For tares are arranged on the zone syatem. You pay for what you get. The main thing ts, what does the average rider pay? in 1905 it was 1.89 conso, while the average fare culirge percent pald but one cent, 60 percent but two cents, and only 10 percent of the total number carried pald more than the latter sum. All fares in exces of two cents might be abollshed and the earnings would hardly show it.
And the cost to the city for carrying the average passenger (not including interest chargss) was just unde: one cent in 1905. An examination of the earulngs and expenses shows that the Glasgow tramway could pay all operating expenses, could maintain the sybtem, could pay local caxes co same as it could do this and make money. On the basfs of last year's earnings it would make about 875,000 even it there was no increase in traffic. For the operating expenses and naintenaneo charge in 1905 were $$ 1,884,150$. If the $195,767,519$ expenses and maintenaneo charge in passengers carried had patd one cent each, the earntngs would have been | Cow Played a Tune.  Monday morning when Joe Dolley's hired man went to the barn he was surprised to hear the sound of mus- is in the cow stable. fio istened, anid plain and clear came the notes of "Old Zl p Coon." Thinking some drunken man was there, he opened the door and went in, but saw no one Somewhat trightoned, he looked around and discovered that the musto was coming from the old cow's month. That was too much, and ne | bolted for the house, telling Mirs. Dolley to come to the barn, ae the old cow was bewttehed. Inventigation showed that the lutte boy had drop ped his mouth organ in the stable the day before and the cow had tried to swallow it, but it had stuck in her throat and when she breathed she played "Oid Zip Coca."-Kennebec Journal.  The poor chlldren of Exeter, Eng land, are provided with breakfasts at school at a cost of a farthing. |
