

DEATHS.

MRS THOMAS RISHEL. Saturday afternoon, a quarter past five o'clock, Sarah Catharine, wife of Thomas Rishel, died very suddenly at her home on North Thomas street, Bellefonte. She had been in delicate health for several years but was up and about her household work as usual until about a week previous to her death when she was taken ill. The deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah Catharine Raymond, was the daughter of Thomas Raymond, deceased, and was born at Centre Hall, February 24, 1867, making her age at time of death, forty-one years, eleven months and twenty days. She was married to Thomas Rishel, section boss on the Bellefonte Central Railroad, who survives her with two children, namely, Edward Rishel, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Iva, at home. She also leaves three brothers and two sisters as follows: William, of Virginia; John of Bellefonte; George, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Maggie Free, of Avis, and Mrs. Annie Dullen, of Lock Haven.

Wednesday afternoon of last week death claimed as a victim Herman Robb, of Bellefonte. He was a shoemaker by trade and was employed in Mingle's shoe store. He was born at Eagleville and was sixty-five years old. Surviving are his wife and five daughters.

Ellis Kreamer, who was a former resident of Penn township, died at his home at Winfield, Union county, of paralysis, aged about eighty-four years. He leaves to survive a widow and six children.

The Borough Election.

The borough election passed off as quietly and as smoothly as a pea vine climbs up a pole. There was no electioneering of any character, the polls being much deserted during the entire day. One hundred and twelve votes were cast. The vote for school directors was very close, the victors receiving fifty-five votes each, against fifty-four votes cast for each of the defeated ones. The full vote appears elsewhere in this issue.

Woodward.

Miss Bessie VonNeida, of Reading, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James VonNeida. Quite a number of people from this place attended auction at Fiedler last Saturday. Miss Bertha Throssell, of Millheim, is visiting friends in town. Wilson S. Ard, Jr., wife and son are visiting the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Ard. Revival services are still being conducted in United Evangelical church. Miss Bertha Hoeterman, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoeterman. Irvin Smith and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James VonNeida. A. C. Blifer, of Lewisburg, spent a few days last week with Joseph Ard.

Chick Feed.

See George E. Breen, Centre Hall, if you wish to purchase Chick Feed. Sold at a remarkably low price. Investigate before buying elsewhere.

Mrs. J. A. Reesman is in New Jersey with her grandson, C. W. Reesman. She was called there on account of the illness of baby Reesman.

Horse, Buggy, Etc. for Sale.

W. Gross Mingle offers at private sale the following: Driving mare, top buggy, open Concord wagon, two sets harness, spring wagon, blankets, etc.

LOCALS

Mrs. Helen C. Beegle, field secretary, will be at Centre Hall, Tusseyville and Spring Mills, at the hours of the appointments of Rev. B. F. Bieker at those points, and will talk on missions. Messrs. J. F. Bible and D. C. Rossman, of Centre Hall, were callers Monday, the former on account of the farm stock and implement sale he and his father will have in March, and the latter on a bit of business of no public interest. Mr. Roseman just returned from a few weeks stay at Siglerville, where he spent the time in finishing up a lot of implements, etc., to be used when he begins farming on the Bartholomew farm, near Centre Hill, purchased by him.

The leading musical instrument dealer in Central Pennsylvania—M. C. Gephart, Bellefonte—advertises a special sale of instruments. These instruments are termed second hand, yet a less scrupulous dealer would sell them as "just from the factory." The truth is they are just like new in appearance, and just as serviceable. Call on Mr. Gephart in person, call him over the phone, or write to him if you have the slightest idea of making a purchase at this time.

In this issue the reader will find a brief summary of the new school code prepared by James B. Strohm. The sections of the proposed law are reduced to the least possible number of words to convey their meaning, and the sections cited apply to townships and boroughs. There is much in the code that applies to cities of the first and second class, reference to which is omitted. Mr. Strohm is a thorough school man, and is not only acquainted with the work in the school room, but with the need of education. His article, however, does not express his personal view, but he gives the essence of the new code as it will apply if it becomes a law.

Tablets, all sizes, at the Reporter's office.

LOCALS

Even the detective may become a mere shadow of his former self. D. Ross Bushman advertises day-old chicks and eggs for hatching. He is a young man, but has given much attention to poultry, and has been meeting with good success.

Birthday post cards, the finest collection ever purchased, are now on hand at the Reporter office. Two for five cents, three for five cents, and cheaper, are the prices. The bottom has been knocked out of the price.

M. B. Duck, accompanied by his son Magnus Duck, of Spring Mills, was in Centre Hall Monday. Mr. Duck is one of Gregg township's most respected citizens, and always took a great interest in public affairs, especially public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster D. Walker, of Philadelphia, are at the home of Charles Weaver, at Linden Hall, and expect to remain for some time. Mr. Walker is a machinist, but the firm for which he had been working closed their shops, and the time for reopening has not been set.

