CENTRE HALL, PENNA.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1908.

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance.
ADVERTISEMENTS.—20 cents per line for three insertions, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Other rates made known on application.

TO REPORTER SUBSCRIBERS.

Why It Is Asked that Subscription Be Paid in Advance.

The following ruling was made by the Postmaster General relative to second class mail matter, under which Weekly Papers are classed:

A reasonable time will be allowed publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions, but unless subscriptions are expressly renewed after the term for which they are paid, within the following periods:

- Dailies, within three months;
- Tri-weeklies, within six months;
- Semi-weeklies, within nine months;
- Weeklies, within one year;
- Semimonthlies, within three months;
- Monthly, within four months;
- Bimonthlies, within six months;
- Quarterlies, within six months,

they shall not be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed on account thereof shall not be accepted for mailing at the second-class postage rate of one cent a pound, but may be mailed at the transient second-class postage rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed. The right of a publisher to extend credit for subscriptions to his publication is not denied or questioned, but his compliance or non-compliance with this regulation will be taken into consideration in determining whether the publication is entitled to transmission at the second-class postage rates.

Smith, the Photographer.
W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday January 24.

Linden Hall.

John Wooster, of Ashland, Ohio, who left here twelve years ago, is visiting relatives here.

Lucian Sytker expects to move to Sunny Side in the spring and farm for Mrs. D. C. Hess.

Harvey Searson came in from Connelville to visit his aged father, James Searson.

A number of young men from here went to Axe Mann, Sunday to see the wrecked engine raised and placed on the track.

Mrs. A. S. Fleck and children are visiting at the W. S. Brooks home.

Geiss Wagner and daughter Mary are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan, at Glen Hope.

Mrs. Frank McFarlane spent Friday and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Hastings, at Bellefonte.

Mrs. George Searson returned Monday from a two weeks' visit among friends in Altoona and Tyrone.

Fine weather beginning of this week.

IT'S A CANVAS GLOVE FACTORY

That Will be Started in Centre Hall in a Modest Way, But Will Grow.

A few weeks ago it was announced with authority in these columns that a factory of some kind would be started in Centre Hall within a short time, but the nature of the article to be manufactured was not made known at that time. Tuesday the Reporter was informed by Merchant G. O. Benner, who with his brother-in-law, John B. Miles, of Martha, are the promoters, that the proposed plant will manufacture canvas gloves and mittens—a half dozen styles—and the firm will also become jobbers in leather gloves and mittens, which means that the firm will at once become one of considerable importance.

Most of the machinery for the cutting and stitching of the gloves is now on the ground and in a short time will be set up and put into operation. Before the close of the present month the first canvas gloves and mitts will be turned out of the Centre Hall factory.

Gloves and mitts made from canvas are extensively used in all parts of the United States. The product is retailed at ten to fifteen cents per pair, and better grades at a higher price. The help needed to manufacture this line of goods is of a grade that can easily be furnished in a country town like this, and there is no reason why the modest factory about to be started by the energetic gentlemen named should not grow into one that will make Centre Hall famous.

Success to the undertaking.

The Sick.

The Reporter regrets that it is called upon to tell its readers that there is an unusual amount of sickness among its friends. A few are noted here. Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot was taken suddenly ill the latter part of last week with pain in the bowels. After several hours effort on the part of Dr. P. H. Dale, the attending physician, she was relieved, and since has been growing better, but up to Tuesday evening remained in bed. The attack is liable to recur.

Mrs. Bitner, wife of Dr. H. F. Bitner, at Millersville, suffered an attack of pneumonia, and for a day or two last week the physicians attending had no hopes of her recovery. Later she rallied, and now she is thought to be out of danger.

Although his temperature was one hundred and four degrees, Aaron Thomas fought the sick bed, but admitted he was sick enough to be there. He has pneumonia and when lying down feels uncomfortable in his head, consequently he resorted to the reclining chair. His condition at present is materially improved.

There is little or no change noticeable in the condition of Mrs. Anna Wolf, at Ardmore, whose illness was noted in these columns during the past few weeks.

Musical Convention.

