The Thrice-a-Week New York World will be mailed all Centre Reporter subscribers for sixty-five cents, paid in advance. The World will be discontinued every year upon expiration of subscription.

Good News for the Children.
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hoffman, residing in Mount Joy township, Adams county, have presented to the Board of Trustees of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church 280 acres of land in Mount Joy township for the purpose of establishing thereon an orphanage similar to the one located at Womelsdorf, Berks county.

Reckless Gunner.
A shooting accident occurred at Coburn. Calvin and William Fryer were hunting rabbits and were walking some distance apart when Calvin saw a rabbit running right between them and fired at it. The result was that his brother William received most of the charge. Fourteen shot were removed from William's face by Dr. C. S. Musser, says the Journal, and he still has a number in his body. The wounds are not serious.

LOCALS.
Harry E. Bible, of Altoona, was at the home of his parents on Sunday.

Monday night the wind mixers got in their work. A perfect gale blew all night.

According to a ruling of the State Forestry Department Chief it is unlawful to pasture cattle on State lands.

There will be a meeting of the Hospital Aid society next Monday evening, at the home of Dr. G. W. Hosterman.

This is a busy season, but no one is so busy that he can afford to miss going to the polls next Tuesday. It is the duty of every voter to record his preference on election day.

The South side of Centre county has a mission to perform at the coming election. Two of her sons are on the ticket, and she should see that the vote is out and recorded in the right column.

Edward Boob, tenant on the Wm. Stiver farm, near Potters Mills, has been ill during the past few weeks, but is improving. His father, Nathaniel Boob, of Millheim, had matters in charge during a part of his son's illness.

Samuel J. McClutic, of near Centre Hill, was in town Monday. He anticipates "cold fingers" for some of the farmers before the corn crop is husked. He is willing to admit that 70-cent corn will aid in making the fingers more nimble.

Station Agent W. Frank Bradford, who was called to West Chester as a witness in a railroad damage case, was detained at that place until this week. During the mean time the witnesses for the company were given permission and passes to see the sights. Mr. Bradford went to Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Geiss, of Girard, Kansas, are east on a visit, and at present are guests of D. K. Geiss, a brother, in Centre Hall. Mr. Geiss is on his return from a tour to Philadelphia, New York, Washington and the Jamestown Exposition. He left Potter township about forty years ago, located in Illinois, living in Joliet for many years where he engaged in the mercantile business. A few years ago he went to Kansas, and at present is living retired, so he terms it, but at the same time he is prospecting for coal being interested in sinking several shafts on his farms just outside of Girard, in southern Kansas.
