J. HENRY WETZEL, Bellefonte.

Georges Valley.

From last week. James Foust and son Elmer, who are employed in Yeagertown, spent Sunday at home.

James Barger, who is employed near Lock Haven, is spending some time at home.

E. W. Zettle visited friends on this side, Sunday.

Some of the farmers are almost through sowing wheat, while others have done very little plowing.

Jonas Confer, who has been ill for some time, is improving slowly.

The Literary society of the Decker school, which was organized Sept. 9, held its first meeting Monday night.

Those on the program spoke very well. Hereafter the society will meet every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Jessie Lingle, of Renovo, spent Sunday with friends here.

Henry Lingle sold a valuable horse to Jonas Lingle, of Poe Valley, last week.

John Garret and wife, of Union county, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. James Barger.

Thomas Davis, who is working near Colyer, spent Sunday with his parents.

On account of the rain many of the farmers are back with their seeding, some not having commenced.

Albert Barger, accompanied by a lady from Milroy, visited his sister, Mrs. Smith. They returned to Mifflin county Sunday.

John Wagner and family were among the tenters on Grange Park, last week.

Abednego Williams, of Martha, attended Grange picnic, and visited his nephews and nieces at the Decker home, last week.

Wesley Gobble and family spent Sunday with friends in Brush Valley.

Wm. Royer visited friends in the valley last week and Saturday started for Illinois. Later he will go on to North Dakota where he will make his home.

Asher Confer and family were guests of his brother, Joseph, over Sunday.

Calvin Lingle and wife, Sunday, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerick.

John Foust came home Saturday for a short visit. He has been employed at carpentering near Pittsburg.

Misses Mable and Marion Finkle, of Spring Mills, accompanied by Miss Rae Houtz, of near Bellefonte, visited friends here Sunday.

C. W. Lingle and family visited friends in Brush Valley Sunday.

John Foust, who is employed at Homer City, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Foust.

Mrs. D. C. Lingle and daughter Gertrude spent Friday evening with Mrs. James Foust.

Wm. Kreisher, of this place, is at present employed at Yeagertown.

Robert Lingle spent Sunday evening at the home of P. A. Anman.

Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert and Mr. Smith, of Altoona, spent a few days with the former's parents.

Miss Justia Hoy, of Pittsburg, visited her aunts, the Kline sisters, a few days last week.

Mrs. Maria Deshler and Mrs. Donat spent a day last week with friends at Rebersburg.

Charles Acker, of Pittsburg, spent a day with his parents.

Reginald Gable, of Johnstown, is visiting at the home of his uncle, Earnest Stover.

Olean Glenn and family, of Pittsburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keener, parents of Mrs. Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Guisewite and daughter Mae took dinner at the home of Andrew Vonada, at Coburn, Sunday.

Lloyd Smith and Mr. Jordan, of Potters Mills, were in town Sunday.

Miss Miriam Kelster has gone to spend a few months with friends at State College.

FOREST THEATRE.

Klaw and Erlanger's Advanced Vaudeville Has Taken Philadelphia by Storm.

A new theatre, artistic, luxurious and safeguarding the public in every way, is the Forrest, at Philadelphia, the most costly and beautiful house in the world devoted to vaudeville. It has sprung into immediate popularity and is crowded to the doors. Klaw and Erlanger's exposition of vaudeville is a revelation to lovers of this form of entertainment. It means only the best, the very flower and pick of talent, foreign and domestic. There are no mediocre turns to lessen enjoyment of the headliners. "Nothing but headliners"—that is the Klaw and Erlanger motto. This week's remarkable offerings again take on an international aspect. One of the most famous stars that the London halls have sent us is Gus Elen, a coster and cockney impersonator, who has created an immediate sensation. He is in America but for five weeks, and Philadelphia is one of three cities in which he appears.

Bierly-Wolfe.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Haugh, of Smullton, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Sunday evening, the 22nd, when the youngest daughter of the latter, Miss Mayme V. Wolfe, was united in the bonds of holy wedlock to Curtis M. Bierly, of Dent's Run. The attendants were Samuel Bierly, brother of the groom, and Miss Mabel Brungart, of Rebersburg. Miss Adah Bascom, of Carlisle, presided at the organ. The bride's pastor, Rev. G. W. McClintock, officiated.

