CLEMENT DALE, Solicitor.

Cow Sale Advertised.

The cow sale advertised by B. F. James and Norwood Petrick, to take place at Millheim, Friday 21st, has been postponed until Friday, February 23rd, at 12:30. These cows consist of good springers.

D. C. Keller, of Phoenixville, will be at Millheim at the time of the above sale, and persons having fresh cows for sale are requested to notify him.

Encampment Post Cards.

Two views of the last Grand Encampment are now on hand. Just came from Germany, last week. 5c each; seven for 25c; one dozen 35c. Sent by mail post paid.

A standing offer—"Take my seat, Madam."

Wland-McClintic.

Simon D. Wland, of near Sunbury, and Mrs. Mary J. McClintic, of Lock Haven, were married Thursday of last week by Rev. Robert O'Boyle, of the First Reformed church in Sunbury. The ceremony was performed at noon at the home of the groom in Upper Augusta township, Northumberland county.

A great many guests were present. At the conclusion of the wedding an elaborate dinner was served.

The newly married couple will live at the present home of the groom.

Their many friends will wish them prosperity and great happiness in their wedded life.

The above is from a Sunbury paper. Mrs. McClintic was formerly from Gregg township, this county.

Plans for Knights' Temp at Tournoi.

Dr. McCluney Radcliffe, chairman of the committee on the invitations of the Knights' Templar tournoi, to be held in the Academy, Philadelphia, February 20, announces that there have been more acceptances to invitations than on any previous similar occasion. Many of the officers of the Grand Encampment of the United States will be present, among them V. E. Frank Pierce, of San Francisco and Vice E. Sir and Rev. George S. Graham, Rev. Cheyenne, Wyoming. An unusual number of Past Grand Commanders of the State, including George S. Graham, Rev. Charles M. Stock and Congressman Wanger, will be present, as well as the majority of the grand officers and the Grand Chapter and the Grand Lodge officers. Governor Stuart, Mayor Reybun and other city officials, many of whom are Masons, have accepted invitations.

Candidate for Sheriff.

The following is from the Philadelphia Journal, and published at the request of Mr. Snook:

Under the proper heading in another part of our paper will be found the announcement of J. C. Snook, of the borough of Millheim, who is a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic party of Centre county. Mr. Snook has been a resident of the county for twenty-five years, most of which time he has followed tenant farming. For seventeen years he did the farming for J. P. Kephart, of Bellefonte, and for three years had charge of Judge Gordon's farm at Hecla Park, in Walker township. In his younger life he taught school for four years. He served most faithfully as Overseer of the Poor of Penn township for a period of nine years. He has always been an honest, upright, industrious citizen and comes before the people of Centre county with a clean record, and speaks consideration at the hands of the party of which he has so long been a member and ardent supporter.

J. D. Murray's New Departure.

After two months of remarkable sales, J. D. Murray, the enterprising druggist, says that his plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success he has ever known.

He has sold hundreds of bottles of the specific; and as yet has not had one returned, although he stands ready at any time to refund the money should any customer be dissatisfied. This is the strongest testimony that can be furnished to the great merit of this medicine.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling, caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of Mr. Murray's new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Under Mr. Murray's special half price offer, this means a month's treatment for 25 cents, with the best medicine known for the cure of constipation and stomach troubles.

Linden Hall

Lee Brooks took a sled load of young people to Jacob Meyer's, Tuesday evening, where all had a delightful time.

The ladies of the U. E. church bought a new carpet and presented it to the church on Monday.

The Rock Hill school will give an entertainment in the Evangelical church, Friday evening, in honor of Washington's birthday. The public is invited to be present.

Mrs. J. H. Williams came over Friday from her home, near Bellefonte, for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Keller.

Miss Nellie Novel, who visited at the home of John and Libbie Davis, last summer, entered a hospital at Pittsburg, Monday, to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and children, of Millheim, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Sarah Miller.

Mrs. Wm. Brooks has been housed up for several days from an attack of the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan were recent visitors at the home of Harry Frantz.

Harris Township.

The farmers institute is in session here this week.

J. Curtis Meyer, of the Branch, has been seriously ill of tonsillitis. Howard Wright, of Sinking Valley, attended to business here last week.

Mrs. Ella Black, of Altoona, was a guest at the Reformed parsonage for a few days.

