SECOND WEEK OF COURT.

But Three Cases for Trial—Remainder of Report for First Week.

The second week of court which convened Monday found little business before it, there being but three cases ready for trial.

The case of Samuels vs. the Bellefonte Furnace Company was on trial for the first few days of the session.

Commonwealth vs. T. Lloyd Rimert, indicted for assault and battery; prosecutrix, Emma T. Rimert. Verdict of guilty in manner and form as the defendant stands indicted.

Col. D. F. Fortney was appointed an auditor to settle the accounts of Register Tuten, Recorder Rowe and Prothonotary Kimpfort with the state. The jury commissioners were directed to meet Monday of this week and place in the jury wheel six hundred and fifty names of electors.

The grand jury in making its inspection of the buildings reported that the walk leading from the court house to the jail was in bad condition, also that the closets in the jail were unfit for use and should be supplied with new ones.

A number of tax payers in Half Moon township presented a petition asking the privilege to vote for a cash road tax.

J. C. Meyer, master of condemnation proceedings of the Boalsburg and Bellefonte Turnpike, reported that the viewers had condemned the road, and awarded the damages at $350.

Howard Tomlinson, of Haines township, being a young man about seventeen years of age, prosecuted by F. S. Tomlinson for the taking of some money, was called before the Court and waived the finding of the grand jury and pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny, whereupon the Court sentenced him to pay the costs of prosecution, $1.00 fine, and undergo an imprisonment in the Reformatory at Huntingdon.

T. Loyd Rimert convicted of assault and battery upon his wife, Emma T. Rimert, was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, and a fine of $25.00.

Visit from Capt. Clark.

The appearance of a state health officer in a community is usually regarded with more or less suspicion and this is due to the fact that of all laws the health laws are probably most grossly violated. The visit of Capt. James M. Clark, who is one of the force in the health department under Chief Sanitary Engineer F. Herbert Snow, was one altogether agreeable to the citizens and especially to Cashier W. B. Mingle, who accompanied him on his tour of inspection.

Captain Clark's chief mission in Penna Valley was to make a survey of the Penna Creek water-shed. Penna Cave was visited Tuesday, and the caverns proved to wonderfully interest the gentleman, who had no idea that the head of Penna Creek afforded such a wealth of natural beauty. The reservoir supplying the Centre Hall borough, was also inspected, and brought forth the expression that Centre Hall was truly supplied with pure spring water.

Capt. Clark, now a resident of New Castle, earned his title in service in the Union army, during the unpleasantness in the early sixties. He also at one time was secretary to Senator Quay, and is a man of pleasing personality.

Farmers' Institute.

All persons having an interest in the Farmers' Institute to be held in Centre Hall are invited to meet at the Centre Reporter office, Friday evening, December 13, at 7.30 o'clock, to make up a program, appoint committees, and perform any preliminary work necessary to make the approaching institute a success.

G. L. GOODHART, Chairman.

Wishes that Count.

"Best wishes for the Christmas season, and business success for 1908," is a sentence in a letter to the Reporter from Harry C. Bailey, of Boalsburg. To make his expressions emphatic, Mr. Bailey enclosed two one dollar bills, which paid his subscription to the Reporter up to July, 1909. That's the way to help along a wish.

Taken to the Pen Tuesday.

Jacob From was taken to the Western Penitentiary Tuesday morning by Sheriff Klitne and ex-commissioner A. V. Miller. From is said to have been all smiles on leaving Bellefonte.

The undersigned is prepared to do all kinds of drying, and kindly asks a share of public patronage in that line of work. Close attention will be given to the work—rain or shine. Prices reasonable.

Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot is in Philadelphia to which city she went Saturday. She has not decided whether or not she will remain until after the holidays.

Elias Heckman, of Orangeville, Illinois, was circulating among old associates in Centre Hall the beginning of this week. He was entertained by his niece, Mrs. John Lucas.

W. R. Neff, of near Potters Mills, has his hands full these days stocking a saw mill and hauling the lumber to market. He recently sold a small tract of timber land to Lumberman Treaster, and retained for himself the privilege of doing the hauling.

William H. Stover, of Yeagertown, was in Centre Hall Tuesday and Wednesday, having come here to visit his brother James who is ill. Mr. Stover is one of the firemen at the Standard Steel Works, and is confident of having continuous work during the winter.

No rum, no cuss words, no cards, no late hours, no Sabbath loafing, are a few of the regulations adopted by a number of young men in Centre Hall who opened a semi-private reading room. With such rules carried out in both letter and spirit the atmosphere of the reading room ought to be tolerable.

A fall down a stairway, Saturday evening, caused serious bruises on the back and other parts of the body of Mrs. John Breen. The Breens live at Rhonemede, and Saturday evening Mrs. Breen was on the second floor, and on crossing the hall from one room to another lost her bearings, and fell down a stairway. Dr. Dale was summoned, who found no bones broken, but the unfortunate lady was obliged to remain in bed for some days.
