

SHEATZ ELECTED.

Republicans Carry State by 175,000—A Light Vote.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 6.—John O. Sheatz, Republican, was elected state treasurer over John G. Harman, of Columbia county, Democrat, by 175,000 plurality. This was the only state office voted for and a light vote was polled in nearly every county. The judicial contests in Luzerne, Northampton and Schuylkill brought out a large vote in those counties. There was virtually little interest in the contests in other counties which elected judges.

The returns show large Republican gains for treasurer all over the state as compared with the vote for this office two years ago. For the first time since 1904 there was no fusion against the Republican state ticket. The independent Republican element which voted for the Lincoln Party at the last two elections voted for Sheatz, who has been in sympathy with this element. Sheatz has served three terms in the state house of representatives and voted against the organization on several important measures advocated by its leaders.

Sheatz and Harman served together in the regular session of 1905 and the extra session of 1906. They are friends and avoided personalities in their canvass. Harman's most active supporter was William H. Berry, who was elected state treasurer on the fusion ticket two years ago and who uncovered the capitol scandal, which the Democratic party made its chief issue in its last two state campaigns.

Judges Elected.

BOURKE COCKRAN ARRESTED

Democratic Congressman Charged With Voting Illegally.

New York, Nov. 6.—Congressman W. Bourke Cockran was arrested on a charge of illegal voting at a polling place in Third avenue. The policeman who made the arrest said he could not verify the address given by Mr. Cockran at 310 East 17th street, from which address Mr. Cockran had registered. The congressman was taken to the police station and thence to a police court.

Mr. Cockran is a grand sachem of Tammany Hall. A servant at the East 17th street house had sworn that no one named Bourke Cockran lived there, and Magistrate Cornell issued the warrant while under the impression that some was trying to vote on the congressman's name. When Mr. Cockran was arraigned in court one of State Attorney General Jackson's assistants denounced the arrest as an outrage, and Mr. Cockran was promptly discharged. Mr. Cockran said the East 17th street house was his residence before he went to congress, and that he had never forfeited his right to vote from that address.

"When I registered," he said, "I told the inspectors who I was and explained the entire situation. I was not arrested when I registered. I fail to see on what authority this arrest was made."

TOM JOHNSON RE-ELECTED

Chosen Mayor of Cleveland Over Theodore E. Burton.

Cleveland, Nov. 6.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson was re-elected for the fourth time as mayor of Cleveland in a hard-fought battle, in which the Republican ticket was headed by Congressman Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the house committee on rivers and harbors.

DEMOCRATS CARRY NEW JERSEY.

Frank Katzenbach Elected Governor of New Jersey by 10,000 Plurality.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., Democrat, has been elected governor over John F. Fort, Republican, by a plurality of from 8000 to 10,000. Mr. Katzenbach has not only made heavy gains in North Jersey, but has also cut down the normally large Republican majority in South Jersey.

Essex county went Democratic by 5000 and Hudson county by 16,000. Passaic county is very close.

The majority for H. Otto Wittpen, Democrat, over Mark N. Fagan, Rep., for mayor of Jersey City, will reach 8000.

It is too early to forecast the complexion of the legislature. The senate will continue Republican. The Democrats have elected Harrison over Shinn, Rep., in Ocean county. This will increase the Democratic representation in the senate from seven to eight and reduce the Republican strength from 14 to 13. The re-election of Senator Wakelee, Rep., of Bergen, and of Senator Hillery, Rep., of Morris, is also in doubt.

Half of the assembly will probably be Democratic. The Democrats have carried Monmouth county and probably Union county.

New York, Nov. 6.—What interest there was in the apathetic election was over the result of the Republican and Independence League fusion in New York county; the showing made by the Independence League in its fight alone against the identical tickets of the Republicans and Democrats for associate justices of the court of appeals, and the make-up of the next state assembly.

Fusion failed in New York county, the straight Democratic ticket being elected with majorities of from 30,000 to 35,000.

Thomas F. Foley, Democratic candidate for sheriff, defeated Maximilian F. Ihmsen, an Independence League representative on the fusion ticket.

Chairman Parsons, of the Republican county committee, who was credited with having arranged the fusion, expressed surprise at the result and placed the responsibility on the financial situation and repeaters. Leaders of the Independence wing of the fusion unreservedly declared its defeat due to fraud.

In Kings county (Brooklyn) the Republicans were generally successful, though the Democrats re-elected District Attorney Clarke.

The Republicans lost a few members of the assembly, probably six. Republicans swept all their candidates with one exception into office at Buffalo. Elmira returned to the Democratic column so far as the majority was concerned.

For the first time in 14 years the Republicans elected a mayor in Utica, and for the first time in 17 years the Democrats carried Newburgh. The Republicans were victorious in Ulster county and elected their candidate for mayor in Kingston. In Rochester the Republicans elected a mayor, but the Democrats carried the common council. Despite the protests of the united clergy, the Democrats of Auburn elected a brewer for mayor. In Troy Mayor Elias P. Mann was re-elected by the Republicans with a plurality of 250. The Independence League vote up state was light.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Probably never before has so little been known as to the result of an election in this state at this time. Returns are in from only a few precincts, and those are all in this city. Nothing whatever has come upon which to base a calculation, and any estimate of the result of the general election would be the merest guess work. Chairman Vandiver, of the Democratic state central committee, claims the state for his ticket by 12,600, but the Republican leaders declared themselves hopeful as ever.

The ticket is very long and complicated and it is estimated that it will require an average of two minutes each to count the ballots. This means that, in a precinct of only moderate size it will require from 12 to 14 hours to complete the count.

Of the precincts in, some are usually carried by the Democrats and some by the Republicans. The vote shown indicates about the usual majorities, but this may give no line upon the general result. On the other hand, the meagre reports received contain nothing whatever that would indicate anything unusual in the vote, and the state is normally Democratic by about 12,000.

In the senatorial primaries ex-Governor John Walter Smith has carried the state by a large majority.

In the city Governor Edwin Warfield appears to have received a considerably larger share of the popular vote than ex-Governor Smith, but this really means nothing as to the final result. While a legislative district might go strongly for either Smith or Warfield, unless the Democratic candidates for the legislature are elected the primaries in that district will be without effect.

Rhode Island Democratic. Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—Governor James Higgins, Democrat, is re-elected. He made a slight gain over his vote of last year.

Nebraska Elects Republican Judge. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—M. B. Reese (Rep.), was elected justice of the supreme court. The entire Republican county ticket is elected.

F. C. Hettinger, who for some time was located at Indiana, this state, is now in Savannah, Georgia, and is in the employment of the Southern Express Company.
