Keith's Theatre.

"A Race for a Wife" is the title of a thrilling motor-racing play by Hal Davis & Co., which is on the boards at Keith's Theatre, Philadelphia, this week. It is the first presentation in that city of this exciting chase, on a mimic course, at the rate of seventy miles an hour. Another headliner is The Jostles and their Lilliputians in marvelous feats of skill and strength. The best colored duo in vaudeville is Avery & Hart, who are also on the bill, as well as Ray Cox, the charming Southern singer, and Quinlan & Mack, twin stars of minstrelsy. This week also marks the first appearance in the Quaker City of Jean Clermont's circus parody, entitled "Barnum & Belleid," the funniest act for children of all ages.

The Pink Label.

If you paid subscription between February 11th and March 3rd, you will find credit on the pink label this week. Make a comparison between the pink label this week and a former label and note whether proper credit has been given. If an error occurs, notify this office at once—don't wait a day.

LOCALS.

Your attention: The pink label. The auctioneer arouses more-bid curiosity.

There is an abundance of proof that winter is "lingering in the lap of spring."

According to the calendar winter is over, but from the appearance of things it is here in great style.

Both Dr. W. H. Schuyler and Rev. B. F. Bieber were unable to fill their appointments Sunday on account of sickness.

Thomas Howley, of Bellefonte borough, announces himself a candidate for recorder in this issue of the Reporter.

Superintendent D. O. Etters was in town Tuesday night. He is making a tour of inspection of public schools in Penns Valley.

Samuel Stover, who has been in delicate health ever since last fall, is not improving; in fact, his condition during the past week has been alarming.

Squire George F. Weaver, of Gregg township, candidate for Register, was in Bellefonte Saturday, and on his return stopped for a short time in Centre Hall.

Mrs. James S. Stahl Saturday went to Altoona to visit her son Claude K. Stahl, who is employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices at that place, and other relatives.

Reports from the Bellefonte hospital are that Al. Osman is somewhat better, and that there are chances for his recovery. He has been at the hospital since January 7th.

Today (Thursday) Elmer Stump will move from Potters Mills to the Dubbs property, near Rhoneymede, and next spring will assist Cloyd Brooks in tilling that farm.

Dr. Schuyler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has caused it to be announced that there would be no services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday because of his illness.

The Bellefonte Central Railroad's private compartment car has so far not proven a success. In the first place it is almost too long for its curves on the road and then the motor has not proven powerful enough to haul the car up the various grades. Workmen, however, are still engaged trying to put the car to rights.

Mrs. William S. Brooks, of near Linden Hall, entertained a number of friends Saturday evening, among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Geringer, Misses Mary Potter, Flora Walker, Mary Delinda Potter, Katie Zeigler and Henry Potter. The evening was spent in a social way, and part of the time was devoted to the singing of the good old hymns and songs. Misses Ruth Brooks and Potter furnished instrumental music.

Harris Township.

The loe men are still busy. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Harro, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday in Boalsburg.

Pathmaster Adam Felty is settling his accounts with the taxpayers George Sweeney, of Centre Hall, spent Monday afternoon in Boalsburg.

Miss Margaretta Goheen enjoyed the play at State College, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimport visited in Millin county.

John Fry, of Fairbrook, spent Monday in Boalsburg.

Miss May Stover has been suffering from a carbuncle on her right arm, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Brown, of Blair county, visited at the home of Mrs. John Leech.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hosterman visited Mrs. Rhodie Boob, who resides at the Stiver home, near Potters Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, spent part of last week with relatives in this community.

Mervin Arney, of Centre Hall, and Abner Alexander, of Old Fort, transacted business in Boalsburg last week.

Mrs. Mitchell Stover and son H. H. of Altoona, spent a week with Centre county friends.

Frank Mayes, of Lemont, attended to business in Boalsburg, Monday afternoon.

Hutch. Thompson and sister, Miss Mary, of Puddingtown, were callers in Boalsburg Saturday evening.

Charles Swartz and family, of Tusseyville, spent Sunday at the home of Adam Krumrine.

Rev. B. H. Hart, who addressed the Odd Fellow on Friday evening, was entertained at the Reformed parsonage.

P. A. Ishler, who has been proprietor of the Boalsburg tavern, will vacate the same in the spring. The house is for rent.

Frank Cramer, of Rock View, visited his son Wm., at Locust Grove, and his sister, Mrs. Frank Lohr, near Shingletown.

