

DEATHS.

BEULAH ANNA FRANK.

In the bright young girlhood of her life, Beulah Anna, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Frank, of Centre Hill, stepped across the brink that divides this life from the brightness and glory of the home beyond.

She was of a friendly and forgiving disposition, loved by all her schoolmates and those with whom she mingled. Her death was due to tonsillitis and an abscess. She was ill but a few days, when on the afternoon of June 10, "Gods finger touched her and she slept", making her fourteen years and one week old.

The funeral services were held the morning of June 13 conducted by Rev. Sechrist. Interment in Mount Zion cemetery. She leaves to mourn her early departure, her parents and three sisters, namely Mrs. Charles Duck, Mrs. Wilmor E. Lee and Mrs. Claude Wert.

The floral tributes were numerous and handsome, consisting of a pillow of leaves bordered with roses and containing the word "sister" formed with pink, a wreath of philadelphus, several wreaths of roses and large bouquets of peonies with many other beautiful tokens from friends of the deceased.

"A light is out, a jewel gone, A crown of life in heaven is won; The master comes to claim his own, To live with angels, 'round his throne."

MRS. JOHN RISHEL.

Sara, wife of John Rishel, of Benner township, died at her home at Axe Mann Saturday evening. Mrs. Rishel was taken ill last August with cancer of the stomach and since that time has been a sufferer from that terrible affliction. Her condition grew worse from time to time and on Saturday evening about 7 o'clock she passed away, says the Daily News.

Mrs. Rishel was a daughter of John and Susanna Hoy and was born at Jacksonville, this county, February 29, 1883, making her a little over seventy-five years of age. For the past fifty-five years she had resided in Benner township where her husband was engaged in farming. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, a devoted and loving mother and her friendship included all who knew her.

Her husband survives her and three children mourn the loss of their mother. They are Dr. G. P. Rishel, of Philadelphia; Alfred Rishel, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Ellen Stover, of Axe Mann. The following brothers and sisters also survive; Hezekiah Hoy, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Samuel Fravel, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Annie Corman, of Zion; Mrs. Mary Miller, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. John Houser, of Centre Hall.

Funeral services were held from the home Tuesday morning. Rev. James B. Stein officiated, and was assisted by Rev. John Hewitt. Interment was made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

MRS. REBECCA HENNIGH.

At the age of almost ninety years, Mrs. Rebecca Hennigh, widow of Charles Hennigh died at Penn Hall Thursday of last week, and was buried in the Heckman cemetery Saturday. She is survived by two sons—David, at Penn Hall, and Cornelius, of Memphis, Tennessee, and one daughter, Mary, wife of James Rodman, of Clinton, Iowa.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, pastor of the Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a member.

W. A. Kerlin died at his home in Rudd, Floyd county, Iowa. Deceased was a native of Centre county, and a miller by occupation. In his early life he worked in the Allison mill at Spring Mills. He went west in 1882 and has since lived at Rudd. While in this county he was united in marriage to Rebecca Musser, who survives him with the following children; Mrs. Thomas Gramley, Altoona; Mrs. Ryman, Punksutawney; Mrs. Smith, Rudd, Iowa; David, living on a farm near Rudd; Charles and Clayton, in the west.

Mrs. Ellen Davis died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Williams, in Bellefonte, aged fifty-six years. Surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Harry Williams and Mrs. Jacob Bartlett, Bellefonte; Mrs. Philip Labe, William and Fred, of Altoona. She also leaves one brother, John Davis, of Coleville, and two sisters, Mrs. Lyde Griswold, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Annie Yeager, of DuBois.

Mrs. Hettie Sanders, widow of the late Thomas Sanders, was found dead in bed at her home in Howard. She was aged about sixty-eight years, and is survived by three sons—Floyd, Earl and Jonathan—all of Johnstown.

Menon Amelia Benner, daughter of T. K. and Mary A. Benner, died at her parents home at Woodward, of dropsy, aged 13 years, 7 months and 22 days.

DEATHS.

MRS. R. M. SMITH.