The groom is a young man of sterling qualities who holds a good position with the Williams Coal & Coke Co. of Buffalo, at Dent's Run, where a house ready furnished awaited the coming of the happy pair on Monday.

The bride is one of Centre county's most charming daughters, possessed of such qualities as go to make up a splendid companion in life. She taught several terms of public school in Centre and Clinton counties. She will be greatly missed in the locality which she has always called her home.

Especially will she be missed in the Methodist Episcopal church in Smullton, where for years she has been the organist and in which she was also an excellent church worker.

May prosperity attend them is the wish of their many friends.

The Ferris Wheel.

It was announced that a ferris wheel would be on Grange Park, but it failed to be there simply because the railroad company failed to deliver the goods. Messrs. Copping and McMillin, representing the Copping Amusement Company, were on hand the beginning of the week, but the wheel was not received until Thursday, too late to be erected. They promise to be back next year.

Fenstermacher-Lytle.

Charles Fenstermacher, of Chicago, and Miss Nell Lytle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lytle, of near State College, were united in marriage Wednesday evening, 25th inst., at the Reformed parsonage in Boalsburg, by Rev. A. A. Black. Mr. Fenstermacher is a graduate of State College, and has employment in Chicago, in which place they will make their future home. The best wishes of their many friends in this locality go with them.

The Wiley Boarding House.

Of all the business places whose proprietors made an effort to please and succeeded in doing so was Charles Wiley, of Dillsburg, the boarding house manager on Grange Camp. He and his numerous assistants made every effort to accommodate the public and serve them with the best eatables to be procured. The table was always neat and clean, the waiters prompt, and every effort was made to give the customer the money's worth.

Woman in Poultry Business.

Mrs. J. E. Kustaborder, of Bellwood, last February purchased a barred Plymouth Rock cockerel, and recently sold him to a poultryman who took the bird to the Hollidaysburg fair and secured first prize. This indicates that Mrs. Kustaborder has the finest strain of birds in Blair county. During the summer she sold a large number of eggs, and also raised two hundred young birds.

Letter to James A. Keller.

Dear Sir: Such experiences as this are occurring all over the country. Judge I. D. Fairchild owns two houses exactly alike, in Lufkin, Texas. J. M. Torrence painted both houses, one Devoe, 15 1/2 gallons; the other with another paint sold at same price; 25 gallons. That 25 gallon paint is weak and 15 per cent. whitening; that's why it took 9 1/2 gallons more.

You can learn for nothing what he had to pay for.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
New York.

Kreamer & Son sell our paint.

F. E. Arney, the baker, will deliver bread, rolls, cakes, etc., at your door; call him over the Bell line.

The 2-Cent Rate.

Until the court decides the rate question the Pennsy and Reading railroads will sell tickets at the 2-cent rate.

Centre County Fair.

The eighth annual Fair of the Centre county agricultural exhibition company will be held at Bellefonte October 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Chicken and Waffle Supper.

The Ladies Aid Society will serve a chicken and waffle supper, Saturday, October 5th from 5 to 10 p. m., on the lawn at R. G. McMillan's, Linden Hall. Ice cream will also be served. The public is cordially invited; proceeds for the benefit of the United Evangelical church.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Lucy Henney is in Philadelphia, and while there will purchase her fall and winter stock of millinery goods.

Mrs. Mary A. Luse, widow of the late Dennis Luse, sold her house and lot on West Main street, Millheim, to Peter A. Breen for $290. Mr. Breen took possession of the premises at once.

Reardon, the furniture man, in his advertisement returns thanks to the many people who called to examine his exhibit at the Encampment and Fair. Judging from his adv. he did his good share of business.

A twig from a pine tree, the tree farthest up Pike's Peak, is a souvenir sent the Reporter by W. Harry Potter, of Centre Hall. He was one of a party who climbed the peak on foot, a feat not easily accomplished. Mr. Potter is now gradually working his way to the Pacific coast.

Burkholder-Havice.

