

CATARRH IN HEAD.

Pe-ru-na--Pe-ru-na.

MR. WM. A. PRESSER.

MR. WILLIAM A. PRESSER, 1722 Third Ave., Moline, Ill., writes: "I have been suffering from catarrh in the head for the past two months and tried innumerable so-called remedies without avail. No one knows how I have suffered, not only from the disease itself, but from mortification when in company of friends or strangers."

"I have used two bottles of your medicine for a short time only, and it effected a complete medical cure, and what is better yet, the disease has not returned."

"I can most emphatically recommend Pe-ru-na to all sufferers from this disease."

Read This Experience.
Mr. A. Thompson, Box 65, R. R. 1, Martel, Ohio, writes: "When I began your treatment my eyes were inflamed, nose was stopped up half of the time, and was sore and scabby. I could not rest at night on account of continual sneezing and spitting."

"I had tried several remedies and was about to give up, but thought I would try Pe-ru-na."

"After I had taken about one-third of a bottle I noticed a difference. I am now completely cured, after suffering with catarrh for eighteen years."

"I think if those who are afflicted with catarrh would try Pe-ru-na they would never regret it."

Pe-ru-na is manufactured by The Pe-ru-na Drug Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Our Wonderful Bodies.
The mechanism of the human body is the most complicated and perfect in existence. There is no movement known to engineers which does not exist in our bodies. The muscles alone number 500,000,000, the alimentary canal measures about 32 feet.

The heart is six inches in length and four inches in diameter, and beats 70 times a minute, 4,200 an hour, 100,800 times a day. At each beat of the heart two and a half ounces of blood are thrown out of it, 175 ounces a minute, 656 1/4 pounds an hour.

All the blood in the body passes through the heart in three minutes. This little organ, by its ceaseless industry, pumps each day what is equal to lifting 122 tons one foot high, or one ton 122 feet high.

Each square inch of our skin contains 3,500 perspiratory pores, each of which may be likened to a little drainpipe one-fourth of an inch long, making an aggregate length in the entire surface of the body of 201,166 feet.

Balzac And The Thief.
A story of Balzac is related by a French contemporary. A burglar gained admission to Balzac's house and was soon at work, by the light of the moon, at the lock of the secretaire in the novelist's chamber. A strident laugh arrested his operations and he held up in the moonlight the novelist sitting up in bed, his sides aching with laughter.

"What is it that makes you merry?" demanded the burglar.
"I laugh," replied the author of "Pere Goriot," "to think that you should come in the night without a lantern to search my secretaire for money when I can never find any there in broad daylight."—Westminster Gazette.

HER MOTHER-IN-LAW Proved a Wise, Good Friend.
A young woman out in Ia. found a wise, good friend in her mother-in-law, jokes notwithstanding. She writes:

"It is two years since we began using Postum in our house. I was greatly troubled with my stomach, complexion was blotchy and yellow. After meals I often suffered sharp pains and would have to lie down. My mother often told me it was the coffee I drank at meals. But when I'd quit coffee I'd have a severe headache."

"While visiting my mother-in-law I remarked that she always made such good coffee, and asked her to tell me how. She laughed and told me it was easy to make good 'coffee' when you use Postum."

"I began to use Postum as soon as I got home, and now we have the same good 'coffee' (Postum) every day, and I have no more trouble. Indigestion is a thing of the past, and my complexion has cleared up beautifully."

NEWS OF PENNSYLVANIA

SIX MASKED MEN HOLD UP Aged People Forced to Give Up $1,500 In Cash.

Pittsburg (Special).—Blinding, gagging and assaulting, Solomon Loughner, 80 years of age, and his two sisters, both of whom are between 70 and 80 years old, six masked robbers ransacked the house, secured about $1,500 in cash, ate their supper and then disappeared. The Loughners live on an isolated farm midway between Jeannette and Harrison City. The aged brother and sisters are in a serious condition from the ill treatment and shock received at the hands of the six highwaymen. A troop of Pennsylvania state constabulary arrived at the farmhouse from Greensburg, and a rigid search for the robbers is in progress.

