DEMOGRATS WIN IN CENTRE

Everything Came the Democratic Way in Old Centre—Majorities Range from 96 to Over 1000.

Centre county went Democratic Tuesday, the majorities ranging from 96 to 1000. There were about 1400 stay-at-homes, who have no share in the victory yet will reap the benefit of having in the county offices men of ability and integrity.

Briefly summed up the votes for the various offices are appended, together with the majorities:

STATE TREASURER.
Sheatz, Rep. 2844
Harman, Dem. 3096— 252
Prohibition 243

PROTHONOTARY.
Schenck, Rep. 2555
Kimpfort, Dem. 3585—1030

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.
Chambers, Rep. 2629
Runkle, Dem. 3514— 885

COUNTY SURVEYOR.
Pletcher, Rep. 3010
Wetzel, Dem. 3106— 96

The official vote by districts will appear next week.

The vote in Centre Hall was all straight: Sheatz 20, Harman 78, prohibition 4, Schenck 16, Kimpfort 81, Chambers 21, Runkle 77, Pletcher 22, Wetzel 76.

Marriage Licenses.
Steward J. Kerstetter, Coburn.
Maude C. Wingard, Coburn.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday, November 8.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.
Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Surprise Party for Paul D. Swabb.
Mrs. Swabb gave a surprise party for her husband, Paul D. Swabb, Thursday evening of last week at which about thirty people were present. She prepared an oyster supper for the guests, all of whom spent a delightful evening at the Swabb home, near Farmers Mills. The guests from Spring Mills presented Mr. Swabb with a handsome rocking chair, while the other guests made numerous presents.

DEATHS.
MRS. SARAH BRUNGART.
Mrs. Sarah Brungart, one of the most aged residents in Rebersburg, died Tuesday morning. Internment will be made Friday forenoon. Her age was eighty-nine years. Surviving her are the following children: Cyrus, Centre Hall; Newton, Jeremiah, Clayton and Mrs. Nancy Scholl, Rebersburg; Ira, Wolfe Store, and Mrs. James Wort, Tusseyville.

MRS. SUSAN PEOWANT.
Mrs. Susan Peowant died at the home of her son, John Killian, at White Deer, and was buried Sunday forenoon, aged eighty-five years, five months, thirteen days. Her death was due to apoplexy, her illness extending over but a few days. Besides her son at White Deer, two other sons survive: R. D. Killian, of Centre Hall, who attended the funeral, and George Killian, of Reading. The husband and father of these children died many years ago. Her second husband died five years ago.

FERRY EMERICK.
Perry A. Emerick died at his home in Orangeville, Illinois, says the Courier, after an illness of several years. His sickness was of a peculiar nature. At some times he was very ill while at others he was able to be out, but there was a general breaking down and death relieved his sufferings.

He was born in Centre county, Pa., April 2, 1841. He came to this state in 1847. For a number of years he lived at Lena. He was married Nov. 25, 1866, to Mary Ella Frybarger, who survives him, as do also three brothers and one sister: William Emerick, of Winslow; Luther Emerick, of Rock Grove; George Emerick and Mrs. Hassinger, of Seward, Neb.

A YOUTH INJURED.

Gun Discharged While Climbing Through a Fence—Shot Lodge in Breast, Neck and Hands.

The first local accident due to the handling of fire arms during the present game season was reported Monday afternoon, when Harry Foust, of Potters Mills, was injured by the accidental discharge of a shot gun.

Young Foust, who is about sixteen years of age, and is a son of Lewis Foust, Monday afternoon went away from home to secure some corn, and concluded that in order to be in readiness should any game appear in his path, he would take his gun loaded with shot. Some where on his journey he climbed over a fence, and in so doing the weapon was discharged, the contents of the fire arm entering his breast, neck and hands.

Dr. H. S. Braucht, of Spring Mills, was hurriedly summoned, who dressed the wounds, and found that the injuries were not of a serious character.

It appears from what can be learned from others, that the main charge entered a fence rail, and that the shot that penetrated the body of the unfortunate youth either first passed through the rail or else was deflected, in either case lessening their ability to do harm. But for the presence of this particular rail, the life of the young man would have undoubtedly been snapped out.

LOCALS.

In another column J. O. Stover advertises timber land for sale.

Miss Grace Smith is in Williamsport, having gone there Friday of last week.

Wm. F. Colyer, buyer of produce, etc., had a Bell telephone placed in his residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boal, of Altoona, returned to that city after a visit to friends in and about Centre Hall.

Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Bieber, Monday morning, went to their respective homes near Milton and Watsontown.

Miss Alice Robinson, who is taking a course in nursing in the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, suffered a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Wilbur Henney returned to Wilmerding after recuperating in Centre Hall for several weeks. He is employed by the Westinghouse people.

