

QUEEN OF ACTRESSES
PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE.
"I am glad to write my endorsement of the great remedy, Peru-na. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.
Any remedy that benefits digestion strengthens the nerves. The nerve centers require nutrition. If the digestion is impaired, the nerve centers become anemic, and nervous debility is the result.
Peru-na is not a nervous nor a stimulant. It benefits the nerves by benefiting digestion.
Peru-na frees the stomach of catarrhal congestions and normal digestion is the result.
In other words, Peru-na goes to the bottom of the whole difficulty, when the disagreeable symptoms disappear.
Mrs. J. C. Jamison, Wallace, Cal., writes:
"I was troubled with my stomach for six years. Was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months. I improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again.
I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peru-na, so I thought I would give it a trial.
I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken several bottles and am entirely cured."

How A Cat Caught Two Rats.
I once had a cat who did a rather remarkable ratting feat. He stalked two young rats on the eaves of a low, flat stable roof, and caught one in the usual way. The other jumped onto an elderberry tree just below.
Bob, however, not satisfied with the one, grasped it firmly in his mouth, and then jumped headlong for the other. Either he was very lucky or extraordinarily agile, for he fell to the ground with one rat still in his mouth and the other in his paws, and promptly killed them both.

Hicks' Capudine Cures Nervousness.
Whether tired out, worried, overworked, or what not. It refreshes the brain and nerves. It's liquid and pleasant to take. 10c., 25c., and 50c., at drug stores.

What flatters a man about being a cynic is the disagreeable things he expects always coming along.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, 25c. a bottle.

Georgia's Great Peach Crop.
"Down in my State," said Mr. M. R. Campbell, of Valdosta, Ga., "the owners of peach orchards are happy. The prospects of a good yield of peaches are fine, and one of our railroads expects to employ over 2,000 refrigerator cars this season, as against 950 last year. When I was a youngster nobody in Georgia ever thought of selling peaches. The farmer who had them gave them away to every passing traveler.
"Today Georgia has 18,000,000 peach trees planted, and the average worth of the crop to the State is about $8,000,000 annually. Our famous Elberta variety is eagerly bought in every big city of the nation, and the supply is never equal to the demand."—Baltimore American.

One of the Essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a vast fund of information as to the best methods of promoting health and happiness and right living and knowledge of the world's best products.

Products of actual excellence and reasonable claims truthfully presented and which have attained to world-wide acceptance through the approval of the Well-Informed of the World; not of individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting and obtaining the best the world affords.

One of the products of that class, of known component parts, an Ethical remedy, approved by physicians and commended by the Well-Informed of the World as a valuable and wholesome family laxative is the well-known Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

If afflicted with weak eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

No Place For Dogs.
Is it impossible in Japan to keep a good dog? I have twice had my dogs disappear in a seemingly miraculous way.
As I am well aware that there is a great demand for dogskins, especially those of young dogs, we have been careful in having our dog watched; nevertheless, he disappeared.

Almost every foreigner has lost a dog or dogs, and even a sea captain who was three days on shore had his dog poisoned the first day he put his feet on land.

NEWS OF PENNSYLVANIA

LOST ON MOUNTAIN.

Carlisle (Special).—George W. Bear, a well-known young farmer residing on the Walnut Bottom Road near Carlisle, returned after the seeming desertion of his family for two weeks.
Bear left his wife to drive to his father's home in Perry County, twelve days ago. Thursday his horse drew his buggy up to his home and his wife recognized her husband seated in the vehicle. Bear was dazed, as it afterwards was shown, from the effects of typhoid fever, with which he was quite ill. When he was revived he could hardly realize that he had been wandering through the mountains for eleven days. All that he could remember was that he had been lost in the mountains with his team wedged between two trees. How he lived can only be surmised, although attending physicians stated that on account of his illness with typhoid fever he would eat little or nothing. Some passerby must have found Bear and started him on his road, as his buggy contained a paper sack holding oats and bearing the name of a Franklin County grain dealer.

People throughout Cumberland County are at a loss to understand how Bear could have been lost in this thickly settled section, but the testimony of the physicians in positive evidence that his mind has been unbalanced for several weeks, and the fact that both horse and man have evidently done without food is additional corroboration.

SAVE WOMAN'S LIFE.
Scranton (Special).—Owen Murray leaped from his car going at full speed into the Lackawanna River to save a woman, Mary Boyle, who was carried away. A four-inch water pipe burst while she was walking on the bank of the river and she was sucked down by hundreds of gallons of water.

Murray saw her danger, grasped her skirts and he in turn was held fast by another man, who saw the accident, and a human chain was formed by other bystanders. With much difficulty Murray and the woman were dragged from the flood.