The Milroy correspondent to the Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel writes thus:

Two of our esteemed young people, Miss Beulah Havice and John Burkholder, hied themselves away to Reedsville on Wednesday evening, where the knot was tied by Rev. W. J. Shaeffer, pastor of the Methodist church of Milroy, after which they returned a happy bride and groom.

Owing to the inclement weather, the band composed of tin cans, horns, etc., failed to put in an appearance until Thursday evening, when they gave them a rousing serenade. Mr. Burkholder is the second son of Mrs. Isaac Hetrick, by her first husband, Michael Burkholder, and Miss Havice is the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Havice.

Nittany Mountain.

George Noll, accompanied by his wife, son and daughter, of Winburne, has been visiting his parents, A. G. Noll and wife. He is a carpenter by trade, and as work is slack just at present he decided to visit the old folks and take in the picnic.

Mrs. Elmer White, of Altoona, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Noll.

Clem. Sunday and wife, of Altoona, visited Wm. Parker and family picnic week.

There was a celebration at David Rossman's Sunday, it being Mrs. Rossman's birthday. Some thirty children and grandchildren gathered there and partook of one of those famous dinners which Mrs. Rossman knows so well how to prepare. They all enjoyed the day, and departed with good wishes for their host and hostess.

Mrs. Samuel Coble is still under the doctor's care, being unable to do her own work.

Mrs. George Dubos had an attack of cholera morbus, but is better again.

C. D. Bilger has finished the timber in Brooks' woods. He sawed it for the McNeil-Huyett Lumber Company. Gingerich and Baumgardner are almost through with the Potter tract of timber purchased by H. W. Orwig.

Charles Poorman is doing the threshing for the farmers on the mountain.

Miss Sallie Riley returned home Wednesday of last week after spending the summer with friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Amanda Walker is staying at Pine Grove Mills, with Mrs. John Musser, who is ill.

Howard Bricker, of Tyrone, attended the Grange Picnic and spent a short time in Boalsburg.

Mrs. George Boal recently had her household goods shipped from Denver, Colorado, to her home near Boalsburg. Saturday she gave a dinner in honor of the homecoming of her son, Theodore D. Boal, from Washington, D. C. Only the immediate relatives were invited.

W. H. Stuart made a business trip to Philadelphia last week.

Edwin Stump and Benjamin Haffley and daughters Tammie and Malzie, of Aaronsburg, spent part of Saturday at Locust Grove farm. Business and pleasure were combined.

The Harvest Home offering on the Boalsburg Reformed church was larger this year than at any previous time, amounting to $147.22. Nearly one-half of this amount was contributed by the Boalsburg congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gilbert and son Samuel, of Wolfs Chapel, visited the Young families.

Will Leech passed through Boalsburg Monday, offering fine honey for sale at 20 cents per lb. He had ninety pounds, the summer's work of one colony of bees.

G. W. Garbaric, west of State College, purchased the Coxey home, near Boalsburg, and expects to move there in the spring.

Frank Lohr, tenant on the farm of N. E. Hess, near Shingletown, bought the Wilson farm, on Buffalo Run, with the intention of moving there in the spring.

Foster Charles, of Pittsburg, and Grant Charles, of Bellefonte, visited their parents during the past week and spent part of the time at Grange Park.

Phil Foster, of State College, was here the early part of the week and bought a car load of apples, paying eighty cents per hundred lbs.

Messrs. John McCracken and John Everhart and Misses Anna Mary Goheen and Sara McWilliams, of Rock Spring, took a drive to Reedsville, Friday. On their return journey Saturday they spent part of the evening at the home of Wm. Goheen.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glenn, of the Branch, were guests of L. Mothersbaugh Sunday, and also attended services in the Presbyterian church.

Some of the old time quilters enjoyed Thursday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Miller at a quilting party.

Sutlers Privileges Taken.

The fact that a number of sutlers have already contracted for privileges at next year's Encampment and Fair indicates that the rain did not interfere to any perceptible extent with the receipts. The merry-go-round man also signed a contract to come back at a higher rate than paid this year. The ferris wheel, which was delayed in shipping, has also engaged space. The ice cream privilege was also sold at an advance to a new party.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Michigan, says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.
