LOCALS.

Clayton Wagner went to Millburg Saturday to visit his brother.

The executive committee of the state grange has decided to hold the annual meeting in Altoona next December.

Joseph Hettinger, of near Boalsburg, was in town Saturday and called at this office to announce sale of personal property Saturday afternoon, May 9th. Mr. Hettinger is a civil war veteran.

The May Delineator is an especially fine number, every department of the popular magazine having something of a special character. The fashion plates are particularly characteristic of a high-class fashion journal.

The officers of the State College Lodge, I. O. O. F. were installed by the installing officer J. Harry Eberhart. The Noble Grand is Charles B. Sheasly; Vice Grand, Clyde E. Shuey, and Financial Secretary, Christ H. Ewy.

J. W. Adams, formerly of lower Penns Valley, but for some time a resident of Huntingdon, at the Spring election was elected a justice of the peace in Smithfield township, adjoining the Huntingdon county seat, and is now preparing to open his office.

James L. Decker is now occupying his new house on a part of the Decker farm, east of Centre Hall. He expects to erect a new barn this summer if he can secure the material and mechanics to do the work. This will be a valuable improvement in the Plum Grove school district.

The employment of an additional work train on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad has given rise to a current report that the Bald Eagle Valley division from Snow Shoe to Lock Haven is to be provided with a double track. The use of this division for the transfer of freight cars from the Pennsylvania Main Line to Northeastern Pennsylvania has greatly increased the traffic over it.

After a prolonged absence from Ferguson township, James C. Sample, of Blue Rapids, Kansas, made a trip east, and visited old friends about Pine Grove Mills. One of the surprises to Mr. Sample was the great growth of State College and the state institution. Before returning to Kansas he will visit Adam Bucher, at Altoona; his brother, Robert, at Uniontown, and his two sisters, Mrs. Frank Musser and Mrs. George Eaton, at Freeport, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher and daughter Sarah, of Penns Hall, were guests of James A. Keller, the latter part of last week, and while in town Mr. Fisher and daughter accompanied by Will Keller, called at the Reporter office. Mr. Fisher is greatly interested in the telephone movement in Gregg and Penn townships that just took definite shape. The lines will take the entire section of country between lower Georges Valley and Millheim, a section thickly populated.

Cheering words came from Chicago through Mrs. T. W. Grenoble, whose husband is a dealer in stones, spouting and roofing, who writes: "We have had a very prosperous year since you heard from me, and everything looks good for the future. The panic did not hurt us very much." Mrs. Grenoble, ne Eliza Smith, and her husband were natives of Gregg township, and no doubt it was the early frugal habits acquired that helped to put them into a position where a panic could do them no harm.

The New Bloomfield Times makes this reference to a daughter of Joseph Gilliland, formerly of Potters Mills: Miss Bertha V. Gilliland will become a member of the faculty of the New Bloomfield Academy for the spring term. The Academy is very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Gilliland. She is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, class of 1904, having taken the latin scientific course. Since her graduation she has taught in Williamsport high school one year and two and a half years in Porto Rico being very successful in each position.

Contracts have been awarded for the construction of two more pieces of state road in Centre county. The one will be in Milesburg borough, beginning at the bridge over Bald Eagle creek and connecting with the state road recently built from Bellefonte to Milesburg. The distance is 2699 feet and the contract was awarded to R. B. Taylor for $4,348.55. The other piece of road is in Rush township and extends from the Phillipsburg borough line east a distance of 5740 feet. The contract was awarded to King and Phillips, of Phillipsburg, their bid of $12,059.40 being the lowest.

Stop! Consider!

Do not go it blindly! Look before you leap! I have without question the largest and best assortment of furniture and carpets to be found in Penns or Brush Valleys, and at prices to meet all competition. All goods positively as represented. I do not say one thing and mean another. Our motto, "Honest goods at honest prices."

I invite you to my store and be convinced.

S. M. CAMPBELL,
Millheim.

Aaronsburg.

Prof. R. U. Wasson, assisted by W. C. Mingle, will open a term of school on Monday. It is hoped that all parents and others will send their boys and girls to school.

Miss Zertha Schesder, who is going to school at Mechanicsburg, is home for her Easter vacation.

