WIDOWS' PENSIONS under NEW LAW obtained by JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C.

In France a law has just been enacted which punishes with heavy fine and several months' imprisonment any conductor or owner of an automobile who, having caused any sort of accident, or who having been in a collision with any other vehicle or individual or object, does not immediately stop and give his name and address to the police or to other representatives of the law. This punishment is to be specifically imposed, quite irrespective of the merits of the case itself.

About 40 different kinds of whales and dolphins are known, and although they live in the open sea and look like fish, they are not fish at all, but are true mammals, breathing air and feeding their young on milk, like cows and horses.

Hicks' Capudine Cures Women's Monthly Pains, Backache, Nervousness, and Headache. It's Liquid. Effects immediately. Prescribed by physicians with best results. 10c., 25c., and 50c., at drug stores.

A Fireless Locomotive. One of the most recent inventions in locomotives is the fireless engine now used in Germany. It is employed for shunting work only, and is driven by one man. The tank of the engine is filled with steam from a generating station, and so charged will work for four or five hours. The locomotive boiler, according to the London Globe, is first three-quarters filled with superheated water; and then the steam is admitted and thoroughly mixed. The steam is admitted at a pressure of 170 pounds on the square inch, and it is found that only half an atmosphere of the pressure is lost in transferring from the powerhouse to the engine. The filling requires 8 or 10 minutes.

Overlooked. Aunt—Tommy, I put three pies in here yesterday, and now there is only one. How is that?
Tommy—Please. It was so dark, aunty, I didn't see that one!—Punch.

A Decorative Accomplishment. "So you are going to teach your daughter music?"
"Yes," answered Mrs. Thingit, "just enough to give us an excuse for having a piano lamp and a mahogany music rack."—Washington Star.

She Knew The Formula. A stranger approached a little girl who was somewhat accustomed to interviews with the usual question, "What's your name, little girl?"
The little girl, without looking up from her sandle, replied: "My name is Edith and I'm four. She's my little sister; her name's Mildred and she's two. I don't want to go with you and be your little girl, and I know you can't steal my little sister."—Harper's Weekly.

DIFFERENT NOW. Athlete Finds Better Training Food. It was formerly the belief that to become strong, athletes must eat plenty of meat.
This is all out of date now, and many trainers feed athletes on the well-known food, Grape-Nuts, made of wheat and barley, and cut the meat down to a small portion, once a day.
"Three years ago," writes a Michigan man, "having become interested in athletics, I found I would have to stop eating pastry and some other kinds of food."
"I got some Grape-Nuts and was soon eating the food at every meal, for I found that when I went on the track, I felt more lively and active."
"Later, I began also to drink Postum in place of coffee and the way I gained muscle and strength on this diet was certainly great. On the day of a field meet in June I weighed 124 pounds. On the opening of the football season in Sept., I weighed 140. I attributed my fine condition and good work to the discontinuation of improper food and coffee, and the using of Grape-Nuts and Postum, my principal diet during training season being Grape-Nuts."
"Before I used Grape-Nuts I never felt right in the morning—always kind of 'out of sorts' with my stomach. But now when I rise I feel good, and after a breakfast largely of Grape-Nuts and cream, and a cup of Postum, I feel like a new man."
"There's a Reason."

WESTINGHOUSE PLANT GETS $1,500,000 ORDERS.

Pittsburg (Special).—The latest addition to the rapidly accumulating evidence that industrial conditions are improving in the Pittsburgh district comes from the Westinghouse Companies, whose plants in the East Pittsburgh section received orders aggregating $1,500,000.
These orders are not confined to one part of the country, but come from all sections, while Mexico contributes something worthy of notice.
The business for May was 15 per cent. higher than for the earlier months of the year, while June showed an advance of 23 per cent. July has opened with prospects that orders will almost reach the normal business of the corporations.
Over 90 per cent. of the plants of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. are in operation, and as the wage scales have been signed there are no clouds on the horizon.
The demand for window glass, with the country practically bare of salable sizes, means that all factories will be in operation as soon as forces can be organized and the fires started. Some factories are still in operation in the last fire, an unheard-of proceeding in the glass trade.
William B. Scarfe & Sons, machinists, received a contract for $50,000 worth of work from the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co.

JEALOUS OF MURDERED WIFE.

