

SECOND WEEK OF COURT.

Cases Being Heard and Decision of Jurors—Philipsburg Wins Case.

Court convened Monday morning, with the usual court officers in their places.

The following cases were disposed of: John Bowden and A. M. Northrup vs. New York and Penn'a Company, continued, the case being special to Judge Orvis.

T. R. Harter vs. Nathan Hough, Emeline Hough, Roy M. Hough, Oscar Hough and Elmer Hough, continued at costs of defendant, and the costs of present term as well as May term to be paid by defendants.

Harry R. Royer vs. W. G. Runkle, settled.

Katherine Jacobs vs. Penna. Railroad Co., a corporation. This is an action brought to recover on a relief certificate held by plaintiff's husband as the former employe of defendant company. Plaintiff's husband became an employe of defendant in December 1905, and took out a relief certificate as is customary, and about May 1st, 1906, was furloughed, the relief dues being paid to June 1st by the company retaining out of his wages the dues for same. The decedent secured employment in the woods and about June 7, 1906 was killed. The defendant company still having of decedent's money the sum of $185 which had not been paid to him, and which plaintiff contends should have been pro rata payment on account of his dues for the month of June. The question is entirely a legal one, the Court directed the jury to find a verdict in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $1086, and the case to be certified and to be reviewed by the Court after full argument thereof.

Blanche McClincey vs. Blanche McClincey, admx. of etc of George McClincey, late of Union twp., deceased. This is an action brought by plaintiff to recover from decedent estate for moneys paid by her for the estate of decedent after the death of her husband. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $595.90.

LAST WEEK'S COURT.

At the January session of 1906, the constable of South Philipsburg returned a case against Philipsburg, the return being based on an alley alleged to be the boundary line between Philipsburg and South Philipsburg to be in bad repair. The case opened Wednesday and a verdict of not guilty was rendered Thursday forenoon. The costs were divided equally between Philipsburg and the real prosecutor, Joseph Gates. This case caused a good deal of feeling among the citizens of both boroughs. It was contended by Philipsburg that the alley in dispute was not a public alley, and consequently that borough could not be made responsible for its condition.

D. F. Fortney was appointed by the court state auditor for the accounts of prothonotary, register and recorder. Com. vs. George Walker for support of wife and child. Verdict, guilty. Com. vs. Philip Smith and Henry Irwin; charge in both cases insanity. The cases were set as a county to pay costs.

Com. ex relatione F. E. Burkholder, now F. E. Ripka vs. H. H. Harshberger, Jennie R. Hastings and Ross A. Hickok, administrators of etc. of D. H. Hastings, deceased, and John G. Love. The jury was sworn twice, once as to Harshberger and Love, and then as to the administrators of the D. H. Hastings estate deceased. The use plaintiff was a minor child of Felix M. Burkholder, late of Potter township, deceased, and H. H. Harshberger, one of the defendants, was appointed her guardian by the Orphans' Court of Centre County in 1894, and qualified as such by giving his bond in the sum of $4000, with the other two defendants as sureties. The ward coming of age, the guardian could not pay the amount due her as shown by his final account, and admits the amount due, while the sureties defend that they had no notice of the time when the ward became of age and were not apprised of the decree of the Orphans' Court fixing the amount due by the guardian. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff of $2330.67.

Com. ex relatione Morris A. Burkholder vs. H. H. Harshberger, the facts are the same as in the case above stated. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $2318.33.

Com. ex relatione Wilbur E. Burkholder, Harry F. Burkholder, and Ammon R. Burkholder vs. H. H. Harshberger. The facts and circumstances are the same, and these verdicts were rendered: $2292.34; $2318.33; $2285.33, respectively.

The cases against the sureties in the last two mentioned cases were continued to await the disposition of the legal question raised by the sureties in the first case.

Benjamin Kelley vs. John Wining and Wilbur Wining, being an action in trespass. The case grew out of a dispute as to where the line between their properties is. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

J. K. Johnson vs. George H. Leathers; settled.

Spring Mills

Harry Meyer, of Millheim, spent a few days in town last week. As usual he was looking up the insurance business.

Landlord J. Warren Wood purchased a brand new piano last week. Not everybody can boast of a piano in the "Wood House."