John Albright and mother, of Penn Hall, visited his sister, Mrs. Thomas Stover, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Eby, of Lewis town, are the welcome guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Caroline Mayes.

George M. Stover and daughter, Tammie, and Miss Ardrens Harman spent Saturday with friends at Coburn.

Leroy Menesch spent a few days with friends at Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stover Sundayed with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shultz, at Spring Bank.

Prof. and Mrs. R. U. Wasson are spending their vacation with friends at Pleasant Gap and State College.

Mrs. W. S. Musser and daughter and Mrs. Menesch and daughter, of Millheim, were the guests of Mrs. J. H. Crouse, one day last week.

Mrs. Augusta Edmunds and daughter Lizzie were in town to bid their many friends farewell. Miss Lizzie will take her mother with her to her home at Hazleton.

Mr. Chester Wert, of Rebersburg, has been over at Luther Wert's to nurse their son, Gurney, who had been very sick, but at this writing he is improving.

Mrs. Raker and granddaughter, of Millburg, visited at the home of Wilmer Stover's a few days last week.

Mrs. Annie Gousewhite, of Feidler, was to see her father at the home of George Weaver's on Saturday.

Adam Hosterman, of Boalsburg, and Alfred Hosterman, of Centre Hill, spent a few days at the home of George Veavers.

Messrs. Paul Stover, Harry Acker, Walter Rupp and Merrill Isenhower sang a quartette at the Reformed missionary meeting on Sunday evening. It was highly appreciated by all who heard it.

Bert Taylor, who gave himself a very hyphenated title, made the riff. It remains to be seen whether the people of Centre county will oblige him to change this self-selected prefix to Honorable.

It is one thing to catch on but quite another thing to know when to let go.

Wanted: 50 Men and Women.

J. D. Murray, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific at hand you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

If you cannot call at Mr. Murry's store today, send him 25 cents by mail and he will send you a package, promptly charges paid.

Fertilizers and seeds.

We are now taking orders for all grades of fertilizers for spring crops. We can furnish all grades, and prices right.

We are also taking orders for all kinds of grass seed—common red clover, Wamsutt clover, alsike clover, timothy alfalfa.

WEBER BROTHERS, Centre Hall.

Georges Valley.

Willard Jamison bought a fine horse from his brother last week.

Mrs. M. J. Barger has been on the sick list for some time but is now slowly improving.

The K. L. C. E. society was organized Saturday evening. Much interest has been taken in the society by the young people to make it a success.

Miss Ella Decker left on Saturday to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Ella Williams.

Miss Jennie Decker is now at the home of her brother at Penn Hall. She will attend school at that place this spring.

James Reeder moved to his farm recently purchased from J. D. Long.

William Matter and Dolen Decker made a trip to Sugar Valley Friday. They left with a bay team and came home with gray.

Miss Lizzie Fostat was a guest at the home of James Fostat on Sunday.

Mr. Barger is putting a new roof on all the buildings on the Decker homestead.

Some fellows never enjoy a bottle to the full unless they empty it.

Have You one of Dr. Hess' Stock Books?

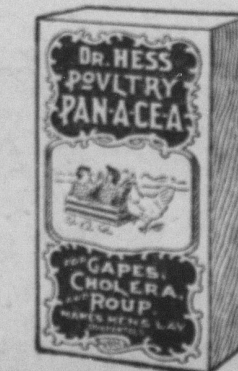

We mean that valuable little work so much mentioned in the farm papers. It contains cause, symptoms and most valuable treatment of nearly all the stock diseases. Over five millions of these books have been distributed among farmers and stockmen. We have one for you if you have not been supplied. This book was written by Dr. Hess (M. D., D. V. S.), the formulator of that famous prescription known as which produces health, flesh and milk, the ingredients of which are recommended by the veterinary colleges to do exactly what he claims for them. We sell it on a written guarantee. Small dose, fed twice instead of three times a day.

100 lbs. for $5.00. 25-lb. pail $1.60

Dr. Hess Poultry Pan-ace-a makes hens lay. Also relieves gapes, cholera, roup, indigestion. It makes young poultry grow fast, healthy and strong. We will refund the money if it fails.