The citizens of Centre Hall have decided to hold a musical convention, in Grange Arcadia, beginning Monday evening, February 3rd, and close with two concerts, Thursday and Friday evenings. The convention will be under the direction of Prof. P. H. Meyer, assisted by an able pianist. Several special vocalists will also be present. The following persons comprise the general committee: Mrs. L. G. Resnick, Mrs. D. J. Meyer, Mrs. D. W. Bradford, Mrs. H. W. Kreamer, Mrs. Samuel F. Snyder, Messrs. Edward W. Crawford, G. H. Emerick, G. L. Goodhart, Lyman L. Smith, W. W. Spangler.

Marriage Licenses.

- George H. Shugart, Oak Hall
- Mary B. Felty, Boalsburg
- Abner N. Hill, Medix Run
- Eva A. Wance, Aaronsburg
- James D. Harbach, Carroll
- Ida A. Douty, Rebersburg
- George W. Gray, Phillipsburg
- Anna B. Keith, Phillipsburg
- Clair Burd, Unionville
- Laura Calhoun, Unionville
- Israel E. Reitz, Boalsburg
- Della Kellerman, Tyrone

For a Second Term

John L. Dunlap and C. A. Weaver, present Democratic members on the board of county commissioners, are candidates for re-nomination. They have been faithful servants of the taxpayers, regardless of party, and as is the custom should, and undoubtedly will, be given a renomination without a contest.

May Day Foundry Plant.

Beginning of this week S. W. Horst, of Palmyra, Lebanon county, was in town looking over the Centre Hall foundry plant of which Messrs. E. M. Huyett and W. O. Rearek are the owners. As yet, so far as is known by the public, terms of sale or lease have not been agreed upon.

Credits Given.

This week subscriptions paid between December 10th and January 21st have been credited on the Pink Label. If you have not proper credit, please report at once. Remember, '08 means July, 1908, January, 1908 is written 'Jan 08' on the label. In other words where no month is mentioned the month of July is implied.

LOCALS.

Mrs. William J. Mitterling entertained a number of ladies at a dinner Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy, the little daughter of Station Agent W. L. Campbell, of Spring Mills, is ill.

If reports are true James Kerstetter, the Pleasant Gap butcher, will go to farming in the spring, on a farm below Bellefonte.

Miss Minnie Beaver, daughter of Henry Beaver, of near Millheim, Tuesday night entertained about a score of young people from Millheim.

Note that the Nieman Pre-Inventory sale of clothing and gent's furnishing goods will be continued, and that the bargains offered are greater than ever.

Miss Elizabeth Geary, of Newport, Miss May Geary and Mrs. Teressa Stover, of Millheim, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary, in Centre Hall.

Visitors who have been at the Bellefonte hospital to see Al. Osman, report his condition improving somewhat, but he is yet very ill and not out of danger.

Miss Nellie Caldwell, of Watson-town, a school chum of Mrs. B. F. Bleber, was her guest last week. She came here from Bellefonte, where she visited Dr. Siebring.

Mejor Huss and wife, accompanied by their niece, Miss Mary Huss, all of Spring Mills, went to Bellefonte Wednesday to attend a minstrel show in which their son, Calvin Huss, is an actor.

The children under the tutelage of Prof. W. P. Hosterman, Spring Mills, composed a sledding party to the home of W. A. Neese, south of that place, Friday evening. Miss Rena Shires accompanied them in the capacity of chaperon.

Robert Coldren sold his milk route to W. C. Gramley, president of the Spring Mills Creamery Company. Mr. Gramley, in connection with his duties as president, will also gather cream. He reports meeting with much success.

A. J. Cummings, farmer on the large Van Tries farm near Linden Hall, announces sale of farm stock, implements, etc., Monday, March 30. Mr. Cummings will sell a number of good horses, cows, and a full line of new farm implements.

Wednesday night of last week forty-three of Mrs. H. F. Rossman's friends gathered at her home, in Spring Mills, and gave her a delightful surprise. Refreshments were served and the occasion was one of pleasure to the guests as well as the hostess.

Merchant C. P. Long, at Spring Mills, who has been confined to bed during the past ten days was reported to be slightly better Wednesday morning. Mr. Long is suffering from grip coupled with a sore on his foot that has annoyed him for several years.

In this issue will be found a notice for application for incorporation of the Patrons Rural Telephone Company, Clement Dale, Esq., solicitor. This company was organized two years ago, and at present is of such importance that incorporation will be beneficial to all stock holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Yearick and P. Gross Yearick, of Philadelphia, came to Centre Hall Wednesday morning from Aaronsburg where the interment of their mother was made the day previous. While in town they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mingle. Mrs. Yearick was here for the first time in ten years.