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shook returned home Saturday from a trip to Altoona. There is no place like home during the holidays. At least that is what William Roseman said when he stepped off the train last Saturday.

Mr. Moyer, of Coburn, is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. John Rishel.

Mrs. William Colyer, of Centre Hall, spent a few days last week at the home of her father, Philip Heim.

Mrs. C. A. Krape made a shopping trip to Bellefonte Monday.

James Finkle left Thursday morning for Lock Haven where he has secured a position as express clerk.

Broce Gramley was confined to the house several days this week on account of a sore throat.

On returning home last Saturday night, Mrs. James Osman discovered her house filled with smoke. She gave the alarm and in a very short time a large number of people had congregated. However a thorough investigation proved that the fire was all in the stove and the smoke was caused by a rupture in the stove pipe.—Why not get busy, water company!

LOCALS.

Children's rubber boots, $1.25 at Yeagers.

Inexpensive Christmas presents at C. P. Long's.

Men's $2.50 leather slippers reduced to $1.48 at Yeagers.

The boys and girls are hoping their good qualities will pass muster. Christmas is near at hand.

Joseph Kuhn, who makes his home with John Coble, near Linden Hall, is seriously ill, with little hopes of recovery.

The few inches of snow that fell Friday served to partially bridge over the water supply in rural districts where cisterns are depended on.

Richard and William, sons of Rev. J. Max Lantz, of Spring Mills, had been very ill, but now the former is able to again attend school, and the latter to sit up.

Mrs. Lillie Alexander will close her residence in Centre Hall, and the greater part of the winter she will spend with her brother, Hon. W. M. Allison, at Spring Mills.

Samuel Appleman, of Buckhorn, Columbia county, has in his possession a deed made in writing in 1772, in which Thomas and John Penn conveyed to Margaret Duncan a tract of land along Fishing Creek.

Mrs. S. M. Goodhart and little son Wednesday morning left Centre Hall for Taneytown, Maryland, to visit her sister, Mrs. Rev. Wolf, whose son David is seriously ill from pleuropneumonia and inflammatory rheumatism.

Thomas Scholl, of Aaronsburg, was in Centre Hall the latter part of last week, to visit his sister, Mrs. Lucinda Weaver, who has been quite ill for some months. Her condition remains about the same, but there is little hope of her recovery.

The Circle magazine for December is a publication of interest to all people—the sort of magazine a man buys to take home with him and read from cover to cover, then turn over to his wife and the smaller members of his family. There is a department for almost every one.

There were twenty-one persons assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, east of Centre Hall, Tuesday. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smeltzer, of Massena, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smeltzer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jodan, of Pleasant Gap; T. D. Hetzel, of Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sharer and children, of Centre Hall. The former Mr. Smeltzer and wife are visiting relatives in these parts, having been east for the past two weeks.

The postmaster general is getting busy in other people's business, and is recommending that newspaper publishers be prohibited from giving premiums. While such a regulation would not interfere with the Reporter's method of business, it looks after all as though the postoffice department was becoming too nosy for any good purpose. Newspapers should be obliged to comply with the postoffice laws, but why should the postoffice department look into the private business of a newspaper man more than it does into the books of a merchant or farmer?

Woodward.

Mrs. Samuel Orndorf and daughter Edna, of Madisonburg, visited with friends a few days last week.

Mr. Wert, of Booneville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ginzell.

Joe Ard and Noah Ketsney are spending a few days with friends in Lewisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Eby having spent a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Eby, returned to their home in Pottsville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Catherman, of Laurelton, visited their daughter, Mrs. Allen Yearick, last week.

After spending a few months at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Eby, Allen Hess, wife and daughter returned to their home in Yeagertown last week.

Miss Lida Benner returned to her home at Wolf's Chapel on Monday after having spent some time with her sister in this place.

Aaronsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swabb, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Ezra Burd, of Coburn, and James Swabb, of Tusseyville, were to see their mother, who has been ill the past week.

Mrs. McDowell and Miss Jennie Rupp spent the Sabbath with friends at Coburn.

Mrs. Meyer and children and Mrs. Joey Hardenberg, of Millheim, and Mrs. Anna Wolf, of Wolfe Store, were guests at the home of Mrs. Effie Weaver, Monday.