NAMES RAILROAD CLERKS.
Harrisburg (Special).—The State Railroad Commission announced five appointments, although none of the appointees were assigned to positions. The five are: R. C. Haderman, attorney, Bedford, and James C. Watson, attorney, Williamsport, who will probably be assigned as assistant attorneys; Verda S. Johnson, assistant station agent at Erie; Arthur R. Anwill, stenographer, Harrisburg; John G. Hopwood, Uniontown, who will probably be made a clerk.
These are the first appointments to be announced for some time, and the new men will assume their work in a short time.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.
West Chester (Special).—Papers have been filed here in a breach of promise suit of Miss Annie Mary Phillips, of East Nantmeal Township, against George L. Walters, of Phoenixville, for $10,000.
Miss Phillips is a daughter of O. Milton Phillips, well known in the northern part of the county. Mr. Walters is a son of Major Louis R. Walters, former United States Treasurer at Philadelphia, and a chemist in the United States Department of Agriculture. The case has been scheduled to come up at the October term of court.

NEW G. A. R. COMMANDER.
Erie (Special).—Patrick Delacy, of Scranton, was elected commander of the Pennsylvania Department, G. A. R., defeating John L. Grim, of Philadelphia, by a vote of 21 to 133. J. W. Sayres, of Reading, was re-elected chaplain unanimously, this being the thirty-seventh time he has held this office. Albert M. Smith, of Beaver Springs, was re-elected department medical director.

Gets $15,000 For Wife's Death.
Meadville (Special).—The jury in the case of Professor Robert S. Breed, of Allegheny College, against the Meadville Traction Company, awarded the plaintiff $15,000 damages for the death of his wife, who was one of several persons killed in the trolley car accident on College Hill, December 13, 1905.

Wildcat Attacks Man.
Canonsburg (Special).—In a desperate fight with a large wildcat, which attacked him, John Brady, a farmer, was probably fatally injured. The animal was shot.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.
Hiram Betcher and his son-in-law, Wilson Blew, miners at the Reliance Colliery, Mt. Carmel, were caught by a premature blast and seriously injured. The former had his right eye blown out.
Harry W. Rhodes has been elected president of the Media Title & Trust Company, to succeed the late George Drayton, who died at the age of 91 years. For years Mr. Rhodes was the secretary and treasurer of the company. He is the youngest bank president in the county.
John Queehey, a confessed perjurer, was sentenced at Wilkes-Barre to three and a half years imprisonment. His testimony, which he recently confessed, was manufactured, resulted in a verdict of $19,000 against the Wilkes-Barre & Wyoming Valley Traction Company.

DEFAULTING BANKER PLUNGED IN MINES.
Pittsburg (Special).—William Montgomery, former cashier of the Allegheny National Bank, has finally concluded to open up and tell of the bank's troubles, and to assist Receiver Robert Lyons in winding up the affairs of the bank. He has been approached repeatedly by friends that suffer by the bank's crash, and impetuously to disclose where the funds went but heretofore he has maintained a stolid indifference to the supplications of his closest friends.
Among these friends was Secretary of the Commonwealth Robert McAfee, who lost his fortune by Montgomery's crime. It was not until Receiver Lyons got after the cashier Thursday, however, that any information that would assist the receiver was obtained.
Owns 4,000,000 Shares.
The disclosures made to Lyons make Montgomery appear to have lost his reason entirely. He confessed to owning upwards of 4,000,000 shares of mining stocks, the present value of which nobody can estimate.
The mines in which Montgomery put the bank's money are scattered all along the Pacific Coast from Central America to Alaska. Montgomery seems to have had a mania for buying wildcat mining stocks at whatever price he could get them. He paid for some of the stocks as low as one cent a share, and others ran into hundreds of dollars.
Receiver Lyons, in a desperate effort to get some idea of Montgomery's methods that would help him, or give him a lead that would enable him to extricate the bank's affairs from the apparently hopeless tangle, put all the former clerks on the carpet, but they were ignorant of any receiver, that would be of value to the receiver.

Thursday Lyons went to the jail and saw Montgomery, and the tale Montgomery told startled even the receiver.
Represent Immense Losses.
While some of these mining securities may be of use in clearing up the affairs of the bank, it is said that many of them represent immense losses over the original prices. Montgomery, it now appears, carried on this speculation over a number of years, and it has been ascertained that his defalcations date back two years, when the value of mining stocks began to show a marked shrinkage.
To make good his losses, Montgomery found it necessary to seek assistance and as the bank of which he was managing head offered the best opportunity, the reason for his downfall is apparent.
Settle Many Notes.
As far as the work of settling up the bank's affairs have progressed, a large amount of collateral in the form of notes have been found. The people whose signatures were attached to them have been notified to settle, and this has been done to such an extent that the bank has now on hand $500,000 in cash.
Others are complying with the receiver's request almost daily. No statement has been made concerning these borrowers, since the Government seldom goes into details in matters of this kind. Whether it will be necessary to sue on some of the collateral in the bank has not been made known.
With the money on hand and what is believed will be collected almost the entire amount due the depositors can be paid without resorting to assessment of the stockholders, although such an assessment is inevitable.
Stockholders Will Lose.
The depositors will receive their money, but the stockholders will lose every cent of their stock.
The manner in which Montgomery talked of his transactions was a surprise to all who have followed his course since he was put in jail. Now that he has begun to talk it is expected that more will be forthcoming with the result that more of the funds heretofore undiscovered will be brought to light.

