for twenty-four years, and thirty-eight has elapsed since the latter was here, yet they met some people they knew, among them Capt. George M. and J. Shannon Boal. They also visited in Bellefonte, and while there were entertained by their cousin, Attorney Clement Dale. Mrs. Dikeman has been in Washington for some time, and was accompanied as far as Petersburg by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Smith, also of Washington.

Call to see the Reporter—1, 2, 3—the American Flag. Mrs. Mary Shoop was in Bellefonte for several days last week.

Wheat seeding is in progress. There is no complaint of lack of moisture. Mrs. F. P. Geary Tuesday went to York to visit her father, Rev. Buck, and will be gone for several weeks.

After undergoing repairs since the latter part of July, the Bellefonte furnace was put in operation again last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckenroth, of Bellefonte, have located in Sunbury, where they will make their future home.

Earl Grove quit teaching the Indians in Nebraska, and is now serving in the U. S. Weather Bureau, in Denver, Colorado. Rev. Samuel Creighton, a well known Methodist minister, died at Mackeyville Tuesday afternoon, aged about seventy-two years.

County Commissioners Dunlap, Weaver and Bailey are attending the convention of commissioners being held at York. Hon. J. T. Allman, secretary of the State Grange, will talk about the status of Grange organizations at the Grange Fair, Centre Hall.

The missionary society connected with the Presbyterian church, with appropriate services, celebrated an anniversary Sunday evening. Miss Bessie Weber has been ill for the past week. Her condition is much improved, but an operation for appendicitis will be necessary in the near future.

The Reporter is indebted to the State College Times for the illustrations of the Schwab mechanical art building at Pennsylvania State College. Mrs. Thomas P. Hayes, of Watson-town, is expected the latter part of this week by her sister, Mrs. J. T. Potter, and will remain over the Encampment and Fair.

After a visit of several days at Martha, during which time she attended the Williams reunion, Mrs. George O. Benner returned to her home in Centre Hall Monday. The Dunkle sale Saturday was gratifying to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dunkle. They have gone to Elmira, New York, where they will make their home with their daughters.

Prof. I. H. Mauser, son of Dr. N. Mauser, of Millinburg, has recently been elected Supervising Principal of the Trevorton schools. For the last five years he has been a teacher in the Sunbury schools.

New Crossings.

The borough authorities are building three new crossings and two old ones will be rebuilt to conform to grades. The new crossings will be at Mrs. Lucy Haney's, between the properties of Mrs. Laura Lee and that occupied by S. H. Knepley, and one across Main street from Dr. James W. Boal's to Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs' property.

The crossing between the Bank and Lutheran church, and the one between George L. Goodhart and the Riter property will be rebuilt.

Wedding at the Reformed Parsonage. Monday afternoon at four o'clock Daniel W. Houser, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Bessie V. Vonada, of Farmers Mills, were married at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. Daniel Gress.

They will reside at Pleasant Gap where the groom is employed in the fish hatchery.

Grove Meeting and Jubilee.

The Grove meeting and fiftieth Anniversary Jubilee in progress near Tusseyville under the auspices of the Evangelical Association is being largely attended. The program, according to the regular schedule, has been pretty well carried out. The gathering Sunday was unusually large.