A. W. Nevil, of near Tusseyville, was in town Tuesday, and on his way back seized the opportunity to exercise his right of citizenship at the polls.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Ruhl, of Lewisburg, and daughter, Mrs. Frank Fuller, of Battletown, Vermont, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kuhl, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Elwood Brooks, nee Miss Edith Lutz, now living in Altoona, has been seriously ill of typhoid fever. Her condition had been critical during the past few weeks, but at present the outlook for her recovery is somewhat brighter. Mrs. Joseph Lutz, mother of Mrs. Brooks, is in Altoona assisting to take care of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sharer, and little daughter Veda, of Albay, Illinois, were guests of George W. Gingrich, east of Centre Hall. Mr. Sharer went west from Buffalo Run with his parents when he was but a child and this is his first trip to the Keystone State. On their way east they stopped for some time at Sutton, West Virginia, the home of Mrs. Sharer. They are farmers, and devote most of their time to growing corn and hay, which is fed to hogs and cattle. It is a large corn crop that is hurrying them back to Illinois.

John Henry Glasgow, of Philadelphia, came up Monday to spend a couple of weeks visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Glasgow, of south Potter township, and as he brought three hunting dogs with him he expects to make game somewhat scarcer than it was when he came. Mr. Glasgow is one of the enterprising young men of Penns Valley who some fifteen years ago found his way to the city of William Penn, where he has succeeded in business. He is a member of the different Masonic bodies and is at present Master of a Philadelphia chapter of the order of the Eastern Star, which bears the same relation to Masonry that the Rebekah order does to Odd Fellowship.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough."—Rev. James A. Lewis, Pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. Church, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by The Star Store, Centre Hall; F. A. Carson, Potters Mills; C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Note from Dr. Schaffer.
No services in our church here or at Spring Mills. I expect to be in Saxton on Sunday to preach the dedicatory sermon on the occasion of their setting apart their new house of worship. I supplied this church once a month for four years at the beginning of my ministry. They have recently erected a fine building, aided by John Fulton, of Johnstown, who once was an elder in the Saxton church, which is now to be known as the Fulton Memorial Presbyterian church.

W. HENRY SCHUYLER.
Mrs. James Gregg Hart.

Mrs. James Gregg Hart, accompanied a lady and gentleman from that place on an auto trip to Bellefonte and while on the way there the auto became unmanageable and ran over an embankment, throwing all the occupants from the vehicle. Mrs. Gregg is seriously injured, although no bones were broken. She is unable to help herself and must be given food by her attendants. The others in the party were not hurt to any great extent.

District S. S. Convention.
A district Sabbath school convention will be held in the Sprucewood Methodist church, Friday, 15th inst., afternoon and evening. The program for same will appear in next week's issue of the Reporter.

Apples Wanted.
Hand picked and wind fall apples wanted until November 9th. After above date will not want wind fall apples. Telephone or write

Spring Mills.
Farmers are busy husking corn, the corn crop not being up to the standard. F. E. Bowersox made a business trip to Millburg Friday.

G. C. King has his new house ready for the painters.
A. N. Finkle has erected a summer house on his farm south of town, and in the near future erect a fine dwelling house.

Rev. E. E. Haney, teacher of the grammar grade, raised enough money by subscription to purchase a new bell for the school house in this place.
C. E. Zeigler made a business trip to Lock Haven last week.

John H. Ream and wife, of Sunbury, and son George, of Lewisport, were visitors in town last week.
Messrs. W. H. Smith and C. C. Bartges made a business trip to Woodward on Monday.

A small vote was polled at election Tuesday.
Miss Cora Seebert, of Millusein, was a guest at the home of Grover Walker on Sunday.

W. L. Campbell, the obliging agent, accompanied by his wife and daughters, Dorothy and Janet, left on Saturday for a two weeks' visit with friends in Wilkes-Barre and Williamsport.

Mrs. H. S. Braucht and Mrs. Wm. Gramley spent Tuesday in Bellefonte. The news of the death of Mrs. Israel Rachau was received with regret by the residents of this place. Although not a resident of Spring Mills, Mrs. Rachau was well known here and highly respected.

The bridge across Penns Creek at Allison's mill is completed. It is an improvement to the town.
A good lot of shipping is going on in this section. C. P. Long shipped thousands of bushels of apples from this place.

Georges Valley.
Messrs. Joseph Parker and Jack Little, of Decker Valley, were in this vicinity Sunday.

Halloween was not observed by the young folks in this community this year.
J. W. Herbert Goble is contemplating a trip to Conemaugh, in the near future.

Delen Decker built a new corn crib last week.
S. E. Goble spent Sunday evening with S. J. Barger and family.

Fred Royer, of Potters Mills, visited friends in this place Sunday.
Wm. Kreisher, who had been employed at Yeagerstown for the past few months, returned home last week.

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

Good Way to do Business.

In ordering a 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at 25 cents, J. D. Murray is giving one of the greatest trade chances ever offered to the people of Centre Hall.

Even though offered at half price for introductory purposes, the specific is sold under a guarantee to cure or the money will be refunded.

If food does not digest well, if there is gas or pain in the stomach, if the tongue is coated and the breath bad, if there is constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, you have druggist J. D. Murray's personal guarantee to return your money.

It is very popular in New York City and it is not unusual to see someone after a meal at one of the large hotels or restaurants, take a dose of this specific, knowing that it will prevent the uncomfortable feeling which frequently follows a hearty meal.

Dr. Howard's specific gives quick relief and makes permanent cures of constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles.

These are strong statements but Mr. Murray is giving his customers a chance to prove their truth at just half the regular price—sixty doses for 25 cents. If they are not found true, all you have to do is to ask for your money.
