

SEPTEMBER COURT.

Cases Heard Before Court and Jury at First September Court.

The September session of court convened Monday morning, at which time petitions and motions were presented.

George Waite, executor of his mother's estate, of Miles township, was brought before the court to show reason why he failed to file his account. Upon being recalled he still refused to file the account, and was committed to the custody of the sheriff.

P. J. McDonald, of Unionville, was made foreman of the Grand jury.

Dr. E. S. Dorworth vs. overseers of the poor of Spring township; appeal. This action was brought to recover for medical attendance. The patient not being financially able to pay the bill and the overseers not having had any knowledge of the services rendered, the doctor took out an order of relief, which he subsequently handed to the overseers and charged the bill to the district. Non suit was asked on the ground that the required ten days notice had not been given. A verdict of $54.32 was given, subject to a point of law involved.

Earl Freeman, charged with stealing a suit case from O. F. Shaw, of State College, pleaded guilty.

He also pleaded guilty to the charge of having broken into the store of D. T. Pearce, at State College, and taking therefrom a pair of men's shoes.

Wilbur Wilkinson, charged with breaking open a package at Coburn railroad station, and taking therefrom a box of peanut candy, pleaded guilty.

The case of the Millinburg buggy company vs. David Bailey, an appeal, was settled.

On motion Charles A. McClure was admitted to the practice of law.

Waldren & Co. vs. David Bailey, an appeal. Verdict for the plaintiff in sum of $37.50.

M. C. Gephart vs. Reuben Eilers, an appeal. Judgment confessed by defendant in sum of $68.03.

John Williams vs. Edward Hughes, an appeal. Continued.

George B. Waite, held for contempt of court, was given thirty days in which to file his account.

Millin County Notes.

The appended items reprinted from the Lewistown papers are of interest to many of the Reporter readers.

Milroy—Born to Porter Albright and wife, a son.

Mrs. Jeff Brown and children are visiting friends in Centre Hall.

Miss Sudie Bottorf is attending the Grangers' picnic in Centre county.

H. B. Stover and Miss Rebecca Randolph were visitors in Centre county on Sunday.

Mrs. William Winegardner and Mrs. James Hanna and children are visiting in Centre county and attending the Grangers' picnic.

Grandmother Mary Coldron, an esteemed resident of Milroy, passed from this life Thursday morning in her eighty-fifth year. She leaves five children, two girls and three boys: Lizzie, William and Kate McClellens, of Milroy; James, formerly of Centre Hall, is located at Hastings, and Samuel is in Indiana.

Reedsville—Amos Bedyon and family, who had been residing in Reedsville and later at Manns, moved back to their old home at Colyer. Mr. Bedyon is a Civil war veteran.

Gen. John P. Taylor was the oldest veteran at Saratoga, but from the General's vivid account of the pleasure he had it is presumed that he had about the youngest time of all. Long live the General.

Pedro Reed is making the circuit of the rural mail route as a sub, the regular carrier, Charles Meyers, being on his annual vacation. Charles is going over to be among the Grangers at Centre Hall, and will otherwise enjoy himself hugely at his old Penn's Valley home.

Bucknell vs. Gettysburg.

The first big football game at Lewisburg will be played Saturday afternoon, between Gettysburg and Bucknell. The teams will be in good condition and a fine game is anticipated.

Last year Gettysburg won from Bucknell by the score of ten to two. The game will be called at two o'clock.

The Farmer's Glad Song.

No frost upon the pumpkin yet, and no fodder in the shock.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

[Appointments not given here have not been reported to this office.]

Lutheran—No services, owing to absence of pastor at Synod, in Rebersburg.

Presbyterian—No services.

Reformed—Tusseyville, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon.

Methodist—Centre Hall, morning; Spruce-town, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

OBITUARIES.

EMANUEL HARTER.

Emanuel Harter, a well known citizen of Miles township, died Tuesday night at his home near Rebersburg, aged a little over seventy-six years. Interment will be made at Millheim, Saturday morning. He is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Elvina Bierly, and two children—Mrs. Cook Lose, at home, and Mrs. Sallie Hillbish, of Freeburg.

HENRY KLINE.

Henry Kline, aged eighty-three years, died at Stone Mill, Potter township, Saturday evening. Interment was made at Tusseyville, Rev. D. Gress officiating.

