

DEATHS.

DAVID ODKERK.

A sad death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner W. Alexander, near Old Fort, Wednesday night, at which time death claimed the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Odenkirk, of Burnham. Interment was made in Centre Hall the following afternoon. No services.

The boy, ten or eleven years of age, with two sisters, came to Centre Hall the last week in June, the little girls remaining with their grandmother, and the boy went to the country to stay with his aunt. He complained of not feeling well, and several days later, Thursday, 2nd inst., Dr. Lee was called, and in a few hours constipation was held with Dr. Kidder, and the disease was diagnosed as well developed case of diphtheria. The same night antitoxin was administered, and the result seemed satisfactory, but finally the heart gave away.

From all accounts the boy had been exposed to the disease before coming to Centre Hall.

JOHN OCKER.

Thursday night, 2nd inst., at his home in Rebersburg, John Ocker passed from life into eternity, aged sixty-seven years. Interment was made Sunday morning, in the Evangelical cemetery, Rebersburg, the funeral being conducted by Rev. E. E. Haney, pastor of the Evangelical Association, and the local lodge of Odd Fellows, who to the number of some eighty attended the services.

The deceased was a saddler by trade and lived in Rebersburg for many years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sara Love, and five children, namely: Forest Ocker, Merrillburg; Mrs. Edward Neuhoff, Pittsburg; Mrs. Dorcas Haugh, Pittsburg; Mrs. Anna Ruhl, Merrillburg; Miss Maude, at home; also one brother, Andrew Ocker, Madisonburg.

MRS. MARY ANN LOVE.

Mrs. Mary Ann Love, widow of the late Thomas Love, died in Pittsburg as the result of a complication of diseases. The remains were brought to Bellefonte and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Mrs. Love was born at Warriorsburg, February 24th, 1839, and was sixty-nine years old on her last birthday. She had been a resident of Hubersburg, but went to visit her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Seibert, at Wilkinsburg last September. She was a member of the Reformed church.

The following children mourn the loss of their mother: Mrs. R. H. Seibert, Wilkinsburg; D. F. Love, Pittsburg; John, Altoona; Mary, and Annie, Homewood; Mrs. Jennie Verner, Chicago, and James, Cleveland, Ohio.

ISAAC LONG.

Isaac Long, a prominent resident of Gregg township, died on the Kline farm, now owned by F. M. Fisher, two and one-half miles west of Madisonburg, Thursday morning, 2nd inst., aged seventy-six years. Interment was made in the Union cemetery, Farmers Mills, Sunday morning, the services being conducted by Rev. Wetzell, of the Reformed church, at Rebersburg. The deceased lived at the place where he died for seventeen years, and was the father of twelve children, nine of whom together with the mother surviving. The children are: John, Pleasant Gap; Frank, Woodward; George, Samuel, Harvey, and Miss Catherine, at home; Lena, wife of Charles Weaver; Sadie, wife of William Rachau; and Maggie, wife of Manno Gentzell, all of near Penns Cave.

MRS. SARAH CAMPBELL.

Mrs. Sara Campbell, a sister of Mrs. C. P. W. Fisher, of Zion, died in Philadelphia Friday evening, following an operation. She was the widow of the late George Campbell and formerly resided at Milesburg. Her age was about fifty-five years, and she is survived by three daughters and two sons. The remains were brought to Bellefonte for burial.

ABRAM R. MCCULLOM.

Abram R. McCullom, a native of Glasgow, Scotland, but who in early life came to the States, died at State College. For many years he resided in Milesburg, and served in the Civil war. His wife, nee Miss Mary McKinly, survives.

JAMES HERMAN JORDAN.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, of Colyer, were called upon to mourn the death of their infant son, aged almost three weeks. Death occurred Saturday, and interment was made Sunday afternoon, at Zion Hill.

A drive from Bellefonte to Centre Hall is a pleasure often enjoyed by people from the former place, and was indulged in by Misses Beulah Dale and Grace Witmer, Sunday. While in town they were guests of Miss Dora Meyer.

Miss Maude Eungard, daughter of Emanuel Eungard, of near Penns Cave, is improving somewhat. She had been seriously ill for a week from inflammation of the bowels.

BUSINESS MEN'S PICNIC.

Executive Committee Met at Brokerhoff house to Fix Date—August 18th.

The executive committee of the Business Men's Picnic Association of Centre and Clinton Counties met at the Brokerhoff house, Bellefonte, Tuesday evening. The most important item of business transacted was the fixing of the date for the annual picnic at Hecla Park, Tuesday, August 18th. Capt. A. C. Mingle, the admirable president, after the routine business had been transacted, called for the election of officers, which resulted in electing the following persons:

E. K. Smull, Mackeyville, President
C. E. Montgomery, Bellefonte, Vice President
G. W. Fredericks, Lock Haven, Treasurer
J. C. Meyer, Bellefonte, Secretary.

