

A TALENTED WRITER

Praises Peruna as a Catarrh Remedy

MRS. E. M. TINNEY.

Mrs. E. M. Tinney, story writer, 325 E. Nueva St., San Antonio, Tex., writes:

"During 1901 I suffered from nasal catarrh, which various other remedies failed to relieve.

"Six bottles of Peruna, which I took, entirely cured me, the catarrh disappearing and never returning.

"I therefore cheerfully recommend Peruna to all similarly afflicted."

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 4th street, Green Bay, Wis., writes:

"I have often heard Peruna praised and it is more widely known here than any other medicine, but I never knew what a splendid medicine it really was until a few weeks ago, when I caught a bad cold which settled all over me.

"The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peruna and sent for a bottle and tried it.

"I felt much better the next morning and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or any cough.

"I consider it the finest cough remedy."

PERUNA TABLETS:—Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna.

What It Meant.

Senator Dubois, of Idaho, is a bitter foe to Mormonism. In Aurora, Ill., he said recently:

"Mormonism, with its attendant polygamy, is, look at it how you will, a hopeless thing—as bad and hopeless as the case of Jacob Smithers."

Senator Dubois smiled.

"Jacob Smithers, criminal," he went on, "sat in his cell making paper boxes when a dear old lady looked through the peephole in the door inquisitively.

"You poor man!" said the old lady, "I guess you will be glad when your time is up, won't you?"

"Wall, no'm, not particularly," Jacob Smithers answered. "I'm in for life."—Washington Star.

Where They Pinched.

A youth went into a cobbler's shop the other day carrying a pair of boots, and said to the cobbler:

"Father wants you to stretch these boots for him."

Cobbler—Yes; where do they pinch him?

Youth—Dunno, but I know where he "pinched" them.—London Opinion.

Liked The Treatment.

"Let me kiss those tears away!" he begged, tenderly.

She fell in his arms, and he was busy for the next few minutes. And yet the tears flowed on.

"Can nothing stop them?" he asked, breathlessly sad.

"No," she murmured. "It's hay fever, you know. But go on with the treatment."—Illustrated Bits.

TESTED BY TIME.

A Cure That Has Held Good Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Crumlish, of 1130 West Third street, Wilmington, Del., says:

"Some years ago I began to feel weak and miserable, and one day awoke from a nap with a piercing pain in my back that made me scream. For two days I could not move, and after that I had backache and dizzy spells all the time. My ankles swelled and I ran down dreadfully, I was nervous and had awful headaches. I wonder that any medicine could do what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me. They cured me four years ago and I have been well ever since."

Violin As A Hair Restorer.

It is now a scientifically proved fact that music exercises a great influence on the growth of the hair. It is with good reason that great musicians, such as Paganini, Liszt, and Paderewski, are represented with a growth of hair which Absalom might have envied.

Science has proved that stringed instruments have a favorable influence on the growth of the hair, while brass instruments act in the opposite direction. Every one has probably observed that a bald violinist is as rare as a bald horn player is common. Wood instruments, such as the flute, seem to have no pronounced influence either way.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

After Suffering Six Months With Disfiguring Red Spots and Pimples—Cleared Away by Cuticura.

"Cuticura Soap and Ointment are the greatest remedies for skin diseases on earth. I have suffered six months from a disease which I cannot describe, but I will tell you the symptoms. My skin was full of red spots and my face was full of red pimples. It made life miserable for me and I was discouraged with everything. I went to several doctors, but it was useless. I resolved to try the Cuticura Remedies, and after using them for about one week I became a new man. The pimples and the red spots have disappeared and they made my skin as soft as velvet. Albert Cashman, Bedford Station, N. Y., Nov. 29, 1905."

Watches Baked And Frozen.

"I will be with you in a moment. I must finish baking this batch of watches first."

The speaker was a jeweler. He said, as he worked:

"I suppose you are surprised at the idea of watch baking. I will explain. The machinery of a watch is delicate; yet it must work the same in winter as in summer, the same in Sahara as in Iceland. There is only one way to accomplish this. The watch must be regulated to heat and cold.

"I am regulating these watches to heat. Afterward, in a refrigerator, I will regulate them to cold. Then, when they go out in the world they won't disgrace themselves in any climate.

"Chronometers must be regulated more carefully than watches. They are often kept for weeks in temperatures that are now zero and now 120 degrees."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Incorable.

"Good sir," said the seedy-looking "gent," "may I have just a word with you. I am as you see a member of the great army of the unemployed. I am—"

"And I am a member of the army of industry, to which you could be long if you had the proper pride in your breath. I shall give you no quarter."—Chicago Record-Herald.

She Did Not Fear Death.

An old lady on her seventy-third birthday once said, "I do not mind getting old, and I do not fear death, but I live in constant dread of paralysis."

"For some time I have been wanting to tell you of the great good your wonderful Sloan's Liniment is doing here," writes Mr. James F. Abernethy, of Rutherford College, N. C. "In fact, all your remedies are doing noble work, but your liniment beats all. In my eight years' experience with medicine I find none to go ahead of it, having tried it in very many cases. I know of one young man, a brick mason, who suffered from a partial, yet, almost complete, paralysis of one arm. I got him to use your liniment, and now he can do as much work as ever, and he sings your praise every day. I get all to use it I possibly can and know there is great virtue in it. I have helped the sale of your noble remedies about here greatly, and expect to cause many more to buy them, as I know they can't be beat."

The kidneys are essential organs for keeping the body free from impurities. If they should fail to work death would ensue in very short time.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, swelling of the limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Dog Knew The Horses.

"I saw a curious illustration the other day," says a business man, "of the wonderful acuteness of scent possessed by the dog. Three or four carriages were waiting in front of a fashionable Broadway establishment when out of the door there came a fat poodle, trotting leisurely along. He raised his head and took a look at the line of carriages. The drivers were in a little group chatting, so that no carriage had a human occupant. The poodle went across the pavement, sniffed at the leg of one of the horses, and went on. Ere he reached the second carriage he was forced toward the middle of the sidewalk by two people going in the other direction. He went past the carriage door, sniffed the leg of one of the horses, then turned back, and without hesitation, jumped into the carriage, curled up on one of the seats, and went to sleep.

"He had evidently lost his mistress in the store, but he remembered the carriage and identified it by the horse."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
