

DEATHS.

Tuesday morning of last week Dennis Luse, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Millheim, died at his home in that place of general infirmities. He was born on July 9th, 1831, thus making his age seventy-six years, one month and twenty-four days. Surviving him are his wife and the following children: Henry K., of Oregon; James D., of Williamsport; Mrs. Mienast Maize, of Baltimore, Md.; John W., of Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. Joseph Herald, of Madison, Conn.; Mrs. Samuel Warren, of Turtle Creek, and Mrs. William Bead, of Sparrows Point, Md. Rev. W. H. Spangler, of Bellefonte, officiated at the funeral which was held Friday morning; interment in the Millheim Union cemetery.

Mrs. Catharine A. Mull Miller died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. K. White, wife of Dr. White, of Phillipsburg, as a result of a complication of diseases. She was aged sixty-five years and was a daughter of Aaron and Sarah Mull, deceased, her father having been a member of the electoral college which elected Lincoln for the presidency. Surviving Mrs. Miller are a son and a daughter, S. M. Mull and Mrs. White, both of Phillipsburg; also three sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. C. N. Seidle, Mrs. Annie V. Jones and Miss Margaret Mull, of Lebanon, and Prof. George F. Mull, of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster.

George W. Smith, an old veteran of the Civil War, passed away at his home at Gardner's Mills, Blair county, after being ill for several months of peritonitis. Deceased was born in Centre county, though most of his life was spent at Gardner's Mills, where he was in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company. His first wife was Miss Lizzie Harpster, also of Centre county, and his second was Mrs. Minnie Parks. The latter survives with her one son and four children by his first wife.

Mrs. Aussie Meek Biddle, wife of Wm. N. Biddle, died at her home in Phillipsburg, after a number of years illness. She was born in Ferguson township, this county, and was the last surviving daughter of William Jay Meek. Her great grand-father was Capt. George Meek, of revolutionary fame. Surviving her are her husband, three children and an only brother.

After a brief illness Mrs. Alice B. Pierce died at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Harris, at Allegheny Furnace. She was only twenty-one years of age and was born and raised in Phillipsburg, being a daughter of Mrs. Martha M. Ebbart, of that place, who survives her, as well as her husband, father, one brother and three sisters.

Mrs. Nancy Weaver died at the home of her son, Samuel Weaver, at Lemont, as the result of a stroke of apoplexy, aged eighty-four years. She was a native of Huntingdon county, but had lived in Centre county ever since her marriage in 1847. She is survived by several children.

Mrs. Christina Boughamer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Lauver, of Greenwood, Blair county. She was a native of Centre county, and was aged seventy-eight years.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Michigan, says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

E. B. Dorsett, Lecturer of the State Grange, will make his first appearance at the Grange Encampment, and will talk about the literary work of the Grange and what women are doing for the order.

LOCALS.

The register will be a feature at tents Nos. 1, 2, 3. The American Flag will direct you.

The Pennsylvania State College will open the fall session on Thursday, September 19th.

Dr. B. H. Warren, former Dairy and Food Commissioner, will address the farmers at the Grange Exhibition on the work of the commissioner.

Everybody is at it—"fixin'" up for the Encampment and Fair. The residents of Centre Hall are never busier than the week before this gathering.

Keep in mind the Bible Concert Company will give an entertainment Saturday night. No discount on any of these entertainments—all will be first class.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crozter, of Bellefonte, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swabb, in Centre Hall, Sunday. Before returning they visited friends in other portions of Centre county.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Shively, of Millburg, last week, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Whiteman, in Centre Hall. Mr. Shively is employed by one of the buggy factories in Millburg.

Although his leg is encased in plaster Paris, Charles Smith, a lad of ten or more years, is chipper as a lark and is again enjoying life. "Doesn't hurt a bit," and whack, whack, goes a stick against the cast where the bone was fractured, to prove the assertion.