Miss May Stover, of State College, spent a few days with her parents in Boalsburg.

John Cramer, of Rock View, visited his brother William, at Locust Grove last week.

Mrs. Annie Duff and grandson, of Oak Grove, are visiting her mother, in Shingletown.

Mrs. Edna Gramley and her little son, of Altoona, were guests at the home of her brother, John Stamm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright returned last week from a visit to the former's mother, Mrs. Charles Wright, in Sinking Valley.

Mrs. Orlando Thomas was installed as housekeeper at the home of Wm. Kline, at State College, while her daughter, Mrs. Kline, was visiting in Altoona.

Misses Esther and Hattie Kaup gave a "pink and white tea" Saturday, the 8th. The guests present numbered fifty-three.

The festival held by the Rebekah's, Friday and Saturday evening, was quite a success, despite the inclement weather.

Miss Annie Lohr spent Sunday at Centre Hall, where she attended communion services in the Methodist church.

Owing to the scarcity of work at Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Traxler have closed their house, and Mrs. Traxler is spending the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reitz.

Paul Beck of Sinking Valley, enjoyed a week here. The Wm. Beck family moved to Sinking Valley from Shingletown, not many years ago. Paul was then "knee high to a grasshopper, and now he is a six footer."

Exercises appropriate to the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln will be held by the Boalsburg primary school, of which Miss Margaret Motherbaugh is teacher, Friday afternoon. All who are interested in the cause of education are invited to attend.

Election day was fair and bright, and electioneering was at a high pitch. One thing is wanting to make the day a success. The women should be allowed to vote, for two reasons: There would always be a full vote and plenty of competent candidates.

The remains of Nicholas Barnhart were interred in the cemetery at Boalsburg Monday afternoon. Mr. Barnhart died at Watsonstown, but had formerly lived at Oak Hall. Rev. Sechrist, of Centre Hall, was the officiating minister.

Harry Young, who came from his home in Freeport, Ill., in October to spend the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Young, returned to that place last week. Willis Jordan accompanied him, and will visit a brother, who is extensively engaged in farming in Illinois.

Mrs. George Fisher spent Saturday in Bellefonte at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ryan. Her brother Harry had met with an accident. While doing some work on the telephone line at State College he broke one ankle and sprained the other.

Miss Eva Moyer, of Centre Mills, and Miss Clara Condo, of Penn Hall, who are teaching school in Millheim, were entertained by Clyde P. Wieland and sister, Miss Gertrude, from Saturday until Monday. It seems the ladies are taking advantage of Leap year, and no wonder, for it only comes once in four years.

Mrs. J. P. Wagner and Mrs. Alvin Myers and children, of Altoona, are guests at the home of D. W. Myers. Mr. Wagner is afflicted with weakness of the lungs, and has gone to the sanitarium at White Haven for treatment. During his stay there Mrs. Wagner will remain with her parents. That the treatment may be beneficial is the wish of their friends.

A sermon will be preached in behalf of the Old Fellows in the Reformed church, Friday evening, 28th inst., by Rev. Hart, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, a Methodist minister, of Harrisburg, who was left an orphan and was cared for and educated by the Old Fellows. All the members of different lodges are invited as well as all others who have the spirit of brotherly love in their hearts.

Affairs for Chickens.

Choice alfalfa, in bales of from 80 to 100 pounds, is offered to poultrymen at one cent per pound, f. o. b. Centre Hall station.

This is the third cutting, and was stored in October. It is as green as grass, and is readily eaten by fowls. The poultryman acquainted with his business knows the value of alfalfa as an egg producer.

Terms spot cash.

S. W. SMITH, Centre Hall.

Thirty-seven dollars pays six weeks' tuition on any instrument, singing and board at the old established College of Music, Freeburg, Pa. Young pupils well cared for. Terms begin May 4, June 15 and July 27. For catalog address HENRY B. MOYER, 31

Convention Called Off.

The musical convention advertised to be held at Millheim has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the fact that the town hall in which the convention was to have been held is considered unsafe for such a gathering.

LOCALS.

The farmers' institute is on today at Boalsburg.

The average man is satisfied to follow the crowd.

See the clearance sale adv.—C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville.

Will D. Shoop, an inspector at the Burnham shops, was called back to work Wednesday.

Mrs. James Spicher, of Crescon, is at the home of her father-in-law, John Spicher, in Centre Hall.