Clinton county sent up almost its full quota of twenty members, and Centre was represented by but a few less, the Centre Hall representative, W. Gross Mingle, being among the absentees. The press, both in Centre and Clinton counties, was also represented and entertained by the association.

There was a good feeling manifested by the representative business men, and all were enthusiastic and determined to make the 1908 picnic even more successful than any heretofore held. The success attained in this line demonstrates the force of united action and indicates that the body, if so inclined, might accomplish great good for the business interests of the two counties in other ways.

The next meeting of the executive committee will be held in Lock Haven, at the Irvin House, 30th inst. After this action the body and its guests repaired to the dining room where an elaborate dinner was served. The members present were:

- | Clinton county | |
|------------------|------------------|
| T. J. Smull | G. W. Fredericks |
| G. W. Mason | G. W. McDonald |
| Torrence Shearer | C. F. Brown |
| P. F. Bittman | Philip S. Kirt |
| D. H. Steiner | A. L. Merrill |
| Frank E. Harder | D. I. McNeil |
| R. H. Stewart | W. H. Stevenson |
| Joel R. Herr | J. R. Thompson |
| Centre county | |
| A. C. Mingle | J. C. Meyer |
| J. W. Conley | J. D. Saurbeck |
| F. E. Nagney | D. G. Stuart |
| H. Otto | Robert Cole |
| C. F. Montgomery | John M. Bullock |
| H. P. Harris | E. C. Tuten |
| T. B. Buddinger | M. D. Kelley |
| H. S. Benson | |

The Juniors Win.

The Centre Hall Junior base ball team won a signal victory—7 to 3—over the Rebersburg team. It was an interesting game throughout, and one which the spectators thoroughly enjoyed. The leading of the score was all the more creditable on account of the great excess in avoidpools on the part of the visitors, as well as being more mature in years. The game was well played on both sides, and the home battery did superior work.

Marriage Licenses.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Alfred Clayton Ebert, Spring Mills | Virgie Snyder, Spring Mills |
| Floyd E. Bressler, Rebersburg | Bertha Bowersox, Wolfe Store |
| Wilbur Hale Gumpfer, Phillipsburg | Mary E. Hurley, Phillipsburg |
| Joseph Bottomfield, Bellefonte | Sarah McTigue, Phillipsburg |
| Joseph W. Stalmer, Port Matilda | Flo E. McCulley, Port Matilda |
| Artimus Clay Bower, Coburn | Maude E. Auman, Coburn |
| Roy R. Crust, State College | Ruth Viola Stine, Buffalo Run |

Flickinger-Acker.

Friday, June 26th, twelve o'clock noon, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Acker, of Aaronburg, when their daughter, Miss Cordelia, was married to Charles David Flickinger, formerly of Newport. Rev. Donat, pastor of the Reformed church, was the officiating clergyman. The ring ceremony was used in uniting the two hearts as one. There were no attendants other than the families of the bride and groom. The wedding march from Lohengrin was rendered by Miss Mildred Acker, a sister of the bride.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white embroidery silk chiffon over taffeta. The young lady is a fine musician, and is eminently fitted to make the life of him whom she has chosen for a husband a happy one. She was one of Centre county's most efficient school teachers, having taught the last four winters at State College.

The groom is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College, having taken first honors in the class of 1906. He is a mechanical engineer and has a splendid position with the Raymond Lead Company, Chicago, Illinois, and is a young man of sterling worth.

The young couple left Coburn on the afternoon train west, amid showers of rice and confetti. May they have a happy and prosperous journey through life.

LOCALS.

Sim, the Clothier, advertises in this issue.

Festival in Grange Arcadia Saturday evening.

Miss Velma Simkins, who has just completed a course at the Philadelphia School of Industrial Art, has joined her mother and aunt at the manse, thus completing a very happy circle.

Spring Mills.

Miss Marion Woods, of New London, Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Miss Mary Woods, in this place.

Quite a number of people from this place expect to attend the show in Bellefonte on Friday.

Clair Allison spent a few days at Howard last week.

John Snavely lost a valuable horse one day last week.

Jerry Shunk and daughter Anna spent a week in Mifflin county.

Miss Bessie Grove visited friends at State College Thursday.

Joseph Palmer and family, of Lewisburg, spent Saturday at the home of C. E. Rogers.