Mr. Loughner and his sisters were seated at the table eating their supper when the men suddenly broke into the house. Owing to their advanced age the three of them were powerless to protect themselves. They screamed and were given hard blows in the face. Then they were bound and gagged. The men said they knew a large sum of money was in the house and they wanted it. The aged victims refused to divulge the hiding place, however, and the men instituted a search. Unsuccessful in finding the money, they drew out revolvers and pointed the weapons at Loughner and his sisters, threatening death. Then one of the highwaymen said:

"I'll tell you, let's burn the house and cremate them."

Mr. Loughner then led the men to a small safe and opened it. After taking the contents, $1,500, the robbers disappeared.

TOSSED COIN, WINS $30,000.

Fortune Smiles Twice On Pittsburg Millionaire In House Deal.
Pittsburg (Special).—The toss of a coin won $30,000 in real money for Gilbert T. Rafferty, millionaire and coal man.

Mr. Rafferty spends most of his time at the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York. He comes to Pittsburg occasionally, on his last visit he gave his Pittsburg house into broker's hands to sell. The broker found a purchaser, who offered $125,000. Mr. Rafferty wanted $25,000 more, and at his suggestion a coin was flipped to see what price was to be paid. The would-be purchaser lost and paid Mr. Rafferty $150,000.

Then the broker put in his bill for $5,000. Mr. Rafferty suggested to the broker that a coin be flipped to see whether the commission should be $10,000 or nothing. The broker agreed. He lost, too, and Rafferty, the possessor of millions, added $30,000 more to his bank account.

MUSEUM TO AID SCHOOLS.

State Collection of Lantern Slides To Be Loaned To Districts.
The State Museum will enlarge the field of its activity by issuing hundreds of lantern slides free to schools to further educational work. The plan which was worked out by Miss Alicia M. Zierden, curator of the State Museum, will give the use of 4,500 slides covering every subject commonly taught in schools, to districts which apply for them, as well as study clubs, societies, institutes and similar bodies.

Among the subjects are a number covering natural history, forestry, zoology, geology, the history of transportation, metallurgy, agricultural, history of civilization, architecture and art.

Jail Delivery At York.
York (Special).—York's $125,000 jail, only recently erected, failed to hold Augustus Stallman, Otto Plath and Harry Ziegler, boys ranging in ages from 16 to 19 years. These three escaped from the new prison by sawing the bars in their cell window on the fourth floor and sliding an iron bar extending to the ground. They then scaled the walls, it is believed, by means of a rope with a hook attached to one end.

Reopen Thomaston Mines.
Pottsville (Special).—After being abandoned for twenty-five years the Thomaston Mines in the Heckscher-ville Valley are to be reopened, tunnels will be driven to tap the veins on the south dip. The product will be conveyed to the breaker of the East Pine Knot shaft, a new and extensive operation of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company.

Closes City's Sewage Plant.
Reading (Special).—The sewage disposal plant of this city was closed down, and the sewerage is now flowing into the Schuylkill River. This was brought about through the inability of the city to meet its monthly payment to the contractor, O. A. Weand. The latter gave notice a week ago that if he was not paid the plant would be closed.

Juror Alleges Attempted Bribery.
Media (Special).—The case of the American Lime, Stone & Cement Company against Glenoiden Borough for money alleged to be due on a sewer contract came to an abrupt end when Juror T. H. Brown of Lansdowne, arose and informed the Court that he had been approached on the case by John Loveland, a witness for the borough. The Court said from the bench that it was a serious offense, and it is expected that further action will be taken by the Court.

SUFFOCATES IN CAR.

Brewery Employee Starts Fire, Then Door Shuts.

Mahanoy (Special).—Locked in an air-tight refrigerator car after he had kindled a fire in one corner to prevent the chilling of several barrels of beer, Frank Glinther had a harrowing experience.

After starting the fire Glinther found the door had been shut by the wind. He kicked upon the door and called to attract attention of men outside, but could not make himself heard.

Exhausted by his efforts and overcome by the smoke, which could not escape, Glinther sank to the floor, where he was found unconscious an hour later, his face glued to a crack.

STATE ITEMS.

Harrisburg had the banner birth rate of its history in December, there being 126 births recorded. The deaths in the same period were 84.

Citizens of Doylestown have offered a lot to the State Armory Board if the State will erect an armory. It will be acted upon late this month.

Harry E. Jackson, a senior at Dickinson College, from New York City, fell dead in his room at the Todd Hospital, at Carlisle, while attempting to walk in a convalescent condition following an operation for appendicitis.