D. C. Bohn, of near Spring Mills, tenant on the William Peeler farm, was among the Gregg township farmers who attended the farmers' institute.

See the advertisement of J. B. Fisher's Soap. They are advertising a line of goods that can be used profitably at this time of the year. The prices will be just what they are advertised.

Mrs. Ralph J. Wright, nee Miss Anna Shoop, since her return to Harvey, Illinois, has been confined to bed for the greater part of the time.

At present, however, she is able to be about again.

The Thrice-a-Week New York World will be mailed all Centre Reporter subscribers for sixty-five cents, paid in advance. The World will be discontinued every year upon expiration of subscription.

George H. Krise and family, of Chicago, are east on a visit to the former's parents, Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Krise. Mr. Krise is a steam fitter, and took advantage of the slack in trade to make the trip.

After an illness of rather a serious nature for almost two weeks, Mrs. Victor Auman, of Centre Hall, is improved considerably, and beginning of this week was able to sit up in bed for a short time. Grip and a weak heart is the trouble.

John B. Knorr and son Paul L., of Reading, were guests at the Huyett home over Sunday. The Knorr home is the head of the wholesale shoe firm of Knorr & Ruth, in Reading, who through their representatives have built up a large trade in Central Pennsylvania.

The Reporter was pleased to have a call from John F. Zeigler, of Altoona, who came to Penns Valley last week to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. John F. Heckman, at Spring Mills, and since has been visiting his brother, Emanuel Zeigler, near Madisonburg, and sister, Mrs. C. R. Neff, near Centre Hall. He is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and is one of the few who are fortunate enough to be employed at present.

C. S. Miller, of Williams, Iowa, and his sister, Mrs. J. W. Keller, of Linden Hall, were among friends in Centre Hall Tuesday. Thirty-six years ago Mr. Miller went west and in that time (twenty-five years ago) was here but once prior to his present visit. It was difficult for him to recognize Centre Hall, even the old section of the town, from the impression made on his mind when clerking in the Herlacher general store, which stood where the Dr. Allison dwelling is now located. He is now all wrapped up in the west—the growing of corn, oats, hogs and cattle, the chief products of the farm.

Smith, the Photographer.

W. W. Smith, the Photographer, will be in Centre Hall Friday February 21.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians who treat themselves.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When some of Swamp-Root writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PECULIAR PROPERTIES OF NEW MEDICINE

Cooper Preparation Attracts Widespread Attention by Expelling Internal Parasites.

The interest created in leading cities during the past year by young Mr. Cooper with his new preparation, is largely accounted for by a peculiar quality possessed by this medicine, which he calls his New Discovery.

Mr. Cooper believes that internal parasites, or tapeworms, are responsible for much ill health, and it is an undoubted fact that his medicine has expelled immense numbers of these creatures in various cities visited by him. The young man also believes that stomach trouble is the main cause of all ill health. He claims that few can have poor health with a good digestion. He further claims that his New Discovery medicine does nothing but tone up the stomach, yet it not only expels the parasites, but relieves many other ailments not as a rule associated with stomach trouble.

Little Jessie Birdsall, daughter of Mrs. Ida Birdsall, living at 2138 Carroll Avenue, Chicago, is among many relieved of a large parasite by Mr. Cooper's preparation during his stay in that city. In speaking of the matter to Mr. Cooper, the mother said: "My child Jessie, who is fourteen years old, has been suffering with this trouble for over seven years. Until this morning we did not know what the trouble was. She was extremely nervous; the least little thing would upset her; her tongue was coated, and at times she would have a good appetite, then again could not bear the sight of food; she was restless at night, had a bad breath, especially when she got up in the morning. We tried everything to relieve her, but met with no success. We were just on the point of giving up trying anything else, when we began to read of Cooper's New Discovery. Several days ago we purchased this medicine. Jessie has been using it regularly, and this morning this parasite left her system. I don't wonder that she has always felt bad, and nothing we would give her seemed to relieve her. Now that she is relieved of this tapeworm I feel sure that she will grow better each day, and enjoy perfect health. Mr. Cooper, your medicine is worth a thousand times more than you charge for it. I know of a number of people troubled the same way as Jessie has been, and I certainly expect to tell them personally to try your medicine."

We would advise anyone who has been troubled for some time with general poor health to try this great medicine. We are agent for it in this city.—J. D. Murray.
