18 APRIL, 1 p. m.—Administrators of Jacob Neese, one-half mile north of Farmers Mills.

Harris Township.

Mrs. Samuel Ryan, of Bellefonte, visited her daughter, Mrs. George Fisher.

William Allen, a clerk at Meek's drug store, State College, spent Sunday with relatives in Boalsburg.

Harrison Knarr and Michael Segner, two of our retired farmers, enjoyed a visit with friends at State College.

William Cramer visited his parents near Rock View for a few days last week.

William Stover moved with his family to the Boalsburg tavern last Thursday. Extensive repairs will be done to the building and every effort will be made for the accommodation of travelers and others who may desire the benefits of a first class hotel.

S. J. Wagner and family are this week moving from Juniata to Boalsburg, where they expect to make their future home.

Services are being held in the Lutheran church during the evenings of this week. The Holy Communion will be administered on Sunday at 10:30. An Easter service will be held in the Reformed church in the evening at 7:30.

Theodore Boal accompanied Mademoiselle Cecil De Lagarde to New York City. They left this place Monday expecting to reach the city by Wednesday when the lady will sail for a visit to her home in France.

Fishing stories will be a-plenty for some time.

Farmers are busy plowing, sowing clover-seed, repairing fences, etc. The obliging and good natured ones, after enjoying the noonday meal, assist the women in beating carpets, moving stoves and adjusting stove pipes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corl visited the Meyers families in Millheim from Saturday until Monday.

William Corl, of Pleasant Gap, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noll, of McBride's Gap, were recent visitors at the home of Robert Corl.

Daisy Keller and sister Rilla, of Houserville, were Sunday visitors at the home of Adam Felty.

Miss Sarah McClenahan, of Centre Hall, is spending this week at Boalsburg.

John Leech, of Altoona, is spending some time at his old country home.

Rev. A. A. Black made a short visit to his old home near Huntington and tarried for an evening in Altoona where he preached in the Trinity Reformed church.

Miss Martha Boal, of Centre Hall, is staying at the home of Mrs. M. A. Woods for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wieland and Adam Felty and daughter, Mrs. Mary Shugert, were present at the funeral of Mrs. Frederick Decker, at the Branch on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. E. Brown and Miss Bessie Searson attended the funeral of Miss Straub in Bellefonte on Monday.

Linden Hall.

Miss Madie Gingerich is spending this week here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meyer moved into the home of William Stovers who took charge of the hotel.

Mrs. Frank McClellan came over from Philipsburg Tuesday for a short stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geise Wagner.

Mrs. D. C. Kerr made a business trip to Bellefonte Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams and family spent Sunday with Mrs. J. W. Keller.

George Ishler was severely bitten in the leg by a dog one day last week as he was going into the yard at the Frank Miller home.

Mrs. Libbie Hull, who has been visiting at the Davis home, returned to Bellefonte on Monday.

Hon. William T. Creasy, the Columbia county Grange who always represents the best interests of the farmers, won out against the liquor men and had four hundred votes to spare. The wiskey element put up a hot fight against him, but to no purpose.

COMMENCEMENT—1908

A Class of Six Graduates from the Centre Hall High School exercises Monday Evening.

From every viewpoint the commencement exercises of the Centre Hall High School held in Grange Arcadia, Monday night, were looked upon with favor.

The class was composed of six, namely, Lella May Huyett, Bertha C. Strohmier, Mary Delinda Potter, D. Ross Bushman, John C. Bailey, and Floyd E. Snyder, all belonging to the township of Linden.

While a march was being played, the junior class filed into their seats in the audience room, followed by the seniors, who took the stage.

THE PROGRAM.

MUSIC.

ORATION—"The Man With the Hoe" D. ROSS BUSHMAN.

MUSIC.

ESSAY—"The United States Mail" MARY DELINDA POTTER.

MUSIC.

ORATION—"Electricity" JOHN C. BAILEY.

MUSIC.

ORATION—"Progress of the 19th Century" FLOYD E. SNYDER.

MUSIC.

ESSAY—"Thought Power" BERTHA C. STROHMIER.

MUSIC.

ESSAY—"Take Heart Again" LELLA MAY HUYETT.

Both the composition and rendition of the orations and essays were all that could have been desired by the audience, and the training displayed reflected sufficiently to cause the principal of the school, Prof. C. R. Neff, to feel that his labors were not without results; cause a feeling of just pride to creep over the parents, and a justified satisfaction envelope the personal friends of the members of the class.

Another gratifying condition is the majority, if not all the case, will continue their studies.

At the close of the exercises proper the graduates gave their class yell:

Hoop, Rah! Boomer, Rah! Rip, Rah, Rate! Centre Hall High! Nineteen eight!