Mrs. Susan Fichtorn returned to her home in Derry last week.

The 4th was celebrated in the usual style without any special demonstrations, with the exception of a few fire crackers and balloon ascensions.

Mrs. Joe Palmer, of Lewisburg, was a Spring Mills visitor last week.

The female members of the Luther League Wednesday evening gave Mr. and Mrs. William Graden a donation. As Mrs. Graden has been sick for some time, we commend these ladies for their charitable act and good example set for similar institutions to follow.

Mrs. Maggie Donachy and son Benjamin, of Lewisburg, have come to spend the summer at the home of M. B. Herring.

George W. Gentzel returned from an extended trip to Pittsburg, where he assisted his brother in prospecting for mineral oil.

H. G. Rumberger, from Elk City, Oklahoma, paid a visit to his friend and school chum, Boyd S. Auman, one day last week.

Messrs. Irvin Herry and Harry Greninger, and Misses Jennie Emmert and Cora Frazier, of Mill Hill, spent the Fourth at the home of C. E. Ziegler.

Grover C. Gentzel, of Altoona, spent the Fourth at his parental home. Miss Grace Weaver, of State College, arrived in town to spend some time at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Meyer.

Bruce Gramley and sister, Miss Orpha spent Sunday at Rebersburg.

George N. Wolfe, last week bought the Kate Frederick property in town. Ambrose Gentzel, of Shamokin, was a visitor in Spring Mills over Sunday.

T. M. Gramley and wife, last Tuesday returned from a trip to Philadelphia.

The different committees of the Academy reunion are putting forth every effort to make this reunion a grand success.

Mrs. Rachael Condo spent last week visiting friends in Sugar Valley.

A. C. Dunlap bought a fine driving horse at State College, last week.

Rev. Charles T. Aikens, D. D., of Selinsgrove, preached a very eloquent and instructive sermon in the Lutheran church Sunday evening.

Owing to ill health, Miss Cora Brungart, of Centre Hall, resigned the primary school. Miss Needa Royer, of Rebersburg, will take her place.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Chester Stover returned home from a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. Meyer, at Spring Mills. Her granddaughter, Miss Rebecca Moyer, accompanied her.

Mrs. Lillian Baker is visiting among friends and relatives here.

Samuel Shaffer left last Monday for York where he will spend some time among his relatives.

Levi Fulmer spent last Sunday at Lewisburg.

George Wetzel visited his parents last Saturday and Sunday.

George Gulewite, of Aaronburg, was in town last week on business.

Rev. William Sholl and wife are visiting among their relatives here.

Harry Sowers and family, of State College, were guests of Mrs. Sower's mother, Mrs. Jessie Wert.

Reuben Smull, who has been alling for some time, is now confined to his bed from dropsy with no hopes of recovery.

Miss Ray McCool, of Spring Mills, is visiting her brother Harry, in town. Thursday, while Noah Brungart and family were picking huckleberries in the narrows, east of this place, the horse tore loose, and although Mr. Brungart with a number of other men have searched the mountain thoroughly, the animal could not be found.

Reunion Notice.

The organization finds it almost impossible to get all the names and addresses of the boys and girls who attended this Academy, and takes this means to invite all who ever attended the Academy. Do not wait for special printed invitations, but consider this notice sufficient to arouse the old Academy spirit, and come. All come and join us, no matter who was the professor who instructed you, as it is a reunion of all the pupils of this school. Don't forget the time—Thursday, August 6. All committees meet at the Academy building, Saturday, July 25, at 2 p. m. Let there be a full attendance.

T. M. GRAMLEY, Secy.

Centre Reporter, $1.00 per year.

LOCALS.

Welcome showers Sunday afternoon and Monday evening and night.

Miss Grace Smith has been at Williamsport during the past week or more.

Mrs. Henry Emerick, of Centre Hall, has been ill since Wednesday of last week.

Miss Nettie Thomas, of Milesburg, is the guest of Mrs. B. F. Bieber, at the Lutheran parsonage.

Remember the festival in Grange Arcadia Saturday evening. The Methodists are holding it, and invite you all.

John C. Roseman is improving the Dinges property which he recently purchased by adding a large front porch. The work is being done by the Hagens.

Miss Cora Brungart is entertaining Miss Nettie Bair, of Bellefonte. The latter young lady is a clerk in Katz & Company's store, and is enjoying part of her vacation in Centre Hall.

The section of country about Snyderstown, in Nittany Valley, was visited by a severe hail storm Sunday afternoon. The corn and oats were damaged to a considerable extent.

Bruce Rowe is home from Philadelphia to recuperate. He is engaged with the drug firm of Powers, Weightman & Rosengarten, on 9th and Parish streets. He expects to return again in a short time.