Reading (Special).—At the Coroner's inquest held here in the case of Mrs. John Massier, who was shot on June 29 by her husband, who then killed himself, after coming here from Chicago, a theory as to the cause of the double tragedy was established. All testimony pointed to the fact that Massier was extremely jealous of his wife, and that he declared she was not true to him.
There was also testimony which tended to show that Massier's father, Michael Massier, who is now in a Philadelphia hospital as the result of slashing his throat with a razor during the funeral of his son, knew his son intended to murder his wife and that the revolver used was owned by the elder Massier.
It was also brought out that there had been a tacit agreement between Massier and his son to come to Reading together on July 4, with the idea of getting rid of the wife by means of a supposed accident.
The jury rendered a verdict that the woman was shot by her husband with premeditation.

PROMPT TO PAY THE STATE.

Harrisburg (Special).—As a result of a conference between Attorney General Todd, Deputy Attorney General Cunningham, State Treasurer Sheatz and Attorney A. J. Edwards for the Commonwealth, and Attorney Clarence Burleigh and Director William H. Lathaw, for the suspended Allegheny National Bank, it is believed that an amicable agreement will be reached, whereby the state will shortly receive the full amount of its $523,000 deposit in that institution with interest.
The conference was called to consider whether or not an agreement could be reached for a settlement without waiting for the outcome of the litigation in the Allegheny County courts over the relative responsibility of the bondsmen.
While no definite action was taken, it is stated that the bank people submitted a proposition which may remove the tangle.

SHOOT HIS SERENADERS.

Allentown (Special).—With the exclamation, "I'll teach them a lesson," Amandes Milles, of Danielsville, fired two shots into a crowd of young nerrymakers who had gathered about his home to serenade him and his bride of a fortnight, injuring five young men, two of them seriously, and three slightly.
The rest of the party, including a number of young women, escaped, although the shot was fired at short range and the young people were closely grouped.
The young men shot are: Steward Gable, 27, Cherryville, left arm blown to pieces, shot believed to have penetrated her heart, will die; Charles Easterday, 25, shot removed from back of body from heel of head, slightly injured; Albert Zimmerman, Walter Minnick and Howard Newhard, all of Danielsville.
Father and son were arrested.

CHURCHES IN RIVALRY.

Lancaster (Special).—The controversy between the rival factions of the Swedenborgian Church, for the $40,000 Frederick J. Kramp estate, was continued before Judge Smith in the Orphans' Court here. Doctrinal differences, arising largely out of the construction placed upon Swedenborg's famous work, "Conjugal Love," formed a conspicuous feature of the testimony.
The branch of the church known as the general convention accuses their opponents, the general church, which exercises supervision over the academy at Bryn Athyn, near Philadelphia, of teaching a principle of immorality and claims that it therefore cannot receive the legacy because its teaching is contrary to civil law and subversive of public morality.

MAIL POUCH ROBBED.

Williamsport (Special).—A mail pouch containing several hundred letters and a large number of checks was robbed at the Philadelphia & Reading depot at Halls Station, ten miles east of here.
The postal authorities had not missed it until it was found lying along the tracks near the station. It had been cut open and part of its contents removed.

COMMERCIAL COLUMN.

Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Review of Trade says:
"Midsummer quiet is augmented this year by the general contraction that has occurred in all departments of trade and industry, but splendid progress of the crops strengthens confidence in the future, and preparation for a large volume of fall business is gradually increasing the percentage of active machinery. Erratic fluctuations in prices of raw material retarded improvement in the cotton goods industry, but the recent sharp advance in hides and leather on account of small receipts of cattle failed to check progress at shoe factories, and a fair tonnage of new business is received by the steel mills. Semi-annual clearance sales of dry goods were well attended, country merchants replenishing depleted stocks at satisfactory prices and reports from all sections of the country testify to a good distribution of lightweight wearing apparel. Idle freight cars have been reduced to less than 350,000 and many railroad shops are resuming repair work."

THIS AND THAT.

John Starr, a gill fisherman at Gloucester City, N. J., in drawing in his nets pulled up two kegs of beer, one of which he sold for $2.50.
In China the salt tax is a government monopoly. It is one of the principal revenues of the empire, yielding about $9,000,000 a year.

PROOF FOR TWO CENTS.

If You Suffer With Your Kidneys and Back Write to This Man.

G. W. Winney, Medina, N. Y., invites kidney sufferers to write to him. To all who enclose postage he will reply, telling how Doan's Kidney Pills cured him after he had doctored and had been in two different hospitals for eighteen months, suffering intense pain in the back, lameness, twinges when stooping or lifting, languor, dizziness and rheumatism. "Before I used Doan's Kidney Pills," says Mr. Winney, "I weighed 143. After taking 10 or 12 boxes I weighed 162 and was completely cured."

The Weather Prophet.

