Decree of the Court.

The court ordered that the school directors in Miles township, furnish ample and satisfactory transportation to Rebersburg for the school children in the sub-district of Harter. This order is to be maintained until the final disposition of the rule.

[This has been done since the opening of the schools. Residents of the district were seeking a rule to oblige the board to open the Harter school.—ED.]

Final action in application for the erection of a school house at Gum Stump was suspended until December court. The Boggs township school board was given until the opening of court in which to begin the erection and construction of a school house at the point named.

The application for $5000 for the Curtin memorial and soldiers monument was granted. Two grand juries had recommended the application.

The rule for ejectment against Nathan Haugh, of Miles township, was dissolved at the cost of the plaintiff, T. R. Harter.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday, October 25.

Post Cards.

A new line of Souvenir Post Cards—all kinds and at all prices. The local views are the prettiest yet offered for sale at this office.

DEATHS.

May L. Miller, the infant daughter of Harry and Anna Miller, died at her parents' home at Wolfs Store, aged one year, three months and eighteen days.

Frank P. Smith died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Kate Smith, in Philipsburg. He was born in Philipsburg, where his early life was spent, but of late years he has been working in the west. He was aged thirty-six years, four months and twenty-six days, and is survived by several brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Rachel Rittenhouse, widow of the late L. W. Rittenhouse, Philipsburg, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jeremiah Miller, at Grampian. She was aged seventy-eight years, and was born in Bellefonte, being a daughter of Dr. Bayard. Since the death of her husband she has been making her home with her children.

Dr. Alexander Crawford died at his home in Warriorsmark, after only three days illness from spinal paralysis. He has been located at that place about twenty-six years, coming there from Blair county. He had built up a large practice, and was highly esteemed as a citizen. Surviving are his wife and one daughter, the latter being the wife of Dr. John Beck, of Alexandria.

LOCALS.

W. H. Runkle, the drayman, offers a horse for sale. These cold nights are loosening up the husk on the corn.

Drover Mitterling shipped a car load of milk cows beginning of this week.

Miss Tacy Kremer and friend, Miss Jones, returned to Johnstown Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schrack, of Doylestown, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. G. Allison.

Frank Goodhart went to Johnstown Tuesday morning, where he will be the guest of his brother, Samuel M. Goodhart.

As a matter of accommodation Miss Flora Love, of the Watchman, and Miss Nellie Kerlin, of the Centre Reporter, exchanged places this week.

Superintendent of schools, D. O. Etters, of State College, was in Centre Hall Tuesday, on a tour of visiting the schools, which he finds to be up to the standard.

The second son, baby number eight, arrived in the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Ruble, in Centre Hall. The little one received a number of presents from various persons in town.

A. C. Duniap, the Spring Mills barber, was in Centre Hall Wednesday, and inserted an advertisement in the Reporter relative to his business. He has been in business in Spring Mills for some years, and speaks well of his customers.

The following is from the Philipsburg Daily Journal: Prothonotary A. B. Kimpfort, of Bellefonte, who is a candidate for reelection on the Democratic ticket, was in town the other day shaking hands with friends and saying that his feces are all right. Mr. Kimpfort has made a good, faithful official, and his reelection would be eminently gratifying to a whole lot of people.

After an absence from the old home for twenty-eight years, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eungard, of Rock River, Ohio, are among friends in Penns Valley, making their headquarters with Mrs. Eungard's brother, William F. Rockey, at Tusseyville. While in Ohio they have been engaged in trucking, the nearby city of Cleveland furnishing a splendid market. Mr. and Mrs. Eungard will remain east for a month at least.

J. D. Murray's Success.

J. D. Murray, the enterprising druggist, rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard Co. to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c. bottle at half-price. The wonderful success of this plan was a great surprise even to Mr. Murray and today there are scores of people in Centre Hall who are using and praising this remarkable remedy. So much talk has been caused by this offer, and so many new friends have been made for the specific, that the Dr. Howard Co. have authorized druggist Murray to continue this special half-price sale for a limited time longer.

In addition to selling a 50c. bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c., Mr. Murray has so much faith in the remedy that he will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches, your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally, when there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart-burn, sour stomach, roaring and ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

The opening chapters of a new novel, "Though Life Us Do Part," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, is the feature of the Woman's Home Companion for November. The announcement of a new story by the author of "A Singular Life" is always agreeable, and this new novel gives promise of being one of Mrs. Ward's best.

The October "Arena" is laden with papers of special interest and covering a wide range of topics. The opening contribution, entitled "The Senatorial Election in Colorado," deals in a bold and striking way with the events that led up to the election of Simon Guggenheim.

How to Cure a Cold. The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.