Mrs. Mary Colyer just returned from a trip to Dauphin county where she visited her sister, Mrs. Catharine Oberholzer, near Millersburg. A number of years ago, Mrs. Oberholzer was a resident of Centre Hall, living in the house now owned and occupied by Oliver W. Strunk.

Mrs. Edwin A. Zeigler, nee Miss Rebecca Moyer, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, over Sunday. Mr. Zeigler is connected with the National Forestry Department, and at this writing is on his way east from California, expecting to arrive here next week, and from here he and Mrs. Zeigler will return to the National Capital.

During Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the members of the Presbytery of Huntingdon held an Evangelistic Conference at Birmingham. The speakers were Rev. C. A. R. Janvier, of Philadelphia; Rev. Henry N. Faulconer and J. H. Jefferies, of Chester Presbytery; Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D. D., of Chicago, and various members of the Presbytery. Rev. W. H. Schuyler attended the various sessions, also a meeting of Presbytery held Wednesday.

Spring Mills.

The supervisors have started to put in the abutments for the new bridge crossing Penns Creek at the mill.

S. L. Condo recently sold two fine rubber tire buggies to Messrs. T. M. Gramley and Wm. Ruhl. Last week he also delivered two rubber tire carriages to Cedar Springs.

F. E. Bowersox made a business trip to Millburg, Saturday.

A brand new daughter arrived at the home of Railroad Agent W. L. Campbell, last week.

Miss Katharine McCool, Sunday, fell from a spring wagon and broke her arm. Dr. Alexander, of Potters Mills, reduced the fracture.

S. L. Condo will exhibit a car load of fine vehicles at the Grange Encampment, Centre Hall, next week.

Messrs. Rhoads and Knisely are building the abutments for the iron bridge on the pike, at Allison's mill.

Robert Kennelley is again assisting Floyd Bowersox, the blacksmith.

Miss Alice Robinson, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with Miss Mabel Allison.

Mrs. Wm. Meyer is spending some time in Millheim.

Smith's New Studio

At State College, which is nearing completion, will unquestionably be one of the best fitted galleries for high class photographic work in central Pennsylvania. The large and commodious skylight room will comfortably accommodate a group of 60 people, and is so arranged that any light known to the photographic trade can be made. An electric light of 4000 candle power will enable pictures to be made at night equal to any daylight work.

An Enlarging Apparatus

for making all sized enlargements from small pictures, plates and films. The entrance being on a level with street saves all stair climbing and affords a fine display window. In connection with this we wish to say to all owners of cameras, kodaks, etc., that we are

Exclusive Agents at State College For Eastman Kodaks, Cameras,

Films, Plates, Papers, Mounts, Chemicals, and all other photographic goods. To any one interested we wish to say that we can furnish you Cameras or Kodaks as cheap as you can buy them anywhere, and would respectfully solicit a trial order. Grange Encampment and Fair.

The great annual gathering at Grange Park, Centre Hall, promises to be the largest and best ever held there. The grounds and buildings are in a splendid condition. The new exhibition building is the finest and most attractive building on any fair ground in the state, and the committee has the assurance of the enterprising people that it will be filled to overflowing. The Penn'a State College and State experiment station in their new quarters will make a splendid display, and so will every department of this great fair of Central Penna.

Some of the most eminent farmers and educators are among the speakers, and the assurance is given that every day will be a great and interesting day. The tent accommodations have been greatly enlarged and improved, so that there will be tents for all in pleasant locations. The camp has been broken up into groups, giving a pleasing and attractive appearance. All who can should come on Saturday and stay until the close. Leave care behind and have a good time.

All that remains necessary to be done to make this a great and valuable fair is for everybody to bring some valuable product of the soil, garden, orchard, vineyard, poultry yard or some handiwork of the needle or brush. Let every one do their part.

Hon. W. F. Hill, Master of the State Grange, will be at the Grange Encampment, Centre Hall, to talk about farmers organizing.

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

THE PRINCIPAL

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G.