A new chandelier has been placed in the Evangelical church. This is a great improvement over the old one.

E. R. Wolf, of Wolf's Store, was in town Friday evening.

Miss Marion Stover was home to attend the funeral of Thomas Frank. She returned to State College on Thursday.

The ladies of the Reformed sewing circle purchased new lights for the pulpit and the choir.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Over gaiters to match your dress, 50c at Yeagers.

Come and see our Christmas goods, C. P. Long's.

Many a man has a face as red as a beet who isn't.

During the past week the condition of George Swab, at Linden Hall, has not improved.

L. C. Rerick is lying quite ill at his home in Bellefonte as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. M. E. Blanchard, of Bellefonte, is quite ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wister Morris, at Overbrook.

Mrs. Madie Foust, of Potters Mills, is no better. She has been a patient sufferer from cancer for several years.

Two hogs killed by W. H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, weighed 493 and 414 lbs., respectively—the largest hogs reported this season.

George H. Emerick went to Union county Monday afternoon to see his sister, Mrs. Carrie Ruhl, at Buffalo Cross Roads.

William H. Blauser, of Potters Mills, is getting his Arabian ponies well trained. They are a handsome team, and lively steppers.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Gardner Grove, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. E. C. Dietz, of Howard, spent Sunday with Mrs. Ella Showers, in Bellefonte.

Nathaniel H. Zeigler, who for a number of years has lived on the Haney farm along the pike east of Old Fort, will move to the Noll Brothers' farm, above Pleasant Gap.

Elmer R. Loug, of Penns Cave, is making his home for the winter with his brother-in-law, J. F. Kline, at Bald Eagle, Blair county, where Mr. Kline is operating a saw mill.

Word was received from the family of Edward Foreman, of Youngstown, Ohio, that Mr. Foreman is seriously ill from pneumonia, his condition being such that little hopes were entertained for his recovery.

Wednesday afternoon Col. D. F. Fortney delivered an address before the school directors convention at Washington, and today (Thursday) and Friday he will speak at a teachers' institute in Bedford.

Ralph Henry Barbour has surpassed even the charm of his own previous efforts in the rapid-fire movement and absorbing breeziness of his latest novel, "A Fool's Wooing," which is published complete in the January Smart Set.

Mrs. J. Frank Rearick and daughter, Miss Vera, are leaving Philadelphia and will take up a residence in Seattle, Washington. The Rearicks were formerly from Spring Mills, and have many acquaintances among the Reporter readers.

John C. Bible, of Centre Hill, was in town on business Thursday of last week. For the past three years he had been farming for Mrs. Eliza Smith, but next spring he will be succeeded by Lloyd R. Smith, of Altoona, a son of Mrs. Smith.

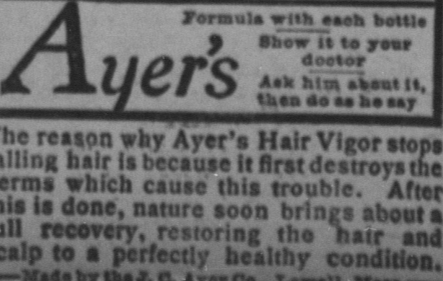

Probably the oldest resident in Potter township is William Auman, who is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Blauser, at Potters Mills. He will be ninety-one years of age in July. His condition recently has been rather feeble, but Tuesday he was able to walk out of the house.

W. C. Lauck, who a short time ago made sale of his farm stock and implements, will move from the Brockers' farm to the Rishel farm, near Stone Mill, owned by H. C. Shirk, of Centre Hall. Mr. Lauck and Mr. Shirk will buy up stock and implements jointly, and farm under a plan adopted to some extent during the past ten years which seems to prove profitable both to tenant and owner.

Hickory timber that will work into spokes for light wheels is being sought with a searchlight in Pennsylvania. A. L. Barnes, representing the Dibble Spoke Company, of Penn Yan, N. Y., has completed negotiations for the purchase of a tract of land near Oval covered with about 80,000 feet of hickory timber of the second growth. The trees range in diameter from eight to 18 inches. They will be sawed into lengths and shipped to Penn Yan, where the lumber will be used in making spokes.

Stops Hair Falling

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this. Does not change the color of the hair.

The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about a full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition.
