Enforcing Vaccination Law.

Defying the State Department of Health for a lengthy period, residents of a Northumberland county school district were surprised when, by orders of the State authorities, public schools in West Cameron township were closed.

Residents of the districts would not obey the vaccination law. The children were notified to be vaccinated. They told their parents and the latter said it was not necessary to obey the order. Finding the taxpayers would not permit their children to be vaccinated, the State Health Department would not allow the students to attend school. The school will remain closed until the children of the district are vaccinated.

The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.