Edward Moore, a lifelong resident of Lamar, Clinton county, died at the home of his son, Calvin Moore, in the east end of Nittany Valley, aged eighty-eight years. He is survived by four sons and three daughters.

Dr. Schuyler spent last Sabbath at Leighton, where he filled an engagement for Dr. Boal by preaching in the Presbyterian church at that place. Dr. Boal preached for Dr. Schuyler both in Centre Hall and Spring Mills.

To visit his brother, John F. Emerick, at Farmers Mills, Samuel K. Emerick, of Fleming, came to the valley the latter part of last week and remained until Monday. Mr. Emerick looks hale and hearty, and is engaged in farming, and has also established himself as a first class auctioneer.

After an absence from Centre county for twenty-five or more years, Mrs. Sallie J. Shirk, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Benner Shirk, is making her first visit east in seventeen years. She arrived Saturday and will remain until fall. Mrs. Shirk is a sister-in-law of Mrs. B. D. Brisbin, in Centre Hall, at whose home a part of the time of her stay in the east will be spent.

Thos. C. Henney and wife, of Latrobe, Wednesday evening returned to their home after a week's visit to Centre Hall and Potters Mills. Mr. Henney is employed by the Railway Steel Spring Company, in its rolling department, and has been with that concern for eighteen years. He has had employment the greater time during the panic, and has been given but one week's vacation.

Rev. D. J. Mitterling, D. D., of Madison, South Dakota, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Centre Hall Tuesday afternoon and will remain for two weeks, guests of J. W. Mitterling and family. Dr. Mitterling is serving a Presbyterian charge in South Dakota, having gone north from Iowa where he was located for several years. Before coming here Mr. and Mrs. Mitterling visited Washington and other eastern cities.

Georges Valley.

William Auman, of Potters Mills, and his nephew William Auman and family, of Johnstown, spent the 4th at the home of M. J. Barger.

Most of the young people spent the 4th in Spring Mills.

The farmers are busy harvesting. The corn and oats crop look very good, through this valley.

Miss Jennie K. Decker, is at Penn Hall, visiting her brother, Thomas Decker.

D. E. Hennigh is working for F. W. Zettie, helping harvest and make hay.

Robert Finkle bought a new hay tedder this summer.

Mrs. Wesly Sweetwood was over at Beech one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Isenhood spent Sunday at the home of John Lingle.

Calvin Lingle is carrying a big gash on his leg which he cut while working in the woods.

There were four persons seen driving home bright and early Sunday morning.

Huckleberries are plenty at Egg Hill.

Albert Lingle was kicked by a horse one day last week, and has been walking lame ever since.

Preaching services will be held at Locust Grove next Sunday morning. A few persons of this place attended the Smith show at Potters Mills last Tuesday, they say it was good. Mrs. W. W. Jamison had a surprise party for her husband Friday evening and a large crowd gathered there. Daniel P. Weaver, who had been working at Boalsburg for three weeks, returned home last Saturday. Sunday was a very warm day, but a rain and hail storm fell here in the evening.

AARONSBURG.

Jared Harper and family, of Bellefonte, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Sue Rote.

Mrs. Charles Orwig, of Harleton, spent a few days with her son Walter and family, at the home of C. G. Bright.

Thomas Meyer and family, of Coburn, spent part of the Sabbath with Mrs. Meyer's father, at the home of George Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Burd, of Coburn, spent the Sabbath at the home of Mrs. Swabb.

Miss Cleo Shutt, of Carlisle, is being entertained by Miss Bertha Sheeder, at the Lutheran parsonage.

Mrs. Harvey Crouse and Miss Mabel Crouse spent a week with friends at Holsopple and other places.

Mrs. Kizzie Swabb visited her daughter, Mrs. Lee, at Tusseyville.

Dr. A. S. Musser and family spent a day last week with friends at Loganston. Mrs. Emma Jordan Hess, of Lock Haven, is the welcome guest of her sister, Mrs. Maria Deshler.

Miss Lila Acker returned from a few months' visit to her sister, Mrs. Theo. Helsell, who resides at Holsopple. Mrs. Wm. Summers, of Clearfield, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sara Leitzel, and other relatives in town.

THE WEST POINT RIOT.

It Happened During the Cadetship of Jefferson Davis.