BIG CARP TOWS ROWBOAT.
Sellsgrove (Special).—After having been towed in a rowboat for half an hour by a big fish, two 12-year-old youths, Philip Fashold and William Wolf, of Shamokin Dam, succeeded in landing a twenty-four-pound carp.
The boys were fishing with hook and line in the Susquehanna River, near their home, four miles above here. Young Wolf had just cast his hook when a fierce tug on the line almost pulled him overboard. Both he and Fashold pulled with all their strength, but could not land the fish. Instead, their boat was carried up stream by the monster carp.
Finally Fashold got a sight of the fish as it rose to the surface and killed it with a bullet from his rifle.
Horsewhipped Too Ardent Wooer.
Pottsville (Special).—Because Augustus White, aged 60 years, was too persistent in thrusting his undesirable attentions upon Miss Hester Frantz, of St. Clair, aged 20 years, a pretty girl, she publicly horsewhipped him.
Captain A. J. Standing Dead.
Carlisle (Special).—Captain A. J. Standing, widely known as an Indian educator, and one of the founders of the Carlisle Indian School, died of paralysis at his home, at Dickinson College, aged 60 years. Captain Standing was for a long time assistant superintendent of the Carlisle Indian School. He was a native of England.

Alphabet In Bible Verse.
In the twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra can be found every letter of the English alphabet. It runs thus: "And I, even I, Artaxerxes, the King, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra, the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily."
But, still more wonderful, in the eighth verse of the third chapter of Zephaniah is contained every letter, including finals, of the Hebrew language.

FIVE MONTHS IN HOSPITAL.
Discharged Because Doctors Could Not Cure.
Levi P. Brockway, S. Second Ave., Anoka, Minn., says: "After lying for five months in a hospital I was discharged as incurable, and given only six months to live. My heart was affected, I had smothering spells and sometimes fell unconscious. I got so I couldn't use my arms, my eyesight was impaired and the kidney secretions were badly disordered. I was completely worn out and discouraged when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, but they went right to the cause of the trouble and did their work well. I have been feeling well ever since."

Animals That Earn Their Living.
The number and variety of four-footed creatures on the stage or in the circus and earning good salaries for their trainers is astonishing. Lions, tigers, elephants, bears, horses, clown mules, Shetland ponies who dance the lancers in sets, acrobatic dogs, horses that do fractions, and monkeys that accomplish some feats that require almost human intelligence and ability are legion. Good animal actors are always in demand, and the salaries they command are powerful incentives for trainers to rack their brains to hit upon some new and amusing act. It is not the clearest act that wins approval so much as the most original and amusing.
There are two universal rules among animal trainers. The first is to become familiar with the animals and to know his temperament and to make friends with him. The next thing is to make the animal understand thoroughly what it is that you want him to do and to make him do it. The animal must be made to feel that the man is his superior; then unremitting labor and infinite patience are required if a successful result is to be obtained.—Harriet Quimby, in Leslie's Weekly.

Wife Dumb, Has To Listen.
Arriving at the conclusion that his wife could and did talk enough for both of them, Isaac Hollar, after a quarrel with her, fifteen years ago, vowed never to speak to her again, so for that length of time kept silent.
He was moved to change his mind a few days ago only after a distressing accident had happened to his wife. While she was in an excited frame of mind and was engaged in reminding him of his shortcomings, her tongue suddenly became paralyzed, so that in a second she became speechless.
Mr. Hollar at first could not believe it was true; it seemed too good. Then, when he saw that there was no chance of a come-back he addressed a few remarks to Mrs. Hollar. He rose to heights of oratory and in an impassioned manner he made up for all the golden opportunities he had neglected. All his wife could do was to make motions.—N. Y. World.

Kissed The Pup Good-By.
Persons who went down to see the American liner Philadelphia sail for Southampton witnessed this scene on the pier:
A man wearing a long raincoat, accompanied by a handsome woman, arrived carrying a shaggy-haired yellow dog. As the pair neared the gangplank the man turned, and kissing the dog on the muzzle, handed it to the woman, the while addressing it:
"Now, baby, take good care of mamma and be good to her until I get back."
Then he turned, and kissing the woman good-bye, boarded the ship.
There was no cheering.—N. Y. Times.

BUILT UP
Right Food Gives Strength and Brain Power.
The natural elements of wheat and barley, including the phosphate of potash, are found in Grape-Nuts, and that is why persons who are run down from improper food pick up rapidly on Grape-Nuts.
"My system was run down by excessive night work," writes a N. Y. man, "in spite of a liberal supply of ordinary food."
"After using Grape-Nuts I noticed improvements at once in strength and nerve and brain power."
"This food seemed to lift me up and stay with me for better exertion, with less fatigue. My weight increased 20 lbs. with vigor and comfort in proportion."
"When traveling I always carry the food with me to insure having it."
