Some High Class Attractions.
Not since there has been a fair has there been such high class talent engaged for the performances before the grand stand as will be seen on the Great Centre County Fair grounds on Oct. 7th, 8th, and 9th.

DeVelde and Zaida, the European vaudeville team, have no equals in artistic equilibrium. Mile Marchand in her startling performance on the flying ring is another star of the first magnitude.

"Robin", known to be a head-liner in all the big vaudeville houses, will be there to do his clever specialty as a comedy juggler.

Prof. Caselle, the aeronaut at Electric Park, Baltimore, will make a balloon ascension and parachute drop each day. The famous Repasz band, of Williamsport and the Coleville band will both be there.

The question now is will you be there? And remember, every day will be a big day. Thursday won't be a bit better than Wednesday or Friday. In fact Friday will be the best day of the Fair.

Borough Schools Open.
The borough schools opened Monday for an eight months term. The attendance in all the grades is larger than last year, and to this number are yet to be added a few pupils who are now engaged in other work than their studies.

The classes of the High school have been so arranged that Mr. Strohm, the Grammar grade teacher, will assist Prof. Neff in teaching some of the High school branches. By this arrangement the borough will be in line for an increased appropriation for High school work, over that due from last year.

The intermediate and primary grades have their former teachers, Misses Hosterman and Bechirst.

Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Buffalo Cross Roads, is visiting her old home in Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Corman, of Rebersburg, spent the past week at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlin left Rebersburg Tuesday for Reedsville. Mrs. Carlin is a delegate to the Lutheran missionary convention which meets at the latter place.

LOCALS

And it didn't rain a drop.

Merchant W. H. Meyer is attending the Allentown fair, which is the greatest fair in the state.

Frank Pennington, of Lewistown, made his annual trip to Potters Mills and Centre Hall during the Encampment.

Rev. H. C. Bixler was unable to fill his appointments in the Rebersburg Lutheran church. Sunday, on account of sickness.

Mrs. Edwin Jordan, who spent several months with her parents in Rebersburg, returned to her home in Chicago, last week.

Edwin Wolf, of Bellwood, was here during the Encampment and remained until Monday. He is employed by the Pennys. at their Altoona shops.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bartholomew, of Curwensville, is the guest of her nephew, Chas. D. Bartholomew. She will remain in the county for several weeks.

There will be a return train this (Thursday) evening from the Lewisburg fair, leaving the latter place at five o'clock. The fare from Centre Hall is $1.86.

John D. Wagner, of near Spring Mills, paid his special respects to the Reporter headquarters at the Encampment, as did also A. J. Weaver, of near Colyer, one of Potters school directors.

After having visited for some time among friends at Tusseyville, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McClellan left Monday for a trip to Niagara Falls, Albany and New York City, by way of the New York and Hudson River Railroad.

Mrs. L. Ray Morgan, of Philipsburg, accompanied by her son Louis, for several days last week was the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. W. Smith, in Centre Hall. Saturday she went to Boalsburg, her former home, and remained among friends until Monday.

Honor has been bestowed upon James Corl, the commissioners clerk, who was elected second vice president of the association of commissioners in Pennsylvania. He and Commissioner Bailey attended a meeting of that body held at Greensburg last week.

At least once in a year, C. S. Detwiler takes time to leave his duties as a signaller on the Pennys and come back to his old home in Penns Valley. He has now been in Philadelphia, at Oney Station, for two years, and likes his position and the place very much.

William Ernest, of Iowa, is visiting the home of his birth, Boalsburg. It is over half a century since Mr. Ernest emigrated toward the setting sun and this is his first visit back, consequently he notes many changes that time has brought.

R. P. Campbell, one of the Campbell Brothers, proprietors of Penns Cave, Wednesday morning returned to Toledo, Ohio, to resume his position as a structural draftsman with the Toledo-Massillon Bridge Company. Penns Cave will be under the management of Mr. Kauwell during Mr. Campbell's absence.

C. N. Kryder, the well known lumberman who is now operating on a large scale at Covington, Virginia, came up to attend the Encampment. He was a former resident in Centre Hall, and is well acquainted throughout the county, and of course, met a host of people he knew. Mr. Kryder will remain for but a short time when he will return to business and Mrs. Kryder, whom he left in the South.