A sad death occurred at Centre Hill Wednesday morning when the wife of Robert M. Smith died after an illness of but a few days. Wednesday afternoon previous to her death she began feeling badly, but little attention was paid to her pain, because it was thought to be of a trifling nature. Sunday a physician was called and immediately every effort was made to stay the disease, which proved to be diphtheria. Antitoxin was used and there was hope entertained for her recovery, until Tuesday afternoon when her heart, which had been weak for some time, began giving way. The trained nurse, Miss Peck, of Look Haven, and her physician did all possible to combat this additional ailment, but to no avail.

Interment was made at Sprucetown, Wednesday afternoon. Religious services will be held at some future time. Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Laura M. Evans, leaves to mourn her loss, a husband and seven children, namely: Helen, Charles B., Anna J., Willard, Evans, Hugh and Daniel. Three sisters, Mrs. G. L. Goodhart, Mrs. Daniel Daup and Mrs. James B. Strohm, all of Centre Hall, and one brother, Robert D. Evans, of Onaway, Michigan, survive.

The deceased was aged forty-two years and five months. Mary Jane Hotter, widow of the late A. L. Hotter, died at her home in Howard. Her age was seventy-three years, and she was born in Liberty township.

Mrs. Emma Tate Gray died at her late residence in Newark, N. J., and was buried in Gray's cemetery. Half-moon valley.

Harris Township.

Mrs. George Fisher and son Harold are visiting in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Alice Magoffin spent a few days in Pine Grove.

Hiram Thompson and daughter, Miss Sophia, from College township, spent Saturday in Boalsburg.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. I. Reed spent Saturday with the Reed family at Pine Grove Mills.

Miss Mary Corl is spending some time at the home of William Glenn, in Ferguson township.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Meyer visited at Aaronburg from Saturday until Monday.

Miss Nora M. Miller spent Sunday at State College, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Woomey.

As usual quite a number of Boalsburg people attended the commencement exercises at State.

Silas Giboney, of Saalsburg, visited his daughter, Mrs. L. E. Kidder, for a few days during the past week.

Will Fisher and family, of Sunbury, visited at the Fisher home over Sunday.

Dr. L. E. Kidder spent several days among relatives in Stone Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings, of Bellefonte, were visitors at the home of J. F. Kimport.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heberling and Mr. and Mrs. David Miller, of Pine Grove Mills, visited in this place last week.

Miss Rebecca Brouse, a daughter of Rev. David Young Brouse, of Newton Hamilton, visited relatives in Boalsburg and Pine Grove Mills.

Calvin Stamm returned on Friday from near Phoenixville where he had been engaged on a stock farm during the past three months.

S. P. Wagner Friday returned from the sanitarium at White Haven, and apparently is greatly improved in health.

The loveliest spot in this locality at present is Ira Rishel's strawberry patch; all orders for strawberries are promptly filled.

J. F. Ziegler, of Altoona, spent a short time in this vicinity. He may have come here for a cool retreat, but instead he met with a warm reception.

Rev. C. F. Houtz, professor of mathematics at Susquehanna University, with his son John, attended the commencement exercises at State. At the opening of the fall term the junior Mr. Houtz will become a student there. Part of their stay here was with Adam Felty.

Maurice Woods and sister Marlon, of New London, Ohio, are spending their vacation days with friends in Centre county—Marlon with her grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Woods, in Boalsburg, and Maurice with his great aunt, Miss Mary Woods, at Spring Mills. Their mother, Mrs. Frank Woods, accompanied them, and tarried here for a short time. She is engaged as an inspectress in a regalia factory in New London.

A gentleman representing the state board of health arrived in Centre Hill Wednesday and from here went to the homes of Robert M. Smith and P. C. Frank, at Centre Hill, to see that their dwellings were properly fumigated and other board of health regulations carried out.

The ceiling decorator, as well as the hairdresser, is apt to overdo things.

It is possible to secure inside information without performing an autopsy.

The building of concrete walks will be the order of the day for the next week or more. Wednesday morning Messrs. C. C. Bierly and J. W. Bright, of Rebersburg, began the construction of 200 feet of walk along the residence of D. W. Bradford, and after that is completed, H. C. Shirk and a number of others will begin constructing the same kind of walks. The young men referred to have had considerable experience in concrete construction, and are doing the best kind of work.

