Grange Clothing House.

Mr. Garitte, of Philadelphia, will make a fine display of clothing at the Grange Fair.

seeds.

We have now on hand choice timothy, clover and alsike seed. These seeds are as clean as can be found in the market.

J. H. and S. E. WEBER, Centre Hall and Oak Hall.

Harvest Home Services.

Harvest Home services will be held in the Auditorium of Grange Park, Sunday, Sept. 15th, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. George W. McInay will preach the anniversary sermon. All are cordially invited.

The Corn Crop.

It all depends on the early or late coming of Jack Frost whether or not Penns Valley will have a marketable corn crop. The past fifteen days have worked wonders with the corn, and barring frost the crop will far exceed the expectations of most farmers.

Keith's Theatre.

The most brilliant and varied bill of the season is being given at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, this week. The first on the bill is the greatest spectacular and musical novelty of the period, "The Song Birds."

J. D. Murray's Unusual Offer.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to refund the money if it does not cure," said J. D. Murray to a Centre Reporter man who dropped into his store.

"The Dr. Howard Company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes me to sell their regular fifty-cent bottles at half-price, 25 cents, and, although I have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in a vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medical power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water."

"I am still selling the specific at half-price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance."

Attorney General Todd is giving the capitol thieves ample time to 23.

Dear Governor: The days of grace allotted the capitol thieves ought not to be continued longer. The people are growing restless.

Does Governor Stuart deem it of more importance that Sheatz should be elected than the grafters be punished? Is the governor fooling the people—just now?

The people are beginning more and more to regret that Lewis J. Emory is not in the governor's chair. Stuart's promises are not hurting the capitol thieves, and, perhaps, had the governor known the robbers would be discovered, the promises would not have been made.

And when will Roosevelt and his cabinet quit talking and do something? Have they put striped goods on a single individual? No! Will they? No!! They are simply laying plans for the like of Cortelyou to bleed the corporations for campaign funds needed in the next National contest.

The Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel views the Republican candidate for district attorney thus:

A candidate for district attorney over in Centre county is not at all modest in his platform. He pledges himself to break up the larceny, burglary and murder that have run riot in the county and "stop it without unnecessary expense to the taxpayer."

THE REPORTER HEADQUARTERS

At the Encampment and Fair Will Be Open to All Comers.

As previously announced the Centre Reporter's headquarters at the Encampment and Fair will comprise three tents. No. 1 will be devoted to business; No. 2 will be open to everybody—everybody's tent, and No. 3, exclusively to mothers and the babies.

An effort will be made to equip each of the tents to suit the purposes intended. The mother's tent, especially, will be arranged with a view to the comfort of both the mothers and the little ones. This tent, No. 3, will be open at all times, and so located that it will be sufficiently private. The outside court will afford a good view of the grounds and be provided with ample seating capacity.

The American Flag will indicate the headquarters of the Centre Reporter. Call around, all of you—the Reporter readers and their friends.

Moyer-Bray.

No prettier wedding was ever solemnized in Newport township, Luzerne county, than the one on the 28th of August in the Newport Centre church, when at high noon Rev. George Warburton, rector of St. Andrews P. E. church, of Alden, spoke the words which united for life Miss Carolyn Bray and H. Bruce Moyer, of Centre Mills. The bride was attractively gowned in white and wore a veil, fastened with a brooch. The maid of honor was her sister, Miss Ida Bray, who wore white batiste, and, with the bride, carried white asters and fern.

ELECTION LAWS

Some Radical Changes Are Proposed in Near Future.

At the last session of the legislature, a joint resolution was adopted providing for certain amendments to the state constitution. This resolution will come up again for consideration by the next legislature, and if adopted, will be voted on by the people of the state in 1909. The amendments which affect the people generally relate to the change in the elections, the term of county and local officers and of alderman. The changes suggested are sweeping ones. The provisions of the proposed amendments, as gathered from the pamphlet law just issued, are as follows: Elections are divided into two classes. One is called the general election and the other the municipal election. These elections are to be held only once in two years. The general election is to be held in the even numbered years; and the municipal elections in the odd numbered years. Both are to be held the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each of the respective years. The spring election is to be entirely done away with. The term of every county office is to be four years, of alderman and justices of the peace six years. The term of local offices that is now one year is to be two years, and the term that is now three years is to be four years. If the amendment be adopted all officers to be elected in the even numbered years, whose term of office will expire in an odd numbered year, will hold his office for one year more. And all officers to be elected in odd numbered years, whose term of office will expire on an even numbered year, will hold his office for another year. All county, city, ward, borough and township officers are to be elected at what is termed the municipal election that is to be held in the odd numbered years. The terms of all city, borough and township officers are to begin on the first Monday of December after their election. The time when the term of other officers is to begin is not to be changed.