Mr. Kline was thrice married. His first wife was a Miss Mulbarger, and the last two—one of whom survives—were sisters named Clark. A number of children survive, and among them are Dantel, John H., Luther, Mrs. Angeline Parks, Mrs. Emma Tressler, Bellefonte; Willis and Mrs. Katharine Arvins, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. William Stover, Yeagertown.

Linden Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hall and little Miss Virginia, are visiting Mrs. D. C. Hess.

Mrs. T. C. Helms left for her home in Oceola on Monday.

Friday evening friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown to celebrate the former's fifty-fourth birthday. He and a neighbor drove to Linden Hall and on his return he was completely surprised to find his home filled with about sixty people. The presents received were numerous and pretty. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Brown and her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl and little son are visiting relatives in Bethlehem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee and family are visiting Mrs. Lee's mother, in Shenandoah. They will be gone two weeks and during Mr. Lee's absence Mr. Lawker, of Halifax, has charge of the railroad office at this place.

Professor Stine, of Annville, came this week to take charge of the Pine Grove Mills Grammar school.

Mrs. Elmer Campbell was in Bellefonte Tuesday.

Harry Keller went to State College on Thursday where he entered the junior class.

Jerry Frazier, of near Abilene, Kansas, is visiting his brothers, John and Foster Frazier. This is his first trip east in twenty-two years.

Among other arrivals from the west is George Heinselman. He has not been east for fifty-four years. Mr. Heinselman formerly occupied what is now the farm of Mrs. D. C. Hess.

LOCALS.

By purchasing $5.00 worth of goods at Montgomery & Company's store, Bellefonte, you get a ticket to the fair grounds.

Ed. F. Wolf, of Bellwood, spent several days at camp. He is a native of lower Brush Valley, but for some time has been employed by the Pennsylvania car inspecting department, and is in line for promotion.

In order to better display and facilitate the handling of his stock of furniture, L. G. Bearick induced Druggist J. D. Murray to enlarge the furniture store, and preparations are now being made for that improvement.

After all the effort made by the Reporter to entertain the babies, not a single one was left as a recognition of appreciation; no, the mothers carried them—all of them—off proudly, and so intimated that if we want one, "git it yourself."

A. W. Zettle and wife, of Homer City, were in to attend the Picnic. Mrs. Zettle is remaining with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Grove, of Centre Hill, for a short time. They expect to move from Homer City to Indiana in the near future.

Messrs. John and Wilson From, the former of Shilo, Ohio, and the latter of Plymouth, Ohio, are in Centre Hall. Neither of them had been here for some years. Wilson, before returning home, will visit his sister, Mrs. Jacob Soil, at Gettysburg.

Lee Adams, son of the late Frank Adams, who has been employed in the General Electrical works at Schenectady, N. Y., has accepted a position at the Pennsylvania State College as an assistant in the electrical department. He is a graduate from that institution.

Among the people from the west who are east at this time is Benjamin F. Kern, of Orangeville, Illinois, who is living retired at this time. He is a painter and paper hanger, and a native of Millheim from which place he went west thirty or more years ago. This is his first visit to the east in that time.

The formal announcement of the marriage of Miss Mayme Miller, of Millheim, and W. R. Anderson, of Shickshinney, has been made. Miss Miller is at present one of the Bell telephone operators at Millheim, and Mr. Anderson is employed in the Peerless Pick and Handle Works, at Shickshinney.

The Maytown Reformed church, of which Rev. S. H. Dietzel, Ph. D., is pastor, September 29th to October 6th, will celebrate its 142d anniversary, which is also the 100th anniversary of the erection of the present church building. During that week the new Moller pipe organ recently installed will also be dedicated.

Among the young ladies from a distance entertained over Sunday was Miss Helen Beck, of Nittany, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, by their daughter, Miss Leila. Miss Beck is at the home of her uncle, Prof. L. Beeber, at State College, and holds the position of stenographer in the office of the alumni association.

Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., of Shamokin, was among his former parishioners for two days last week. Although it is fifteen years since Dr. Fischer served the Centre Hall Lutheran charge, he scarcely looks a day older. The glad hand is extended him at all times by not only his own former church people, but by everyone.

See Montgomery & Company's offer, in a local notice, to give you a ticket to the fair grounds.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.