Marriage Licenses.

John H. Knarr, Centre Hall
Fannie Jane Meeker, Centre Hall
William McClenahan, Centre Hall
Elsie Stover, Centre Hall
James C. Rager, Milesburg
Edna G. Grubb, Milesburg
Cletus Leroy Goodling, State College
Mary N. Park, State College
Robert G. Bullock, Franklinville
Lillian B. Gates, Gatesburg
John N. Thompson, Fleming
Myra Lannen, Wingate
Thomas H. Mann, Williamsport
Edna J. Munroe, Look Haven
Truman M. Bodeau, Phillipsburg
Edna K. Williams, Phillipsburg
James J. Glenn, State College
Lutitia S. Goodhart, Centre Hall

Keller-Eddleman.

At the residence of the bride in China Grove, North Carolina, the marriage of Rev. John H. Keller, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., and Miss Lillie Eddleman, was solemnized, on 10th instant. The newly married couple are now on their honeymoon trip, having arrived at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Saturday. They will remain north for about three weeks.

Rev. Keller is a son of James A. Keller, east of Centre Hall, and has been in the south since graduating from the Reformed Seminary at Lancaster, several years ago. He is engaged in both teaching and preaching.

Children's Day Services Postponed.

The Children's Day services announced for Sprucetown, have been indefinitely postponed, on account of the death of Mrs. Robert Smith.

LOCALS.

For a moment's reflection: Centre Hall is without a board of health.

Many a man prides himself upon his superior judgment who is merely a good guesser.

Mrs. Jacob Goss, of Winbourne, mother of Mrs. George A. Young, is visiting that lady at present.

Fred W. Krumrine, west of State College, is ill of typhoid fever. He is a cousin of F. K. Carter, in this place.

Miss Levina Smith, accompanied by a niece, of Lamar, were guests of Peter Smith, at Centre Hill, last week.

As is usually the case, Cashier W. B. Mingle is just a bit the earliest gardener, and now has new potatoes and peas.

Merchant H. F. Rossman, of Spring Mills, accompanied by his sons, R. Roy and Pealer, were in Centre Hall Wednesday.

Mrs. Laura Bricker, who for several years lived in Tyrone, has again returned to Boalsburg, where she will make her future home.

The members of the Georges Valley Lutheran Sunday School will observe Children's Day by holding appropriate exercises Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mingle, of Centre Hall, Wednesday went to Union and Snyder counties, where they will visit relatives of the latter for several days.

A number of young people in and about Centre Hall are taking a correspondence course in the International Correspondence School, at Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace White, of Axe Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Reish, of Zion, Sunday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Homan, east of Centre Hall.

Miss Margaret Knox, of Cherokee, Iowa, is visiting relatives in this community. Miss Knox is a niece of Mrs. Bruce Lingle, of Cherokee, and is much pleased with her trip through the east.

Monday the eighty-second milestone was passed by J. D. Murray, the druggist. For fifty-seven years he has been a continuous resident of Centre Hall, making him the senior of all citizens in the borough.

Misses Anne McCoy and Kate Shugart, of Bellefonte, visited the former's aunt, Mrs. Lillian Alexander, over Sunday. These young ladies will make a tour of Europe this summer, sailing from New York the latter part of this month.

John Rossman is having his house repainted, the color being white. The appearance of the building is very much improved, and when the contemplated porch is erected, Mr. and Mrs. Rossman will have one of the prettiest homes in the town.

Messrs. Samuel Goodhart, of Johnstown, and Hugh Goodhart, of Lewistown, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Mary J. Goodhart, in Centre Hall. The latter Mr. Goodhart is a son of James Goodhart, of Lewistown, and is a student at Pennsylvania State College.

The building of concrete walks will be the order of the day for the next week or more. Wednesday morning Messrs. C. C. Bierly and J. W. Bright, of Rebersburg, began the construction of 200 feet of walk along the residence of D. W. Bradford, and after that is completed, H. C. Shirk and a number of others will begin constructing the same kind of walks. The young men referred to have had considerable experience in concrete construction, and are doing the best kind of work.

