

DEMENTED WOMAN'S DEMANDS.

Mrs. Reeder, of Bellefonte, Looks into Muzzle of Revolver Which Quicken Her Wits.

Instead of screaming Mrs. W. F. Reeder, of Bellefonte, resorted to trickery when obliged to look into the muzzle of a revolver held in the hands of a demented woman. This woman was Miss Viola Teller, of Milesburg, an agent for sewing machines and musical instruments, and well known in and about Bellefonte. The story is told thus:

Some time ago Miss Teller purchased an automobile which was shipped to Milesburg, and had freight charges against it for about $200. The woman refused to pay these charges, and by a process of law endeavored to get possession of the machine, but so far was unsuccessful. This appears to have gratified the mind of the otherwise harmless woman to such an extent that she became a dangerous character. Saturday forenoon she went to the home of Mrs. Reeder, and there demanded a large sum of money, ($4,000,000) emphasizing her demand by flourishing a revolver. Mrs. Reeder quickly realized her predicament and the temper of the woman, and stated that she did not keep such a large sum of money in her house, but that she should accompany her to the office of her attorney, J. A. B. Miller, and the matter would be arranged.

Miss Teller consented, and on reaching Attorney Miller's office a brief conference followed, when it was decided to go before Justice Keichline. On the way there Col. H. S. Taylor was passed on the street; he was quietly informed of what had occurred, and on reaching the office of the justice, the woman was taken into custody and placed in jail. In a satchel the woman carried was found a loaded revolver and a number of cartridges.

Creosote Treatment for Posts.

United States Forester Pinchot is sending out circulars advocating the treatment of fence posts with creosote, the estimated cost of which ranges from four to fifteen cents. Posts made from willow, ash, hickory, red oak, water oak, elm, maple, sycamore and cottonwood treated with the creosote solution will last according to the forester's estimate, twenty years.

LOCALS.

Miss Clara Eye, of Colyer, is suffering from an attack of quinsy.

George R. Meiss, at Colyer, had a Bell telephone installed in his residence. He is on the Colyer rural line.

H. M. Allison has been going around inspecting the houses as to health conditions. Mr. Allison is health officer.

G. Howard Kishel, the insurance man, has been transferred by his company to New Castle, this state, to Chicago, Illinois.

The Democratic caucus will be held Saturday, January 25, according to a notice published by the county chairman, W. D. Zorby, Esq.

Al. Oeman, who has been in the Bellefonte Hospital since Monday a week, suffering from an attack of pneumonia, has much improved.

John Meemer, of near Spring Mills, and Jacob Meemer, of State College, were in Centre Hall Tuesday, having been across the valley to visit their sister, Mrs. Samuel Reeder, near Centre Hill.

The full county committee has not yet been announced by Democratic Chairman D. L. Zorby, but at Centre Hall the name of W. Gross Mingle is attached to the call for the borough caucus.

Saturday morning the tippie and washer houses at the Scotia mines were burned. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss will be felt severely in that section, as it will necessitate the closing of the mines until the machinery and buildings can be replaced.

M. J. Barger, of Georges Valley, wishes the Reporter prosperity throughout the present year, and to emphasize his wish he did what he termed "coughing up" for advance payment. He has the right idea of how to make a country newspaper prosperous.

William M. Sweeney, of near Coburn, will become a resident of Potter township next spring, having leased the farm of ex-Congressman James B. Strohm, at Centre Hill. Mr. Sweeney was employed by Mr. Strohm some years ago, and his good services were not forgotten when he was in need of a tenant.

William Moyer, of near Colyer, does quite an extensive business in buying pork, making it into sausage, pudding, etc., and selling it out at retail in the Burnham district. The demand has been reduced some since the steel works have been partially shut down, but he is yet able to dispose of from a half ton to a ton of meat each week.

Among the well-kept properties in Centre Hall, and especially among those that are continually rented, is that of Henry Potter, on East Church street. It is a double house, and last fall was re-roofed and painted on the exterior. The Fetterolf family, who have been tenants for nine years or more, will remain there, and the part occupied by Edward Riter will be occupied next spring by the family of John Ruble.

FOLLIES OF 1907.

Visitors to Philadelphia Should Not Fail to See the Famous Zeitfeld Musical Revue at the Beautiful Forrest Theatre.

Every theatre-goer should take a trip to Philadelphia to see the Zeitfeld musical revue "Follies of 1907," which has made such a brilliant opening to the regular theatrical season at the beautiful Forrest Theatre under the management of Messrs. Nixon and Zimmerman. The Forrest Theatre, at Broad and Sanson streets, the most palatial playhouse in the world, is one of the sights of Philadelphia and it has entered triumphantly on its new policy of presenting the biggest of high-class attractions at reasonable prices. "The Follies of 1907" has quickly become town talk and has already started in to break records. It is described as a feast of musical spectacle and satirical delicacies served in thirteen courses by a cast of over one hundred and said to contain more genuine novelties than have ever before been seen in any one production.

Each scene serves as the setting for an appropriate skit. Some of the satirical hits are those on Roosevelt, Mark Twain, Carnegie, Caruso, Harrison, Anthony Comstock, Chauncey Depew, District Attorney Jerome, and George S. Graham, late District Attorney of Philadelphia.

THE MID-WINTER OUTING.

This is the time for the midwinter outing. A dash of summer in the midst of winter is an agreeable variation. It makes for health and pleasure and stimulates vitality.

For the extended trip, Southern California, the fruit and flower land of the Pacific Coast, offers unrivaled attractions.

For the fortnight's trip, Florida, the summer garden of the Northern winter, bids you come and enjoy its genial sunshine, its tropical scenes and its outdoor life.

For the ten days' outing, Pinehurst, Camden, Aiken, Augusta, Southern Pines and other popular resorts in the pine belt of the Carolinas and Georgia offer many inducements.

For the short trip—the week-end outing—Atlantic City is always attractive. The same breezes that depress the thermometer in summer seem to keep it up in winter. It offers great hotels on the ocean's edge, out-of-door life on land and sea, and a climate full of snap but short of the winter's severity.

Before deciding on your midwinter outing consult a Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent and get a Pennsylvania Railroad Winter Excursion Book. Whether you select California, Florida, the Carolinas, or Atlantic City, the Pennsylvania Railroad offers a comprehensive train service, reasonable rates and ticketing arrangements, and the best facilities that modern transportation methods can provide.
