The International Correspondence school, at Scranton, will establish in the near future a school in England, with headquarters in London, to correspond with its school in America.

Herbert Colfelt, of Philadelphia, son of Rev. Laurence M. Colfelt, D. D., who was located at State College several years ago, and who delivered two or more baccalaureate sermons at Pennsylvania State College, made an unsuccessful effort to commit suicide by jumping into the Delaware river from the Fifth street wharf, Camden.

A very singular fire occurred on the farm of D. M. Kline, at Axe Mann Saturday night. During the day John Yearick had been there hulling clover with his machine in one of the back fields and had worked until evening.

Quite a number of farmers in this neighborhood have all their wheat to sow yet.

SEPTEMBER COURT

First Week of Court Opened Monday—Second Week Postponed.

Court convened Monday morning with President Judge Orvis on the bench, and most of the forenoon was consumed in hearing motions and petitions as presented by the several members of the bar.

Ed. M. Conser vs. Nathan Hough, being an appeal; settled.

South Bend Chilled Plow Co. vs. Jane H. McCalmont and John H. Walker, surviving Rose Shortlidge, late trading as McCalmont & Co.; continued.

Com. vs. Adam Hanna, charge pointing pistol; prosecutor James I. Thompson; settled, defendant paying costs.

Com. vs. Joseph Ross, charge larceny and receiving stolen goods; prosecutor James Grubb. Defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty on both counts.

Com. vs. Joseph Koon, charge larceny; prosecutor A. B. Nyman. Defendant waived finding of the grand jury and plead guilty and was sentenced to pay costs, fine of $10.00 and thirty days in county jail.

First case for trial was that of Com. vs. the borough of South Philipsburg, indicted for maintaining a nuisance; prosecutor Hiram Moore, constable.

This controversy grows out of a return made by the borough of South Philipsburg at January sessions of court, 1906, that the alley between the borough of Philipsburg and the borough of South Philipsburg was in bad condition.

The borough contended that the alley was not a public alley but had been dedicated by a former owner. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, whereupon defendants moved an arrest of judgment and for new trial.

Com. vs. Charles Bartley, charged with selling liquor without a license and selling liquor to minors at business men's picnic at Hecla Park. Prosecutor, Henry Kline. Defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty.

The second week of court, as announced last week, was postponed.

LOCALS

The regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30.

The Reynolds peach orchard, at Bellefonte, yielded about twelve thousand bushels.

Merchants H. W. Kreamer & Son had their store building re-roofed, using galvanized iron instead of shingles.

A. P. Luse & Son have just received a large quantity of first class cedar shingles, and offer the same for sale at reasonable price.

The greater part of the corn is cut. The crop will vary very much in yield, depending mostly whether planted early or late. The early planting is far in the lead.

Among the former Centre county school teachers who began their work in the profession for the 1908-1909 term, is Prof. J. C. Bryson, at Derry, in the Pittsburgh district.

Richard Brooks, farmer on the Capt. Boal farm, near Centre Hall, brought a basket of potatoes to Centre Hall that for size and general appearance excel anything heretofore shown this season. They were the Dooley variety.

George W. Spangler, who recently was brought to Centre Hall from Tusseyville to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Edward W. Crawford, is very seriously ill and his death is looked for any day.

Miss Flora Shires, of Johnstown, is the guest of the family of her uncle M. Shires, at Spring Mills, and friends in Penns Valley. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Shires, both of whom are well known in Centre Hall. Mr. Shires expects to come to the valley next week.

Herbert Colfelt, of Philadelphia, son of Rev. Laurence M. Colfelt, D. D., who was located at State College several years ago, and who delivered two or more baccalaureate sermons at Pennsylvania State College, made an unsuccessful effort to commit suicide by jumping into the Delaware river from the Fifth street wharf, Camden.

A very singular fire occurred on the farm of D. M. Kline, at Axe Mann Saturday night. During the day John Yearick had been there hulling clover with his machine in one of the back fields and had worked until evening.

"Yeager, you are Crazy!"

HAT is just what a salesman, representing one of the Largest Shoe Manufactories in the United States, said to me when I told him I would take all of the 1100 pairs of Shoes he was trying to sell in small lots. He said, "You cannot sell them; you do not have enough people in your community to sell them to."

"Well," I said, "I am crazy enough if you give me my price on the whole 1100 pairs to try it." I got them at my price, for less than the cost to manufacture.

This is a lot of 1100 pairs of Men's Tan Working Shoes that was made up for a Jobbing House, and on account of the condition of business in their locality had to cancel the order.

This is the reason for the remarkably low price. It was an awful undertaking on my part to buy such a quantity of one lot of shoes. But when the men of Centre County see the value in this lot of shoes for only $1.98 a pair, they will not last long.

Below is a List and Description of the Shoes that will be on sale at my Store Fair Week, beginning October 5th.

Men's Tan, Arabian Grain, Seamless Bals, tip, two full soles, pegged, double fastened, copper eyelets and rivets, raw hide laces, $1.98 a pair

This is without doubt the Greatest Value ever given for the price

MEN, if you are in need of a pair of good shoes at a remarkably low price, you cannot afford to miss this sale on Men's Shoes which begins FAIR WEEK, OCTOBER 5th, 1908.

I suppose you will say I am crazy when I try to sell Men's and Women's heavy rubbers and arctics long before the time comes to wear them. But at the prices I am going to sell them on Fair Week, and FAIR WEEK ONLY, you will then get your thinking cap on and feel that this is the week for you to buy your rubbers for Winter.

JUST READ OVER THESE PRICES AND SEE IF YOU CAN AFFORD TO MISS THIS LOW PRICED SALE ON RUBBERS.

These Prices Good During Fair Week Only

I am going to make Fair Week the Greatest Money Saving Event in the shoe business, for the people of Centre County, that they have ever heard of. So if you are in need of anything in the Shoe Line, Come.