Wedding To-night.

The marriage of Rev. James T. Glenn and Miss Lutitia Goodhart will be solemnized this (Thursday) evening at eight o'clock in the Presbyterian church, Dr. W. H. Schuyler officiating. Rev. Glenn is the pastor of a Presbyterian charge at Dickinson.

Children's Day Services.

Children's Day services will be held in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. S. R. Wolfe is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Keller.

After a consultation between several doctors it was found necessary to send Charles Weaver to the hospital for treatment for appendicitis, and Monday morning his brother-in-law Frank Bowersox, who is studying medicine at Jefferson College, accompanied him to Philadelphia, where he entered the Jefferson hospital.

Mrs. Lee Brooks is visiting relatives at Axe Mann.

Friends to the number of forty gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl, to help celebrate Mr. Diehl's thirtieth anniversary. Choice refreshments were served, consisting of lemonade, ice cream, cake, etc., and all had a very good time. Mr. Diehl was the recipient of a number of handsome presents.

Quite a number of young people from this section attended commencement at State College this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks spent Sunday with Mrs. Barnes, at Pleasant Gap.

Cloyd Brooks is wearing a broad smile since the arrival of a little sister to play with Stanley.

Mrs. Rosa Wieland and daughters, Grace and Dorothy, spent Thursday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Miller came from Pine Grove Mills, Friday to spend the day with friends.

Miss Helen Weaver, of Lemont, was a visitor at the home of Bertha Meyer over Sunday.

Kelley's big touring car with ten ladies from Tyrone, Baileyville, and Grayville, stopped here for a short time on their return from a trip to Penns Cave. Among those in the car were Mrs. Archey, from Plymouth, Mrs. John Reynolds, Mrs. Bathurst, Mrs. Jennie Irvin, Mrs. Alice Irvin, Mrs. Isenberg, Mrs. Maggie Gates, and Mrs. Anna Kocher.

Fred Brown has taken Merrill Miller's place in the railroad office at this place.

Mrs. Geiss Wagner was kicked on the shoulder by a horse one day last week.

Georges Valley.

Edward and Calvin Lingle, of this place, have taken the contract of cutting timber for A. C. Confer, who has bought near Lemont.

Fred Zettle and family spent Sunday with James Reeder.

Last week the class of the Locust Grove met to repair their church this summer.

Among those on the sick list are, Mrs. Fred Zettle and Mr. Jonas Confer. John Harter, who is a painter by trade, came home Saturday to visit his grandparents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Foust spent a very pleasant Sunday among friends at this place.

Sunday School was largely attended Sunday.

One of four children of Charles Lytle, east of Pine Grove Mills, is ill of scarlet fever.

DOG ASTRAY—A female bird dog, white and liver colored, with leather collar around neck to which a snap is attached. For further information apply to Reporter office.

Like Finding Money.

J. D. Murray, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money for he is selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half-price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently, through the solicitation of Druggist Murray that this medicine can be bought for less than fifty cents, he urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all of these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, Mr. Murray will return your money.

The specific is very pleasant to take, coming in the form of small granules, and there are sixty doses in every package.

Perhaps the ocean gets angry because it is so often crossed.

Most of us have to sprint to keep up with our running expenses.

Flattery is the best motive power when you have an ax to grind.

A Memory Test.

A professor of mnemonics had gone to lecture at or near Canterbury. After the lecture was finished he had to wait for his London train. It was a most comfortable day, and he retired to an inn for shelter and refreshment. To pass the time he began to exhibit his feats of memory to the yokels in the inn parlor, and one and all were thunderstruck except the waiter. There is always one skeptic in every communion, whether of saints or sinners. Do what he would he could not mitigate the acid smile of acid incredulity of that glorified potman in the midst of one of his most difficult feats the whistle sounded of the "Only train to London tonight!" and he rushed off to catch it. He caught it at the station, and his reputation caught it in the inn parlor, for the waiter, coming in with some ordered refreshments and finding him gone, pointed to the corner where he had been sitting and exclaimed, "Silly 'umbug, he's forgot his umbrella!"—Young Man.