Mrs. Frank Lohr is spending the greater part of her time with her sister, Mrs. David Tressler, who is seriously ill at her home near Pine Hall.

Misses Martha Boal, Elsie Boal and Lottis Goodhart, of Centre Hall, were guests at the Hillside farm on Saturday (11) Monday.

W. C. Meyer, of "The Branch," spent Friday afternoon in this place, distributing bills for his sale on the 24th instant.

A musical treat will be given by the Millinburg Glee Club in the Boal Hall, Friday evening, March 13, under the auspices of the Rebekah Lodge. Admission, 20 cents for adults; 10 cents for children.

Charles Kuhn gathered up a sled load of men, women and children, Friday evening, promising them a ride to State College. Before they got there he unloaded them all in a snow drift, but they were all picked up, and as none were hurt they pursued their way, and had a very pleasant evening with Samuel Kimport and family.

Among the number were Mrs. Clara Stover and son, from the Mountain City, who will likely tell of the fine time they had sleighing during their visit in Centre county.

Colyer.

The Richley Lumber Co., which has been operating in the Seven Mountains on a large scale for a number of years, is laying off some of the men on account of not having sufficient orders for lumber.

Edward Bubb purchased a tract of timber land from Cyrus Brungart, and will begin to lumber it off in the spring. He intends purchasing an entirely new outfit—engine and mill—and expects to do a great deal of custom work.

Messrs. Fred Brown and Jacob Ritter spent a few days in Milroy this week.

E. R. McClellan, a fox hunter of note, and who devotes much time in search of fur bearing animals on account of the high prices paid for skins, had the unusual experience of taking seven pole cats from one hole. The value of the skins was $7.75, yet he vowed that he had taken his last trail of a skunk.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Mary Patterson, of Johnstown, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. S. Dale, over Sunday.

Clayton Etters and wife spent Thursday in Bellefonte.

Last week a new boy arrived in the home of Edward Zoug.

Mrs. James C. Gilliland, accompanied by her brother, D. M. Campbell, transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

P. H. Meyer and wife, of Centre Hall; Clement Dale and wife, of Honesville, and Luther Dale, of Pleasant Gap, were guests at Sunny Hill last week.

Margaret Peters has returned home after spending the last six months in Ferguson township.

Mrs. Samuel Reitz and Miss Elizabeth Bohn spent part of Thursday in Lemont.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the Centre Hall postoffice, March 2nd: Mrs. D. F. Gray, Mr. Chas. S. Baker Conn I. Goodman. When called for please say they were advertised.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits.

By all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. None of Swamp-Root, K. C., also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

HOW HE HAS MADE A SUCCESS

L. T. Cooper Tells Chicago Reporter Why He Accomplishes So Much.

No man in recent years has been more successful in restoring human health than L. T. Cooper. During his stay in Chicago, and while he was meeting thousands of people daily, he gave the following reason for the remarkable demand for his medicine to a reporter:

Mr. Cooper said: "My New Discovery is successful because it corrects the stomach. My theory is that few can be sick if the digestive apparatus is working properly. It naturally follows that few can be well with a poor digestion."

"I know from experience that most of the tired, half-sick people that are so common news-days have half-sick stomachs. Put the stomach in shape, and nature does the rest. The result is general good health. My medicine does this. That is why fifty thousand people here in Chicago are using it who never heard of me until a month ago."

Among the fifty thousand mentioned by Mr. Cooper who used his medicine in Chicago is Mrs. Hilda Pfueger, living at 1203 Almslie Avenue. This is the statement she makes concerning her experience with the medicine:

"I have been sick for six years with stomach trouble. I was always hungry, but did not dare to eat much, as I had severe pains in my stomach, and also through my body. I could not sleep at night and was very restless. I was also very nervous, and would have severe headaches. I was constipated, and always felt bloated after eating."

"I had tried many remedies, but could secure no relief, until one day I noticed in the newspapers what wonderful results Cooper's medicines were accomplishing in Chicago. I decided to try them, and shortly after commencing the treatment I began to feel better. I did not have those severe pains in my stomach, and I could sleep at night; my appetite improved, and I can now eat well. I am feeling like a new woman."

"I am very thankful to Mr. Cooper for what his remedies have done for me. They have restored me to good health, and I would advise any one who suffers as I did to try them."

We sell the Cooper medicines. They are easily the most celebrated preparations ever introduced in this country, growing in popularity daily.