The junior class quickly followed with—

Zig zag, zig zag, Rip-ra-ring, chic-a-lac, Boom-a-lac, chic-a-lac-ching! Ray-hawk, Jay-hawk—We are fine—We are the class of nineteen nine.

The stage was tastefully decorated with the class colors, red and white, and over all was the class pennant. On the floor were ferns and palms, all well arranged to harmonize.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Misses Maude Sechrist, Mable Arney, Rosie Krape, Ethel Sechrist and Helen Hosterman, the latter having charge of that portion of the program.

After the exercises were over friends of the graduates gathered around them to extend congratulations, and this was followed by a banquet.

Marriage Licenses.

Charles Williams, Rush township Hattie M. Jarret, Rush township Charles A. Rachau, Madisonburg Pielta Vonada, Madisonburg James O. Heverly, Howard Mable Strunk, Howard George M. Squires, Philipsburg Mary A. Adams, South Philipsburg Lee Deratine, Bellefonte Edna N. Wilson, Bellefonte.

Evangelistic Services.

The special evangelistic services will begin in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath with services by Evangelist S. L. Boston at 10:30 a. m., and 7 p. m. During the following week there will be services every evening except Saturday, at 7:30 p. m. A most cordial and earnest invitation to all these services is extended to all members of other churches and especially to those who are members of no church.

LOCALS.

It often happens that the spirit of the law hasn't a ghost of a show.

Rev. B. S. Dize, of Avis, has taken charge of his new Lutheran pastorate at Milroy.

Miss Anna Ross, of Linden Hall, was the guest of Miss Ruth Thomas Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Helen Hosterman Tuesday morning went to Montrose, where she will visit her brother for a short time.

Edward Royer, host at the Old Fort Hotel, continues confined to bed, but his condition is regarded as slightly better.

Dr. G. W. Hosterman gives notice that his dental parlors will be closed from Saturday, 18th inst., until Wednesday, 29th inst.

Miss Helen and E. L. Bartholomew were in Centre Hall over Sunday, and returned to Tyrone and Altoona, respectively, Monday.

Many years are required to grow a handsome shade tree, which can be destroyed in a few minutes. More attention should be given to preserving them and prolonging their lives.

Messrs. J. W. Weaver and Bruce S. Ishler, both of Colyer, were callers Tuesday. Mr. Weaver has had considerable sickness in his family during the past winter, and has been obliged to stay close at home on that account.

H. E. Homan, east of Centre Hall, is doing considerable improving to his farm buildings. He is having his large barn re-roofed, and the front resided. Some repairing is also being done to the dwelling house and outbuildings.

Samuel F. Snyder, who is regularly employed at Pittsburg, came home Sunday and will remain until Monday. His main object in coming here at this time was to attend the commencement exercises of the Centre Hall High School.

The ladies of the United Evangelical Church, of Centre Hall, will hold a fancy goods and colored egg sale, Saturday evening, in Grange Arcadia. They will also serve ice cream, cake and doughnuts at the same time. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wagner, of Orangeville, Illinois, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage a short time ago. Mr. Wagner was a native of Northumberland county, and belongs to a branch of the Wagner family in Penna. Valley.

"April 18th, three o'clock p. m., the Atlantic fleet is expected to anchor in the harbor at Long Beach and San Pedro. Our city is making great preparations for their entertainment."

These are the words of Charles P. Swint, of Los Angeles, California.

Rev. G. W. McClintock came from his new pastorate at Lock Haven to his former field, beginning of this week, to again meet old friends, and take back with him his horse. Rev. McClintock will be found at No. 500 East Main street by any who wish to address him.

Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot and W. J. Smith attended the funeral of Dr. George P. Weaver, at St. Paul's Church, below Aaronsburg. Dr. Weaver was the uncle of the former and it was with him and his family that she spent many pleasant days while in Philadelphia, the late home of the deceased.

Who lost an umbrella at Earlstown? That is what W. H. Cummings would like to know and in order to reach the person he causes mention of the find to be made in the Reporter. Mr. Cummings is deserving of a cromo, for the other nine out of ten men would have taken the umbrella home with them and left it there until some rainy day.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Krise and little son, after a two months' visit at the home of Mr. Krise's parents, started westward Tuesday morning. They expect to stop off for a few days at Johnstown, after which they will visit Mrs. Krise's mother and sisters in Manistee, Michigan, before returning to their home in Chicago.

William H. Kuhn, of Jersey Shore, made his annual visit to Philipsburg and Centre Hall to spend a few days with his daughters, Mrs. L. Ray Morgan and Mrs. S. W. Smith. Mr. Kuhn was formerly of Boalsburg, but has been at Jersey Shore during the past seven years, and has become very much attached to Lycoming county and its people.

THE TICKET.

