NO. 17.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS.

A daughter was recently born to Lawyer and Mrs. W. D. Zerby, of Bellefonte.

There was an unusually crisp air Thursday of last week. Otherwise it was a perfect day.

Miss Maude Sechrist went away to teach, the day following the closing of herschool at Centre Hall.

Prof. George Bible, of Philadelphia, will give an elocutionary entertainment in the Reformed church at Aaronsburg, Friday evening.

Mrs. Mary Wright bought the Dr. Smith home in Pine Grove Mills, and took possession Tuesday of last week. The purchase price was $700.

J. H. McCool, who this spring began farming the Kerr place which he bought a year or more ago, is having some improvements made on the interior of the dwelling house.

C. W. Swartz, the Tusseyville merchant, who does not count himself an expert with hook, line and rod, captured ten and one-half feet of trout on the false flag of "Protection to Ameri- the first half day of the trout season.

C. W. Fisher, the senior in the firm of J. B. Fisher's Sons, was in Centre Hall Saturday evening, and was accompanied by his niece, Miss Lola Ulrich, also of Penn Hall, and a stu-

Before leaving for Montrose, Colorado, the young friends of Emerson Wiser, of Millheim, gathered at his home for a "farewell." The young man will make his home with an uncle, J. C. Diehl, at the place named. The Bellefonte school board have made a precautionary move in case of fire by having all the doors on the various school houses reversed, to open out instead of in, so that in a rush and jam there will be no difficulty in the students getting out.