Juvenile Natural History. "Papa," said Harry, infant phenomenon, aged nine, "will you give me my pocket money in advance? I want to buy a book on moths."

"Certainly, my boy," said the retired colonel. "Here's a shilling for you. I am delighted that you should take such an interest in natural history."

"That evening all the old colonel's best friends came to dinner."

"Now is my opportunity," reflected the proud parent, "to show these people what a clever boy my son is. I shall have him in at dessert time!"

So Harry came in with the pears and pineapple, and in loud tones the gallant colonel remarked:

"Well, Harry, did you get your book on moths?"

"Yes, papa," answered his son.

"And what is it called?" pursued the delighted father.

"Oh," said the unsuspecting phenomenon, "it is entitled 'Hints to Young Mothers!'"—London Answers.

Hiding His Ignorance. An official of the department of justice said in Washington of a rumor brought to him for confirmation by a reporter:

"This rumor springs from ignorance, crass ignorance of the law. I am surprised that you should have credited it."

"The originator of that rumor is as plainly ignorant of the law as a certain schoolboy was of French."

"This boy's father said to him (one night at dinner):

"Well, how are you getting on with your French, my son?"

"Very well, thank you, sir," the lad replied.

"The father beamed with pleasure. 'Ask politely in French for some peas,' he said.

"There was an awkward pause. Then—

"But, father," said the boy, 'I don't want any peas!'"

Meeting Old Neptune. An inmate of Sailors' Snug Harbor in speaking of the ceremony connected with "crossing the line," when Father Neptune presides over the initiation of the men who have never crossed the equator, said:

"I got my introduction to old Neptune while I was in the merchant service. I got my lather and shave and docking thirty years ago and helped initiate many seafaring men and landsmen since then. With hot tar handy, Neptune's crew often took liberties which would not be allowed on board a man-of-war. The skipper used to look on from aloft, but he was blind as a bat to things that he did not wish to see, and the men knew enough to make no complaint. I know that I was mad clear through at what I got, but I contented myself with taking it out of the next man."

Not Up to Date. The evidence had shown that the brick which a careless workman had dropped from a scaffolding twenty feet above the surface of the ground had fallen on a man's shoulder and broken a bone, but the jury decided that the victim had no cause of action. The falling of the brick had no necessary connection with the accident.

"Gentlemen," said the judge, "I never heard of such a verdict. You utterly ignore the existence of the law of gravitation."

"That law, your honor," answered the foreman of the jury, "is so old that we decided not to consider it. It's obsolete."—Chicago Tribune.

The Brightness He Saw. A man who died recently in the north of England and had been living a dishonest life under the cloak of religion, wishing to pose as a good man to the last, said to those around him:

"All is bright before me!"

"Aye," said one of those present, whom he had swindled out of a sum of money, "an' in about ten minutes theau'll be near enoof to see th' blazes!"—Manchester Guardian.

Poor Critter! "I hear that your husband is critically ill, Mrs. Tiff?" said Mr. Gummy.

"Yes, he is. He criticises the doctor, and he criticises the nurse, and he criticises me. Oh, he's critically ill, all right!"—Judge.

Poor Soldier. Bill—It is said that Alexander the Great when on a campaign ate the rations of a common soldier. Jill—And did the poor soldier get nothing?—Yonkers Statesman.

Encouragement. Jack—I am afraid that if I ask you to be my wife you will treat my proposal as a joke. Molly—But all jokes are not rejected, Jack.

Centre Reporter, $1.00 per year.

GRAIN MARKET. Table with columns for Rye, Barley, Wheat, Oats, Corn and their respective prices.

PRODUCE AT STORES. Table with columns for Lard, Potatoes, Butter, Eggs and their respective prices.

Ayer's Fine Care Fine Hair advertisement. Text describing the benefits of Ayer's Hair Vigor for hair care and dandruff.

W. A. Henney advertisement. Text advertising blacksmithing services, including tire setting and satisfaction guarantees.

H. F. ROSSMAN advertisement. Text advertising furniture and furnishings, including ladies' underwear and gentlemen's goods.

STEVENS advertisement. Text advertising rifles, shotguns, and pistols, including a coupon for a catalog.