

TRAIN SCHEDULE

Trains leave Centre Hall on the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, P. R. E. System, as follows:

SALE REGISTER. OCTOBER 12, Saturday, 1 o'clock, at Stone Mill, personal property of the late Henry Kline...

NOVEMBER 8, Friday, 1 o'clock, near Potters Mills, real estate of the late Lydia Ann Foust...

According to President Roosevelt, McKinley's principal service to his country lay in furnishing a worthy type of citizenship.

No one will doubt the necessity of having a member of the minority party at the head of the state treasury department after the developments of the capitol steal...

Because there are only two county officers—prothonotary and district attorney—to be elected next month, there is no reason why every Democrat should not be interested in their success.

When the Capitol looters were looting they made no delay. When Berry was elected State Treasurer, and before his installation, they took the precaution of getting their pay before they delivered the goods.

Andrew Korman has his cider press in operation and will operate it Tuesday and Friday of each week.

First Frost, October 2. The first frost this fall was visible October 2nd, and although Jack's mantle covered everything in sight, no damage was done.

Governor Stuart appointed Daniel P. Stapleton and George G. Groff, of Lewisburg, and Horace P. Glover, of Millinburg, to be members of the commission created by the last Legislature for the erection of a monument to the memory of Samuel Maclay in Buffalo valley, Union county.

The members of the joint council of the Centre Hall Lutheran charge will meet in annual session in Centre Hall, Saturday, October 12, at 2 p. m.

Letter to W. F. Bradford, Centre Hall, Pa.

Dear Sir: John Billings never said anything truer than this: "Suckness duz not konsist ov never makin' blunders, but in not makin' the same wun twist."

N. R. Watkins, of Lott, Texas, had his house painted some years ago, and it took 13 gallons of what he believed to be paint, and he bought it for paint, and it looked like paint, the painter said it was paint.

He has had it painted again; and it took 7 gallons Devco.

He knows it is painted now, and he's got that $30 in a safe place. He's got his knowledge in a safe place too.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

Kreamer & Son sell our paint.

"BEN HUR."

Keen Interest Centered in the Staging of Lew Wallace's "Tale of the Christ," in Philad. Opera House.

General Wallace's great book, "Ben Hur," is beyond doubt a most interesting volume, but how infinitely more impressive is the actual presentation of these deeds set down.

Keen interest is centered on the staging of "Ben Hur" at the Chestnut Street Opera House for two weeks beginning Monday, October 21, when in addition to the twelve evening performances, matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday of each week.

There are many new acts offered at Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, this week. Among these is an illustrated lecture by Burr McIntosh, "With Secretary Taft in the Orient."

Short articles on this subject will be printed if the communications are properly signed. The names will not be appended to the published article unless the writer so desires.

LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Edward Mersinger, of Tusseyville, Sunday were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gfrcer, near Centre Hall.
