SHALL THE PEOPLE RULE? If So, the People Must Pay the Necessary Campaign Expenses-- An Appeal for Funds for a Clean Campaign.

The Democratic National Committee sent to The Centre Reporter, as it did also to every other Democratic newspaper, an appeal for funds to pay the legitimate expenses of the campaign in the interest of Bryan and Kern. Through these newspapers an appeal is made to the rank and file, who believe in Bryan and Democratic principles; to those who believe that under Democratic rule, "The people shall rule."

Funds sent to this office will be forwarded at once to Governor C. N. Haskell, at Guthrie, Oklahoma, treasurer of the National Committee, who will send to the individual contributors a thoroughly Democratic acknowledgement of his contribution.

The people are asked to contribute the funds needed to conduct a clean campaign of education and organization, on simple and economical lines, without a dollar of graft and without a promise to any man of special favors in case of success, except an honest and economical government in the interest of all the people.

The Reporter believes that the plain people, whose chief concern is to see their government transmitted to their children with equality of opportunity for all restored and perpetuated, will welcome this opportunity to inaugurate, in 1909, a national administration elevated to power by their modest contributions, rather than one bought and paid for by predatory wealth and selfish interests which always stand ready to place public servants and political parties under obligations to them as a return for large contributions to their campaign funds. The Reporter would largely prefer five hundred dollars subscribed by that many voters, than that sum paid by any one individual. A popular contribution is wanted.

All contributions sent to this office will be acknowledged by written receipt, and also under this head, (the contributors name withheld if so desired) and in addition to this, an acknowledgement will be forwarded by the National Chairman, which will be highly prized by every Democrat as a souvenir of this campaign and a testimonial to his financial support.

FROM DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS.

The following letter was received from the Democratic Headquarters at Chicago, signed by Moses C. Wetmore, Chairman Finance Committee, and M. F. Dunlap, Secretary Finance Committee. Its reading will be full explanation:

EDITOR CENTRE REPORTER, Centre Hall, Penn.

DEAR SIR:—We have received a copy of your paper and are highly gratified at your effort to raise funds for conducting the National Campaign.

We believe that you will be able to raise a considerable sum, and suggest that you forward it in weekly installments, to Governor C. N. Haskell, Treasurer, Auditorium Annex, Chicago, instead of Guthrie, Oklahoma. Governor Haskell has provided an office force here to look after all the remittances and to send receipts to subscribers.

It is through such splendid services that you are rendering that the necessary funds will be placed at our disposal to defray the legitimate expenses of this Campaign.

We will be glad to hear from you from time to time, and should you or any of your contributors come to Chicago, we will be very much pleased to have you pay us a visit at these Headquarters.

Thanking you and wishing you great success in your undertaking, we are, Yours very truly,

Contributions to the fund have been coming in without effort, and in all cases the sums are all that is expected. The work, however, has only begun. The Reporter takes pleasure in this issue to recognize the following contributors:

"The Philadelphia Record" Actively Supports Bryan

A Presidential contest that will undoubtedly be waged with unweary vigor on both sides of the line dividing the great national parties is now in full swing. Politics will be the principal topic of discussion wherever men congregate until the claims of the rival candidates shall be settled at the ballot-box in November. It goes without saying that accurate information of all the important moves on the campaign chess-board will be indispensable to every wide-awake voter.

Democrats turn naturally to "The Philadelphia Record" for such information. It is the only Democratic newspaper in Philadelphia recognized the country over as one of the leading exponents of Democratic opinion on this edge of the Continent. It is fair, though partisan; who is big suppression and misrepresentation are weapons that have no place in its armory. "Square deal" Democrats and Republicans will find the daily budget of "The Record" essential to an intelligent understanding of the progress of a lively Presidential canvass.

No newspaper ever achieved popularity on the strength of its political attitude alone. "The Philadelphia Record" is no exception to the rule. It is lifted above the common level by many distinctive features that appeal to the varied interests of every member of the household. It prints the news—all the news—in a succinct, brisk form that has come to be known, even among its contemporaries, as "Record style." A proper sense of perspective dictates its thorough presentation of happenings in its own immediate field—Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. Its editorial treatment of the questions of the day is at once well-balanced and aggressive.

"The Philadelphia Record" exploits no popularity of sensational science or entertaining facts and rides no hobbies, but it is pre-eminent in its special departments. It is the recognized authority in the field of sports and the turf. Farmers and ship-pers swear by its market reports, which are always complete, accurate and wholly reliable. To the practical man its columns of popularized science are entertaining and helpful; the practical woman finds the matters that lie nearest to her heart treated simply—and sanely—in a department devoted to the home dress and the world of feminine achievement. There is a corner in "The Record" for boys and girls; a weekly column of condensed, up-to-date information for the farmer; a daily bouquet of breezy anecdotes—"The Reporter's Newsy"—so good that they are clipped and reprinted by newspaper editors throughout the country. If you want a clean newspaper, worthy to occupy an honored place in the home circle— If you want a live newspaper without a streak of yellow in its make-up— If you want a stalwart Democratic newspaper that will keep you thoroughly posted on every phase of a stirring national campaign— If you want a family newspaper the profit and pleasure of reading which will be shared by others, no matter how diverse their tastes and inclinations— You want "The Philadelphia Record." It is the only paper that fits the bill.

"The Philadelphia Record" will be mailed to your address at the following rates: Daily (including Sunday), per year, $5.00 Every week day, per year, $3.00 Sunday Record, per year, $1.00