Closely connected with Benny Havens' was the great cadet riot of Christmas, 1826, in the middle of Jefferson Davis' third year. Before Christmas it was rumored through the barracks that Davis and other southern and southwestern cadets were going to explain to the other members of the corps the mysteries of eggnog. Cadets Davis, Tilghman and Temple were to get the necessaries from Benny's, but it seems that something prevented, and others had to get the materials. The authorities were suspicious and ordered the inspectors to stay up all night to keep order. This angered the cadets, and the preparations for the eggnog went on. In the dark of the morning of Dec. 25 the invitations were sent out. Robert E. Lee and Joseph E. Johnston declined. J. B. Magruder, Drayton, C. J. Wright and others accepted. Davis was extending the invitations when he heard a rumor that Captain Hitchcock was abroad. He ran back to No. 5 north barracks, where the refreshments were collected, called out, "Put away that grog, boys; old Hitch is coming," and looked up to find that Hitchcock was already in the room. Davis was sent to his quarters under arrest, fortunately for him, for after some hilarious noise he went to sleep and did not get into the riot which then began. The instructors and officers were chased out of the halls into their own rooms and there besieged. The cadets obtained arms and organized the Helvetician league to protect themselves against the bombardiers, who, they heard, were ordered out to subdue them. Davis' roommate, Walter B. Gulon, of Mississippi, was the leader of the Helveticians. He secured a pistol and tried to shoot Captain Hitchcock. Some of the officers were badly bruised with stove wood that the cadets threw at them. After an hour or two the riot wore out. Later nineteen cadets, among them Gulon, were court martialed and dismissed. Davis, with others, was kept long under arrest and given demerits.—Professor W. L. Fleming in Metropolitan Magazine.

GOT HIS OMELET.

Why One Man Ceased Trying to Be Funny With Waiters.

"I've never tried to be funny with a waiter," the traveler was saying, "since the time when I had a little experience with one in California. It was several years ago, and I was rather 'fresh.' I stepped into a restaurant one morning and ordered an omelet. "What kind?" asked the waiter. "Why, are there more kinds than one?" I said.

"Oh, yes, sir," he answered me; "there are several."

"Well, bring me an ostrich egg omelet."

"All right, sir," he said, "but you'll have to wait quite awhile. It takes a long time to make an ostrich egg omelet."

"I told him I had plenty of time. He went away and was gone fully an hour. Then he came back with a big covered dish."

"There you are, sir," he said, placing it before me and uncovering it. "Well, it was an omelet, all right, and big enough for half a dozen men. Whether there was an ostrich farm in the neighborhood and he got a real ostrich egg or whether he made it from a couple of dozen hens' eggs I don't know, but I distinctly remember that it cost me $2—and I learned a valuable lesson."—Youth's Companion.

Awful Effects.

Aerid Ike—Dey say dat steady drip-plin' o' water'll wear away a stone. Dreamy Pete—Jes' tink, deen, woe'd happen t' a man's stomach by pourin' glassfuls inter it.—Bohemian.

Quite Useful.

"He has a very useful husband." "How do you make that out?" "He can always suggest something that he wants for dinner."—Detroit Free Press.

Self Reliance.

It is easy in this world to live after the world's opinion. It is easy in solitude to live after our own, but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowds keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.

LOCALS.

A hail storm passed over Centre Hall Tuesday afternoon, dropping chunks of ice worth from five to ten cents if sold by a city ice man.

The members of the Methodist church will hold a festival Saturday evening in Grange Arcadia.

Both the eastern and western portions of the state had double the rainfall in June that had Centre and adjoining counties.

For the latest styles in gent's furnishings go to Montgomery and Co's. No matter what you want—ready made or made to order.

State Delegate N. B. Spangler, Esq., Hon. P. Gray Meek, Hon. John Noll James Cori and Treasurer F. K. White returned from Denver where they had been attending the Democratic national convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Neff, of near Tusseyville, were in Centre Hall Saturday afternoon, having come here to attend a committee meeting relative to the picnic to be held by the various Lutheran Sunday schools on Grange Park, Thursday, 23rd inst.

GRAIN MARKET.

Rye.....	70	Wheat.....	90
Barley.....	60	Oats.....	90
		Corn.....	90

PRODUCE AT STORES.

Lard.....	69	Butter.....	15
Potatoes.....	60	Eggs.....	16

W. A. Henney

Centre Hall

General

Blacksmithing

Special attention given to tire setting and satisfaction always guaranteed.

All Kinds of Repair Work Given Prompt Attention.

Trimming & Painting

Prices Reasonable

The Latest Styles in Men's Hats and Straw Hats.

Prices cut in half on Ladies' and Children's White Oxforas while they last. . .

H. F. ROSSMAN

Spring Mills - - - Penn.

STEVENS

IN CAMP OR FIELD—AT MOUNTAIN OR SHORE