If Centre Hall is to have a musical convention, let it be a good one. The average person is willing to pay the admittance to a concert, if he or she has some assurance of hearing individual singers of talent, and a class well trained in choruses. When these conditions are obtained the success of the financial end will be in sight.

Daniel Hosterman, of Coburn, is circulating among friends in Centre Hall. He is one of the Reporter's best subscribers, and does not want to be among those who must necessarily be cut off from the Reporter's list if not paid up. Mr. Hosterman, since the death of his wife some few years ago, makes his home with his daughter, the wife of James Harter, the Coburn merchant.

A Novel Introduction.

The Dr. Howard Company have entered into an arrangement with J. D. Murray's drug store, by which a special introductory offer will be made of 25 cents on the 50 cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

So remarkably successful has Dr. Howard's specific been in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of liver trouble, that Mr. Murray will return the price paid in every case it does not give relief.

Mr. Murray has been able to secure only a limited supply, so everyone who wishes to be cured of dyspepsia or constipation should call upon him at once or send him 25 cents by mail, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half price introductory offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if the specific does not cure.

Harris Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myers are this week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Edward Myers and family, at Hazelton.

Miss Ella Condo, of Penn Hall, attended services in the Reformed church Saturday and Sunday.

W. A. Rose, of Clearfield, postoffice inspector, was at the Boalsburg post-office last week and pronounced everything all right.

Samuel Kimport and family, Lee Segner and family, of State College, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

A. E. Gingerich, with his mother, attended the funeral of Amos Bedyon, at Tusseyville, last Thursday.

Victor Grange gave a dinner and public entertainment in their Hall, Saturday, which was enjoyed by a number of people from this place.

Several ice houses were filled this week, the ice being from six to eight inches in thickness.

Quite a number of people are suffering from La Grippe.

Mrs. Katharine Riley is in a feeble condition, caused by the infirmities of age.

Miss Margaret Lytle fell on an icy pavement several weeks ago and since then has been unable to walk, but with her ailment she still retains her cheerful disposition and welcomes the many friends who call on her.

George C. Meyer and family, of Le-mont, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Meyer, Sunday.

Miss Mary Woods, of Spring Mills, paid Mrs. M. A. Woods a short visit last week.

Services are being held in the Presbyterian church every evening this week, closing with the sacrament of the Lord's Supper Sunday morning, 10.30.

H. M. Hosterman attended a local Institute at Bellefonte, Saturday.

C. D. Moore spent Thursday at the home of his brother, S. B. Moore, at State College.

Master Lester Brouse enjoyed Tuesday with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Brouse, at Pine Grove Mills.

Miss Anna Kaup and Mrs. Julia Shuey, of Lemont, attended services in Boalsburg, Sunday.

J. H. Meyer and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Mothesbaugh, spent Tuesday afternoon at State College.

Henry Frederick, Mrs. Emma Brouse and Miss Alida Rothrock spent Wednesday afternoon of last week at Pine Grove Mills.

Miss Abbie Barger and sister, of Woolrich, visited at S. M. Bell's for a few days.

Adam Felty and daughter, Mrs. Earnest Hays, are visiting in Dauphin and Lebanon counties.

A number of Odd Fellows from the Boalsburg lodge attended a meeting of the Order at State College, Monday evening.

Rev. Ralph Bergstresser, of Pine Grove Mills, preached in the Reformed church Thursday and Friday evenings. Mr. and Mrs. Bergstresser were guests at the Reformed parsonage.

Wm. Steels, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday at the home of J. N. Dinges, John Carper, of Linden Hall, was also a guest at the Dinges home, Sunday.

Mr. Dineen, although gradually improving from a partial paralytic stroke, is as yet unable to mingle with his associates.

George Shugert and Miss Mary Felty were united in marriage last Thursday evening, at the Lutheran parsonage, by Rev. J. I. Stonecypher. Friday evening they received the usual send-off.

John Sones, of Scotia, is visiting his brother, Peter Sones, at Shingletown.

Georges Valley.

The revival services at Locust Grove are still in progress, with a good attendance. These meetings have continued for six weeks. There have been thirty converts, and are twelve penitents yet at the altar.

