Fire at Colyer.
The dwelling house occupied by George R. Meiss and family, located above Copenhagen's store, at Colyer, was burned to the ground Wednesday morning. The day previous was butcher day for Mr. Meiss, and it is supposed the fire originated from a stray spark that reached some inflammable material.

The fire was first discovered by Miss Nannie Meiss, who was awakened by the noise of the flames. The fire apparently originated in the wood shed, for this structure was well consumed when first discovered. It is thought the house might have been saved, but the pump in the well or cistern was burned, thus cutting off the water supply.
Some of the furniture was saved, as well as a portion of the meat dressed the day before. There was insurance on the house, but the amount is not known.

The Meiss house was one purchased by Bribbin & Company from the William Colyer estate and later purchased by Mr. Meiss.

Farmers' Week.
The lectures and practical work given during Farmers' Week at the Pennsylvania State College last winter were so thoroughly approved by those present and the attendance this winter promises to be so large that more subjects will be discussed and more time given to the important subjects. Seed corn selections, germination tests, soils, feeding, stock judging, starters and cream ripening are some of the other subjects. This is an opportunity for the business farmer, the dairyman and the creameryman, with their wives, to spend a profitable week at the Pennsylvania State College, January 1 to 9, at no charge except railway fare and living expenses. For program of subjects and speakers address Professor H. E. Van Norman, State College, Pa.

Cannon Hits Roosevelt.
Speaker Cannon spoke sober words, although they hit Roosevelt on a tender spot, when he said:
"We have been admonished by events that it is not a time for extravagance or excursions into the realm of experiment in legislation. It is my personal judgment that we should hold fast the principles laid down by the fathers, that the Federal Government is one of limited powers but supreme where it has jurisdiction, and that we should leave to the people of the States the jurisdiction not granted to the Federal Government, and also leave upon them the responsibility and burden of taxation for the same."

Why He Does It.
"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said druggist J. D. Murray to one of his many customers, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan."
"The Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorized me to sell the regular fifty-cent bottle of their specific for half-price, 25 cents, and although I have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."
"There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water."
"I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity."

A discount of 25 per cent. is the way Nieman, the Millheim clothier, puts it in his advertisement.

DEATHS.
MRS. ANN EVANS.
Mrs. Ann Evans, one of the most respected, well known and aged ladies in Potter township, died Tuesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Smith, at Centre Hill. Interment will be made Friday morning, services at 9:30 o'clock, at Spruce town, Rev. G. W. McClain, of the Methodist church of which denomination the deceased was a member, and Dr. W. H. Schnyler, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

Mrs. Evans is the widow of Evan Evans, and for many years has been a resident of Potter township. Her maiden name was Miller. The children surviving are: Susan, wife of G. L. Goodhart, Jennie, wife of Daniel Daup, both of Centre Hall; Margaret, wife of James B. Strohm, Centre Hill; Robert, Onoway, Michigan; Laura, wife of Robert Smith, Centre Hill. Twenty grandchildren and six great grandchildren also survive.

There are three sons dead—Thomas and Charles, and a twin brother of the latter who died at birth.
Mrs. Evans was a woman of most kindly disposition and retained her mental faculties to the end. She was a good conversationalist, and related in a fascinating way many incidents of her early life and happenings in the neighborhood.
Death was due to a paralytic stroke, her last sickness having continued for but a week or ten days.

MRS. HARRIET MUSSER.
Friday morning Mrs. Harriet Musser died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Miller, near Boalsburg, aged sixty-six years. Interment took place Monday in the cemetery at Boalsburg, her pastor, Rev. A. A. Black, of the Reformed church, officiating.

Deceased was Miss Harriet Moore, and was first married to a Mr. Gilman and afterward to Jonathan Musser, both of whom are now dead. Two children survive, namely: Harry Gilman, of Gregg township, and Mrs. Wesley Miller, of Boalsburg. Charles Moore, of State College, are brothers of the deceased.

Lewis Fansler, a charge of Penn township, died 23d ult., aged seventy-two years, ten months. Deceased was a son of Adam Fansler and was the last of a family of nine children. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. D. Donat and interment was made in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg.

Hand In Corn Husker.
While operating a corn husker on the farm of Charles B. Neff, near Centre Hall, a few days ago, Fred Rider, a boy who makes his home with Mr. Neff, was painfully injured. The lad was working about the machine, and in some manner his coat sleeve was caught between the rolls of the husker, and in the effort to release himself the glove on his left hand was drawn into the machine in such a manner that the greater part of the skin on the hand and the flesh on the fingers was stripped from the bones. It appears that the hand did not get between the rolls, but that the injury was inflicted by the machine twisting and drawing the glove from the hand.
Dr. P. H. Dale, of Centre Hall, assisted by Dr. H. S. Braucht, of Spring Mills, dressed the wound.

SOME STATEMENTS REGARDING NEW THEORY

Followers of Cooper and His Novel Ideas Give Reason for Their Belief in Him.

With a theory that human health is dependent on the stomach and with a medicine which he says proves this theory, L. T. Cooper, a comparatively young man, has built up an immense following during the past year. Cooper has visited most of the leading cities of the country, and in each city has aroused a storm of discussion about his beliefs and his medicines. Wherever he has gone, people have called upon him by tens of thousands, and his preparation has sold in immense quantities.

The sale of this medicine has now spread over the entire country, and is growing enormously each day. In view of this, the following statements from two of the great number of followers which he now has, are of general interest.

Mr. Agnes Viggenhouser, of 942 St. Louis Avenue, Chicago, has the following to say on the subject of the Cooper preparations: "For more than ten years I was broken down in health. I could not sleep and I was very nervous. Gradually I began to lose my memory, until I could not remember things from one day to another. I had severe pains and cramps in my body, and I would at times see dark spots before my eyes. I was unable to do any work whatever, as my strength was falling. I had no appetite, nor could I take any medicine.
"I had about given up hope of ever being well again when I read of Mr. Cooper's remedies. I decided to give them a trial, and I began to feel better at once. After taking the medicine for two weeks I can say that I am a new woman. I can eat with enjoyment, the pains in my body have left me, and I am stronger than I have been for years."
"I cannot say enough for Mr. Cooper's remedies. They are wonderful, for they have done everything claimed for them in my case."
Another statement by Mr. W. B. Stewart, 109 W. Madison St., Chicago, is as follows: "I have had stomach trouble for years, and anyone who is afflicted this way knows what an awful distressed feeling it causes. Many a time I have felt that I would give most any price to be cured. It was by accident that I heard of this man Cooper's remedies. I immediately made up my mind to buy a treatment of him. I used it for about two weeks, and it is impossible to tell how much good it has done me. I feel altogether different. I have more life and energy than I have had for years. This medicine certainly does stimulate and strengthen the whole system. Tired feeling and weak condition of the stomach has entirely passed away. I feel well again."
We sell Cooper's celebrated medicines which have made this wonderful record in all parts of the country.
