Peter Riter Dead.

A year ago the name of Peter Riter was on the tongue of almost every one, because of the killing of Clyde Auman. Today the Reporter records his death, Mr. Riter having died at his home, a half mile below Coburn, Thursday last week. Interment was made Saturday. He leaves a widow and four children. Ever since his acquittal of the charge of murder, Peter has been steadily weakening. He worried much because of the death of the lad, who, according to Riter's own story, was shot while seated on a limb of a tall chestnut tree, in mistake for a squirrel. His age was between forty-five and fifty years.

Horse Sale at Millheim.

Henry Tingwald, of Cherry, Iowa, will offer for sale a car load of draft, driving and general purpose horses at the Muser house, Saturday, November 2nd, at 12:30 o'clock. These are Iowa horses, selected especially to suit the wants of the customers of the Millheim horse market.

Mrs. Zerby Badly Burned.

While boiling apple butter one day last week, Mrs. Henry Zerby, south of Spring Mills, aged about sixty years, was badly burned over her body. In some manner her clothing caught fire, and before the flames could be extinguished severe, but not fatal, burns were inflicted.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday, November 8.

LOCALS.

Ralph Boozer, a Westinghouse draughtsman, is home since Saturday.

Vote for W. G. Runkle for a second term as district attorney. The south side especially should him a good vote.

George Bradford, the cattle shipper, was summoned as a witness at a court trial in West Chester. He is a witness for J. W. Walter, the plaintiff, in a suit for damages against the Pennsy.

The bridge over Penns Creek, between the hotel and Allison's mill, Spring Mills, was completed Saturday, and will be ready for public use as soon as the township completes the approaches.

Andrew Gregg is the head man of a gang of liemen who are making improvements on the Bell telephone lines. The placing of a cable leading to the exchange, is one of the pieces of work being done.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, of Senor, Ohio, are in Centre county, and are spending part of the time with Hon. W. M. Allison, at Spring Mills, and Mrs. Lillie Alexander, in Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Allison are living retired, and are enjoying life.

Foreman & Smith shipped a car load of apples to the western part of the state Tuesday. Lyman L. Smith is now about Pittsburg disposing of them. Apples in car lots and local lots are being shipped from the Centre Hall station by H. C. Shirk, D. A. Boozer and others.

LOCALS.

The hog market got a knock, but during the past few days has pretty well recovered.

E. M. Huyett is making arrangements for a mammoth sheep barn on his farm, west of Centre Hall.

District Attorney W. G. Runkle was in Centre Hall Monday, stopping off on his way to lower Penns Valley.

The Millheim clothier, D. J. Nieman, asks for a portion of your clothing trade. See his adv. in this issue.

Why, of course you will vote for Arthur Kimport for prothonotary. He has been a most efficient officer and is entitled to re-election.

Whether it is pleasant information or not, it is nevertheless evident that a large proportion of the civil war veterans will vote against Sheatz.

Rev. Sidney Winter and wife, of Dunmore, will arrive in Bellefonte this week. Rev. Winter is the new rector at the St. John's Episcopal church.

Nieman, the Millheim clothier, speaks to the Reporter readers through an advertisement in this issue. His store is well supplied with furnishings for both men and women.

Prof. P. H. Meyer announces that a singing class will be organized Friday night, November 1st, at 7:30, in the Grange Arcadia. A good turnout is desired, especially among the young people.

Mrs. J. W. Shook, of Spring Mills, was in Centre Hall Tuesday, having accompanied her sister and niece, Mrs. J. D. Rutter and Miss Carrie Rutter, of Lorraine, Ohio, to this place to spend the day among brothers and sisters. Mrs. Rutter and daughter have returned to Ohio, after a visit of several weeks here.

There are but two county officers to vote for at the election Tuesday, but the Democratic voter should not miss an opportunity to cast his vote for them. Then there is a chance to place a minority party man in the office of the state treasury and by so doing the moneys of the state will be guarded against a pack of thieves that are always tipped up to steal everything in sight.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.
