> > The man who would seek to deprive the children of the happiness which flows from their belief in Santa Claus should be taken into the woods and tied to a hemlock tree until after the holidays. Of all knockers the Christmas knocker is the most despicable. for he attempts to decrease the pleasures of the children without any beneficial result. He himself does not bemit the little tots to enjoy the Christmas festival in their own way. It's a mean man who will deprive children of their happiness, no matter under what guise he appears.