"I always have been under the impression that there ought to be a society for repressing information as to symptoms of disease," remarked the phlegmatic man, "and now I've come to the conclusion that we need another society, one that will prevent people from getting to know too much or little about the weather. I am afflicted with a brother-in-law who thinks he knows something about the weather, and all summer long my life and that of my wife—who takes him seriously—is made miserable by his predictions that 'we are going to have a thunderstorm before night.' He keeps us in the house when in our ordinary ignorance we would go out and enjoy our rainless days; he drives us indoors by knowing looks at 'thunder heads.' And on the one day recently when he never spoke of the weather at all we went on an excursion at his suggestion and got soaked to the skin. If any one will start that society I'll be one of the charter members."

Attending Strictly To Business.

The Leroy Reporter tells this story about John E. Watrous, of Burlington, one of the deputy collectors of internal revenue. Traveling along a country road Mr. Watrous was attracted by a frightful scream coming from a little house not far from the road. He ran to the house and found that a little boy had swallowed a quarter, and his mother was frantic. Mr. Watrous caught the little fellow by the heels, and holding him up, gave him a few shakes, whereupon the coin dropped on the floor.
"Well, mister," said the grateful mother, "you certainly know how to get it out. Are you a doctor?"
"No, madam," replied Watrous, "I'm a collector of internal revenue."

Having A Good Time.

A wholesale scorn of physical ills is a good thing, according to the philosophy of a boy in the State School for Dependent Children, who wrote his father thus:
"Dear Papa: We children are having a good time here now. Mr. Sager broke his leg and can't work. We went on a picnic and it rained and we all got wet. Many children here are sick with the mumps. Mr. Higgins fell off the wagon and broke his rib, but he can work a little. The man that is digging the deep well whipped us boys with a buggy whip because we threw sand in his machine, and made black and blue marks on us. Ernest cut his finger badly. We are all very 'happy.'"
From the Delinquent.

Effects Of Lightning.

Prof. A. Herschel, in the Quarterly Journal of the Royal Meteorological Society for October last, describes the extraordinary effects produced by lightning in the midst of an open moor in Northumberland. A hole four or five feet in diameter was made in the flat, peaty ground, and from this half a dozen furrows extended on all sides. Pieces of turf were thrown in various directions, one three feet in diameter and a foot thick having fallen 78 feet from the hole. Investigation showed that in addition to the effects visible on the surface, small holes had been bored in the earth radiating from the large excavation.

A New Auto Danger.

Hedgehogs are said to be causing lots of trouble for Bangor automobilists, who are fond of the wooded highways a score of miles from the city. In the evening these spiny, bristling animals are often found on the roads, and, fascinated by the glare of the head lamps of the motor cars, refuse to budge from the track, with the result that they are often run over. The danger lies in the sharp quills which pierce the tires, making a puncture which cripples the car and is hard to mend.—Kennebec Journal.

Unnecessarily Scared.

A young man had been calling now and then on a young lady when one night, as he sat in the parlor waiting for her to come down, her mother entered the room instead and asked him in a very grave, stern way what his intentions were.
He turned very red and was about to stammer some incoherent reply when suddenly the young lady called down from the head of the stairs: "Mamma, mamma, that is not the one."—Ladies' Home Journal.

When Women Admired Whiskers.

For ages beards were the delight of ancient beauties. The sight of a shaved chin excited sentiments of horror and aversion. To obey the injunctions of his bishops, Louis VII of France cropped his hair a la pompadour, and shaved off his luxuriant whiskers. Eleanor Aquitaine, his consort, found him with this uncommon appearance very ridiculous and very contemptible. She revenged herself by becoming something more than a coquette. The king obtained a divorce. She then married the Count of Anjou, who shortly afterward ascended the English throne, and gave him as her marriage dower the rich provinces of Poitou and Guienne. And this was the origin of those wars which for 300 years ravaged France and which cost the French nation 3,000,000 men; all of which, probably, had never taken place if Louis VII had not been so rash as to shave off his whiskers, by which he made himself so disgusting to the fair Eleanor.—N. Y. Press.

TWO CURES OF ECZEMA.

Baby Had Severe Attack—Grandfather Suffered Torments with the Disease—One Recovery to Cuticura.

"In 1884 my grandson, a babe, had an attack of eczema, and after trying the doctors to the extent of heavy bills and an increase of the disease and suffering, I recommended Cuticura and in a few weeks the child was well. He is to-day a strong man and absolutely free from the disease. A few years ago I contracted eczema, and became an intense sufferer. A whole winter passed without once having on shoes, nearly from the knees to the toes being covered with violent sores. I tried many doctors to no purpose. Then I procured the Cuticura Remedies and found immediate improvement and final cure. M. W. LaRue, 845 Seventh St., Louisville, Ky., April 23 and May 14, 1907."
