BRYAN STARTS ON TOUR.

Through Middle West, the Debateable East-Taft an Imitator.

On leaving Nebraska for Chicago, Col. Bryan was in the best of spirits. He commented with obvious gratification upon the fact that his "greatest sin", that of spellbinding the country, is now to be imitated by the Republican candidate.

The following statement was given out by the Democratic candidate:

"Well I am getting a great deal of consolation out of the way the President and Mr. Taft have been doing. I used to be called hard names because I advocated an income tax, and now the income tax has been indorsed by the President and Mr. Taft. I used to be bitterly denounced because I favored railroad regulation. Now the President and Mr. Taft have brought because I favored tariff reform; but Green Spring and other parts of Ohio. now tariff reform has become so ur-up. Now we have a Republican candidate for President who believes that independence.

"But I have reason to rejoice over done are now viewed in a more favor- lords not to sell their goods when able light. When I made some phondiscuss political questions before more people, the Republican papers ridi culed me and called it undignified, but Pleasant Gap, accompanied by her ed the funeral from a distance were an eminence by talking into it himself.

"And now my greatest sin is made a virtue by imitation. Surely imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. When I went out campaigning in 1896 and 1900 they said it was damagogic to run around over the country votehunting. Now it is eminently proper since Mr. Taft is going to do it, and I hope the Republican papers will make due apologies. They said in 1896 and 1900 that I was scared when I made speeches from the rear end of a train, and I was, and the results showed that I had reason to be. I have been wondering whether this explanation would be given when Mr. Taft starts out and whether the result will be the same with him that it was with me.

"It is hard for us to keep our patents from being infringed on this year. I am afraid they will try to raise a campaign fund by popular contributions next."

Rededication of Church.

The Grace Reformed church of Spring Mills was rededicated last Sunday morning after being repaired and beautified within and without. The repairs were extensive, consisting of the Encampment and Fair, Grange painting the exterior of the building, repairing and painting of roof, p tting in a new hard-wood ceiling, papering of side walls, new carpets, repainting of woodwork within, etc. The total cost was about $250.
