The treasurer of the Encampment committee also read his report, the same having been audited and found correct. The association last year, through the County Commissioners, received a portion of a state appropriation set aside for premiums. This sum was equal to the sum of the premiums paid.

The report of the Patrons Rural Telephone Company showed a marvelous growth in two years. The figures that will be of interest to the public are these : 217

BRUCE S. LINGLE.

DEATHS.

Monday evening a message was received by the relatives of Bruce S. Lingle, of Cherokee, Iows, that his death had occurred the morning of that day. For several weeks he had been a sufferer from typhoid fever, but at this time none of his friends here anticipated that the result would prove fatal. In fact, they had taken it for granted that his condition was altogether favorable to recovery and that the crisis had been passed. The particulars of the death have not been obtained at this writing. Mr. Lingle was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lingle, of Potter township, the mother surviving him, as do also three sisters-Mrs. John Q. A. Kennedy, Mrs. C. M. Arvey and Mrs. I. M. Arney. In October of 1881 he married Miss Zillah Knox, of Newry, Blair county, who also survives, together with six children-five

In 1883 Mr. and Mrs. Lingle moved from near Centre Hall to their present home, on which they lived as tenants and afterward became the owners. As a farmer Mr. Lingle was very successrate of the company was far below the ful, and also became influential in his community in a social and political way. Among his old associates Mr. Lingle