Judge William A. Harr, of Ashland, who retired from the bench after a term of ten years as additional law judge, was tendered a banquet by the members of the Schuylkill County Bar, at Pottsville, last night. A gold watch was given to him. Judges Shay, Brumm and Wilhelm and former Judge O. F. Bechtel responded to the toasts.

In South Bethlehem last year there were 310 deaths and 690 births.

Excitement following a drawing for a gold watch for the benefit of an injured fellow-employee caused the death of John Hardick, 21 years old, of Mahanoy City, at St. Nicholas Colliery. Hardick just missed winning the watch by one number.

Payments of insurance taxes are commencing to swell the receipts at the State Treasury. The receipts from the tax on premiums of foreign companies doing business in Pennsylvania last year aggregated $1,300,000. The year before it was $1,299,630.22. The receipts from domestic companies for 1907 were $1,975,416.69.

The defunct Cosmopolitan National Bank, of Pittsburg, by an order of the Court must repay to the city's delinquent tax collector $75,000, which he had deposited with the bank when it was closed by the Federal authorities.

COULD NOT SHAKE IT OFF.

Kidney Trouble Contracted by Thousands in the Civil War.

James W. Clay, 666 W. Fayette St., Baltimore, Md., says: "I was troubled with kidney complaint from the time of the Civil War. There was constant pain in the back and head and the kidney secretions were painful and showed a sediment. The first remedy to help me was Doan's Kidney Pills. Three boxes made a complete cure and during five years past I have had no return of the trouble."

Accounted For.
On a voyage of the Pacific Mail liner China, Capt. Dan. Friele—"Ninety Fathom Dan," as he is called in affectionate tribute to his care for the lives and property dependent upon his skill—was annoyed by the persistent and not otherwise chattering of a garrulous passenger.

Whenever the Captain appeared on deck his persecutor was there waiting with some idiotic question or insane and drawn-out yawn. One day the wind kicked up a nasty sea in which the China pitched and tossed like an eggshell in a pot of boiling coffee. "Ninety Fathom Dan," in dripping slakins, his weather-beaten cheeks glowing from the lashing of the spray-lashing gale, came down from the bridge and at the saloon companionway was waylaid by the pest. The pest's complexion was a muddy green, and it required no experienced eye to see that the China's antics had shaken his system, full of bile.

"Morning, Captain," he said.
"Morning," growled Dan, who started away in a hurry.
"Oh, Captain; just a minute," persisted the pest. "I've crossed the Atlantic a dozen times in weather often worse than this, but I was never seasick before. Can you account for it?"

"Yes, sir," replied the Captain.
"What do you think it is, Captain?"
"Bad memory, sir!"

Rheumatism Prescription.
Considerable discussion is being caused among the medical fraternity by the increased use of whiskey for rheumatism. It is an almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. The following is the formula:

"One ounce of Toris compound and one ounce of syrup Sarsaparilla compound. Add one-half pint of good whiskey. Take in tablespoonful doses before each meal and before retiring."

This is said to produce almost immediate results.

"Jack Robinson."

Few people who use the phrase are aware that "Jack Robinson" was a real person.

As a politician John Robinson was a great favorite with George III. His political career was a long one, for he was a member of Parliament from Harwich during 25 years, being on one occasion bitterly attacked by Sheridan, who, denouncing bribery and its instigators, replied to the cries of "Name, name!" by pointing to Robinson on the Treasury bench, exclaiming at the same time: "Yes, I could name him as soon as I could say 'Jack Robinson!' and thus originated the saying still current."

FRIEND SAID TO USE CUTICURA

After Specialist Failed to Cure Her Intense Itching Eczema—Had Been Tortured and Disfigured—Was Soon Cured of Dread Humor.

"I contracted eczema and suffered intensely for about ten months. At times I thought I would scratch myself to pieces. My face and arms were covered with large red patches, so that I was ashamed to go out. I was advised to go to a doctor who was a specialist in skin diseases, but I received very little relief. I tried every known remedy, with the same results. I thought I would never get better until a friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies. So I tried them, and after four or five applications of Cuticura Ointment I was relieved of my unbearable itching. I used two sets of the Cuticura Remedies and I am completely cured.