Democratic Nominations by the people as candidates for Officers to be Voted for in November.

On the first page of this issue is a partial report of the Democratic vote in the various districts of the county for candidates where there was a contest for the nomination.

It was impossible to secure the official vote for this issue, since the returns were not opened by the Commissioners until Wednesday noon. So far as the returns are in, the indications are that Mr. Weaver has a small majority over Mr. Pletcher for the nomination for Register, and it is thought that the official returns will not change the situation.

The others named below have majorities sufficiently large that there is no doubt but that the official vote will ratify the same.

Delegates to National Convention—James Kerr, N. B. Spangler.

Delegates to State Convention—Frank W. Grebe, D. J. Kelley, W. Gross Mingle.

Congress—W. Harrison Walker. Assembly—J. C. Meyer.

Sheriff—F. F. Smith. Treasurer—John D. Miller. Recorder—F. P. Musser.

Register—George F. Weaver. Commissioners—John L. Dunlap, C. A. Weaver.

Auditors—J. W. Beck, John L. Cole. Coroner—P. S. Fisher.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES: Assembly—Robert B. Taylor. Sheriff—Wm. S. Hurley. Treasurer—doubtful.

Recorder—Wm. H. Brown. Register—Earle C. Tuten. Commissioners—Jacob Woodring, H. E. Zimmerman.

Fink has a small lead in the districts heard from, but there are sixteen precincts that have not yet reported, which places his nomination in doubt until the official count is made.

Mrs. Frank Worrell and son Paul, of Girard, Kansas, are at the Sankey home at Potters Mills. Before coming to Pennsylvania the Worrells returned from a trip to the Pacific coast visiting numerous points in California.

The old soldier—John A. Daley—didn't get recognition. He is good enough to keep along Republican schemes, but don't need an office. The places on the ticket are reserved, you know.

He who wears out his welcome may find it hard to get another one.

The average girl has a good many false alarms before she meets her fate.

Some people laugh at nothing, but that is better than to worry over nothing.

After an illness of over three months Al. Osman is back to town again and to say the least he is highly gratified to be here. He speaks so complimentary of the Bellefonte hospital, in which institution he was confined three months lacking one day, that one is led to believe it a pleasure to be under the care of the superintendent, Miss Calderwood, and her assistants. He fully realizes that it is the tender care he received at the county hospital that is responsible for his hopes of again fully recovering his health.

Messrs. James Leitzell and Calvin Kennelly, of Spring Mills, stopped for a short time in Centre Hall Tuesday morning while on their way to Linden Hall. They are engaged in trimming fruit trees.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown and three children spent part of Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Krise, having come to see Mr. and Mrs. George H. Krise before the latter left for the west.

MANY INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE ADOPT NEW THEORY

Statements from Followers of Cooper Obtained Recently in Various Cities.

A number of statements from prominent people located in various cities where the widespread discussion over L. T. Cooper's new theory regarding the human stomach has recently waged give an idea of the intense interest the young man has aroused during the past year. The statements are as follows:

Mr. C. D. Mitchell, of 2412 Avenue C, Birmingham, Ala., has this to say with regard to his belief in Cooper's medicine: "I have been troubled with indigestion and stomach trouble for the past year. I had heartburn, bloating after eating, gas on stomach and bowels, palpitation of the heart, pain in the lower part of my back, and various other symptoms, and was a victim of much distress. I tried many remedies, but received little or no benefit from them. I was advised to try the Cooper preparations, and did so. In one week's time I was improved wonderfully—the first relief I had been able to obtain. Mr. Cooper's medicine does all he claims for it."

Mr. J. O. Spradling, of 705 South Tejon Street, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I was troubled with indigestion for two years. It caused me a great deal of suffering and misery. I did not dare to eat meat at all, and everything I did eat soured on my stomach. I tried various remedies, but found no relief. Three months ago I started taking Cooper's New Discovery, and after using the contents of three bottles I was entirely cured. I can now eat and relish anything that my appetite craves. The New Discovery is truly a great stomach medicine."

Mr. Wm. Codier, of 403 Graves Street, Syracuse, N. Y., is very strong in his expression of belief in the new medicine, and has the following to say on the subject: "I have suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for four years. It must have been communicated to my stomach, for all this time my stomach has given me a great deal of trouble, and caused me much pain and suffering. My stomach was often sour, and my food did not digest. I was bothered by a continual desire to spit, and there was a constant dropping of mucus into the throat. The first relief I have been able to obtain is from Cooper's New Discovery, which I have been taking for about a week. My catarrhal condition has been greatly improved and my stomach is almost well. Mr. Cooper's medicine has benefited me more than anything I have ever used."

These statements are from reliable citizens in various communities who have tried these celebrated medicines. We sell them and will gladly explain their nature to any one interested.