T. Howard Webb, of Lincoln University, advertises for five hundred bushels of clover seed in this issue. Mr. Webb represents Slocum & Company, of Wilmington, Delaware, builders of hot air engines, used largely in pumping water. Engines of this character have been installed by William H. Homan, east of Centre Hall, and John T. Spangler, at Tusseyville, and others in this locality.

So that gatherings of a local character will not conflict, the date for the Shaffer-Hazel reunion has been announced. The time set is June 17th, on Grange Park, Centre Hall. While the affair is one in which those connected with one or the other of the families named are most interested, an invitation is extended to all to attend. One need only recall the pleasant day spent with these people last year to decide that a repetition of the pleasures is desirable.

Read the cut price sale of C. W. Swartz, the Tusseyville merchant. You will find Merchant Swartz doing just what he advertises, and his word always good whether spoken back of the counter, or to his customers through an advertisement. There are few country stores that carry as clean and complete line of general merchandise as will be found at the Swartz store at Tusseyville. His customers, of course, are well aware of this, and others should investigate for their own benefit.

With the continued high price of butter during all seasons of the year, it will more than ever pay farmers to give better attention to the cow and her product. There is just as much necessity in selecting the best cream separators as there is in buying the best cow. It is poor judgment to purchase a hard running rattle-clap machine when the same money will buy one that runs much easier and smoother, and, of course, a machine having these qualities will run much longer without an additional outlay for expensive repairs. Another feature of the cream separator not to be overlooked is that of absolutely clean skimming. The nearest approach to perfection in the cream separator—all points considered—is the DeLaval, and many owners of other makes would gladly exchange for part pay their partly-worn machines for this most complete and durable one. D. W. Bradford, of Centre Hall, has sold many of the DeLaval separators, which are made in all sizes, and he finds the farmer has solved the problem of keeping the cream separator adjusted to do its best work the instant the DeLaval is installed.

The bill fathered by Representative Scott, of Philadelphia, is calculated to jack-up the business of the courts in the state. There is much complaint about the tardiness of judges in rendering decisions, and Mr. Scott figures that with judges it is like others—nothing talks like money. His bill provides that when judges make demands for their monthly salaries they must make oath that no cases have been in their hands for a longer time than sixty days without the consent of the parties interested. The reason for delay of judges in making decisions appears to be unexplainable, but it is claimed that in most instances the delays are unnecessary.

Last Friday Judge C. R. Savidge, of Sunbury, especially presiding in the Centre county courts, handed down two decrees in cases before him. In the case of E. S. Bennett vs. Frank McCoy in which the jury found for defendant, he sustained the verdict and refused a new trial. In the case of S. A. Brew, admr., vs. Christ Sharer, the jury found for defendant and verdict was sustained and new trial refused.

HORSES FOR SALE—The undersigned offers for sale three of his five horses. One is a sorrel horse, rising six years old, sound, fast and a good first-class animal and heavy enough for any kind of work. A bay mare, will work anywhere, heavy enough for farm work and is a good family horse; a woman need have no fear of anti-mobies when behind her. A bay horse, rising three years old. Well made and correct. Will develop into a heavy draft horse. Has been hitched, and worked to perfection. Call at Reporter office. S. W. SMITH, Centre Hall, Pa. Centre Reporter, $1.00 per year.

KERLIN'S Grand View Poultry Farm CENTRE HALL, PA. Highest Cash Price Paid for Fresh Eggs at all ... Times ... Eggs for Hatching or Baby Chicks From our GREAT Winter-laying strain of Barred Plymouth Rocks and Single-comb White Leghorns. The fact that our hens produced during the month of December as high as $6.75 per day and over $6 worth of Eggs a day during January—Winter months—justifies us in calling them great layers. The reason is this: Our hens have been bred from a WINTER-LAYING strain. If you hatch from hens which lay only Spring and Summer you will have only Spring and Summer layers and no Winter layers when eggs are way up in price. This is a fact that many do not know, but we can prove it and it seems reasonable. We have had no disease of any kind since in the business, not even a single case of the snap. We have no one hired to do the work, but give it our PERSONAL ATTENTION, and you will find us at home any time you call. We are looking a good many orders (unsolicited) so let us have your order early, as we had to refuse a number of orders last season which got in late. If you want an INCUBATOR or BROODER we can get you any make you desire at ACTUAL COST. Also have on hand at all times at right prices Chick Feed, Mixed Grains for Laying Hens, Beef Scraps, Grit Oyster Shells, Electric Poultry Food, Conkey's Laying Tonic and a Full Line of Poultry Supplies. Can ship any distance and guarantee safe arrival. Yours for more eggs the year round, ARTHUR E. KERLIN & WM. W. KERLIN