Mrs. Harry J. Kittleberger, of Curwensville, accompanied by her two children, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Chas. D. Bartholomew, and aunt, Mrs. H. W. Kreamer, in Centre Hall. Mrs. Kittleberger will better be remembered as Miss Anna Bartholomew, one of the successful school teachers in the primary grade for several terms. She will remain until Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, was in Centre Hall Tuesday and was among the Reporter's callers on that day. Mrs. Meyer is the sister of John H. Weber, in Centre Hall, but her attachment for Boalsburg makes her visits here very seldom, and now that Mr. Meyer has purchased a home in that town she will more than ever want to remain in dear old Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart are entertaining Misses Margaret Wood and Gertrude Keefe, of Youngwood, who accompanied their daughter, Miss Sara, also now at that place. Miss Keefe is a telephone operator for a railroad company, and Miss Brungart still retains her position as assistant postmistress at Youngwood, a position she has held for a year or more. The young ladies will return this week, after having had a most delightful outing.

There are several walks between the diamond and the school house that are in an intolerable condition. The hundred or more school children who are obliged to pass over them four times each day are running an unnecessary risk of being injured by the half dozen traps. It is vicious to permit such abominable walks within a borough, and especially in Centre Hall where nine-tenths of the walks are in the best condition. Better throw these walks into the street than tolerate them.

Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Buffalo Cross Roads, is visiting her old home in Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Corman, of Rebersburg, spent the past week at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlin left Rebersburg Tuesday for Reedsville. Mrs. Carlin is a delegate to the Lutheran missionary convention which meets at the latter place.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.

Exhibit Was Unusually Large, Pretty and Instructive.

The exhibit prepared by Pennsylvania State College was unusually large, pretty and instructive, and was under the care of J. T. Pillsbury, representing the Horticultural department at the institution, assisted by W. E. Gross, who took a deep interest in the exhibit that had to do with agriculture. The exhibits were tastefully arranged, the center of the large exhibit building accommodating the palms, flowers, vines, etc., and potted plants, many of the latter having found purchasers from among the many who love flowers.

The exhibit of grains, clovers, grasses, etc., were closely scrutinized, especially those known as legumes—peas, alfalfa, etc.—because the average farmer is just becoming acquainted with those most important plants.

Another exhibit that attracted attention was one calculated to show the slow or rapid exhaustion of moisture by capillary attraction in the various soils; also how arrested by turning under coarse stubbles or manure.

The State's great institution was also displayed by a series of pictures of the buildings, the laboratories, the work rooms and class rooms.

Bellefonte & State College.

Old Church Bell For Sale.
The Locust Grove church offers for sale the old bell that has been supplanted by a new one. The bell would be well suited for a school house, or for a dinner bell on a farm.

Sales Amount to $1300.
This item comes from the Aaronburg correspondent, and relates the experience of but one salesman at the Grange Encampment and Fair: Ralph Stover came home from the Grangers picnic much pleased with his week's work. His sales for the week were over thirteen hundred dollars. Among his sales were one ten-horse power Columbus engine, three four-horse power New Holland engines, two No. 10 feed mills, one No. 12 New Holland wheat mill, 60 ft. 6-inch belting, 80 ft. 4-inch belting.

Real Estate Sales at Boalsburg.
There have been some real estate changes of ownership in and about Boalsburg. J. H. Meyer purchased from the John Myers heirs, on the corner of Pine street and the pike, for the sum of $900. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will not occupy the premises until next spring, but they have already made a number of improvements.

Another sale that was made will result in the building up of a home along the pike beyond the arch bridge by Alfred R. Lee, at present tenant on one of the Boal farms. Mr. Lee purchased twenty acres of land from Henry Fredericks, being the whole of Mr. Fredericks' holdings there, and will in the near future erect a house and barn on it for his own use. The price paid was $1.00 per acre.

The Milton Fair.
The annual fall meeting of the Milton Fair Association, which will be held on the fair grounds at Milton, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 29th and 30th, October 1st and 2nd, is generally recognized to be the best county fair in Central Pennsylvania. This year the management is making an exceptional effort to make the meeting eclipse all its previous efforts. There will be a larger and better exhibition of stock and farm products; there will be finer attractions than the best of any other county; there will be more horses and better races; there will be more people; there will be more music and better music than ever entertained the patrons of a county fair—the Repasz of Williamsport; the "Our Band" of Shamokin, Gaskins Celebrated Military Band, of Sunbury, are among them. The railroads have made especially low rates from all leading points. Join the crowd and go to Milton.

J. D. Murray's New Departure.
After two months' of remarkable sales, J. D. Murray, the enterprising druggist, says that his plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success he has ever known.

He has sold hundreds of bottles of the specific; and as yet has not had one returned, although he stands ready at any time to refund the money should any customer be dissatisfied. This is the strongest testimony that can be furnished to the great merit of this medicine.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling, caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of Mr. Murray's new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Under Mr. Murray's special half price offer, this means a month's treatment for 25 cents, with the best medicine known for the cure of constipation and stomach troubles.