Messrs. James and Howard Foust have been to see their sister-in-law, Mrs. Harrison Foust, of Potters Mills, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stump and son Alvin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. Masseur, of Brush Valley, attended services at Locust Grove Monday night.

Edward and Dolan Decker spent Monday in Brush Valley with their brothers.

James Reeder bought J. D. Long's farm and will move on it in the spring.

Spring Mills.

C. P. Long, the enterprising merchant, is still confined to bed.

Some of the High and Grammar school pupils spent a pleasant time at the home of Wm. Neese Friday evening of last week.

Jacob Dittweiler and wife, Miss Estella Hendrick and friend, of Perkasee, Bucks county, spent a few days at the Evangelical parsonage.

Rev. Mayer, of Washington, D. C., who was holding revival meetings for Rev. Warburton, returned home on Monday.

While returning home from Locust Grove meeting Rev. Warburton was dumped into the ditch near Samuel Ertel's. He escaped with a few scratches. The horse was scratched considerably, and the buggy looked none the better for being in the upset and runaway. This should warn the supervisors to keep the roads in better condition.

Revival meetings in the Evangelical church are being well attended.

The question in some pastor's minds at this time of the year is not, "Where was I?" but "Where am I going?"

Station Agent W. L. Campbell is able to be about again, after having a severe attack of grip.

The long looked for has arrived at last—the belfry for the school bell. When the bell peals forth, telling Young America 'tis time to wend his way to school it makes one think of days of yore when he too was called.

Evangelical Association appointments for Sunday: Lude Hall, 10 a. m.; Tusseyville, 2.30 p. m.; Spring Mills, 7.00 p. m.

Wm. Hagman, the blacksmith, moved onto his farm, two miles west of town, Tuesday. He will continue to work at his trade until spring.

The P-I-N-K Label this week.

Note From Pacific Coast.

From Los Angeles, California, Charles P. Swint, who is employed with the Pacific Electric Railway Company, comes this message:

"Money that is the real thing is a scarce article with us at present. We have plenty of roses, lilies and 'Japs' which we are ready to roll into the Pacific as soon as the word is given at Washington."

Mr. Swint's note conveys a faint idea to the Reporter readers of the feeling against the "Japs" on the western coast.

Aaronsburg.

Paul Swabb, of Spring Mills, was to see his mother on Sunday.

Warren Winkleblech and family spent the Sabbath with friends at Rebersburg.

Claud Hinds, who has been employed in Chicago, Illinois, for the past five years, was at the home of his grandmother Rupp, Sunday.

HON. S. B. HERMAN IS WELL AGAIN

Noted Oregon Statesman Restored to Health on Recent Eastern Trip.

Hon. Shiller B. Herman, distinguished statesman and legislator of Portland, Oregon, who was recently on an eastern trip, is among those strongly in favor of L. T. Cooper, in the discussion over Cooper and his medicines, which has raged for the past year in cities visited by the young man on his educational campaigns, as he calls them.

Cooper was explaining his new theories and medicines to Boston people during the Oregonian's visit to that city, and in a recent interview Mr. Herman said: "My trip east accomplished more for me than I ever believed possible. It has actually been the means of restoring my health. While in Boston I heard a great deal about this man Cooper and his medicines, and one morning I talked with a Boston banker who told me that he had been relieved by Cooper's medicines after ten years' chronic dyspepsia. For the past twenty years I have been a fearful sufferer with nervous dyspepsia. It has been so bad that it all but forced me to resign from the legislature."

"I was feeling wretchedly that morning, and I made up my mind to try the medicine. I had seen leading physicians without number both East and West. They had been unable to help me in the least, and I no more believed this Cooper's medicine could help me than it could bring a dead man back to life. I really don't know why I bought it. It was like a drowning man clutching at a straw."

"To make a long story short, it has been astonishingly successful in my case. Today I am enjoying a sound stomach and perfect health for the first time in twenty years. I can eat heartily without the slightest inconvenience afterward. I have an appetite, and sleep well. I am no longer moody and depressed, and my nervousness has entirely disappeared."

"Any man who has chronic dyspepsia owes it to his family to try this medicine."

In all our experience as druggists, we have never seen anything to surpass the famous Cooper preparations. —J. D. Murray.
