THE NEW SCHOOL CODE.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

for the Reporter by James B. Strohm

The following is a brief summary of the new school code as it applies to townships and boroughs, having been carefully prepared by James B. Strohm :

Five directors shall constitute a board and shall serve for five years, one being elected annually; their terms of office beginning on the first Monday of April following their election ; at which time the board shall organize by electing from their number a president and a vice president ; and shall also elect a secretary who may be a member of the board, and a treasurer who shall not be a member of the board. The fiscal year shall begin on the first Monday of July, at which time the secretary and the treasurer shall enter upon their duties, after giving bonds for the faithful performance of the same.

All real estate, personal property and occupations are made taxable for school purposes, and each male resident shall pay in addition, an occupation tax of at least one dollar. No discounts or abatements shall be allowed on the payment of school taxes, and collectors of the same shall fully account for and pay over to the treasurer the total amount on or before the first day of March following the year in which he was elected. The maximum rate for schools shall not exceed 25 mills on the dollar.

All new school buildings shall be built in accordance with plans and specifications furnished by the State Board of Education.

Text-books shall not be changed oftener than once in five years, and then only upon the recommendation of a majority of the teachers who use them. Directors may however disregard the wishes of teachers and adopt or change books by the affirmative votes of three-fourths of the board All text-books used shall be selected from the approved lists of publications made by the State Board of Education ; said lists shall include, in each subject, not less than three different books published by separate publishers. The purchase of books, supplies, furniture. etc., where the amount exceeds $100. shall be by competitive bids.

Agents for books and supplies will not be allowed to be present during a vote for adoption of books or supplies The State Board of Education shall consist of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and six persons, appointed by the Governor, of whom three shall be successful educators of high standing, who shall serve without compensation, other than the payment of their necessary expenses in curred in the performance of their duties. Among their duties are to prescribe rules and regulations for the examination of teachers; to prepare approved lists of text-books and supplies ; and to prescribe regulations for proper sanitation of school buildings Teachers, who are related to any member of the board may not be employed, unless such teacher receives the affirmative votes of three-fourths of all the members of the board. Persons und r eighteen years of age shall not be employed. Any teacher who refuses to teach through the term for which he was engaged, unless prevented by illness, shall be disqualified from teaching elsewhere in the state, during the term of the contract. No teacher shall teach more than five school terms on provisional certificates. Bruin was first seen in a hole and the presumption being that after five years' experience they should have made sufficient advancement to entitle them to professional certificates. The appointment of a medical inspector is provided for, who shall each year inspect, test and examine all pupils in his district, giving special attention to defective sight and hearing, ed for a chain, but while he was gone and shall give careful directions con- the bear revived, and tearing its fastencerning care and treatment of pupils ings came at Mr. Lovett.
