NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.

In the Court House and Surroundings-

Things are Not as They Ought to be. Possibly Centre County tax payers are not in the mood to erect a new court house, but it cannot be denied in that the present apology of a temple of justice is about the bummiest thing Bellefonte. There is not a commendable thing about it, unless you have a special liking for the antiquated.

The offices occupied by the various county officials are dingy corners, wholly unfit for occupancy from a sanitary point of view. Disease germs are certain to have a long tenure of life once they find their way into any of the offices leading from a corridor that has every appearance a subterranean cavero, that ought to make Mattern, Dr. J. C. Beale, Forrest N. any ordinary man shiver on entering

Aside from the offices in the county court house being unfit tenaments from a sanitary view point, they are uninviting in the extreme. The floors, walls and ceilings are all lacking anything that has a claim to being tasty, and the only suggestion of ornamentations, are the irregular crevices visible here, there and everywhere.

The main court room, the grand jury room, pettit jury room, the cloak cents puts them all to shame.

A ladies' waiting room, however so plain, is needed. It is a shame and disgrace to oblige aged ladies, young women and sweet-faced little children to sit in the main auditorium and hear the sometimes necessary vulgar testimony, and suggestive questioning by attorneys.

Let it be repeated, it is an outrage to force women and children to sit within the hearing of much of the testimony given during many of the ses sions of the court. Because some of these have been unfortunate, not all of them have lost all self respect. As long as there is a blush for shame there is a hope for the mending of ways.

The grand jury that obliges the county authorities to provide a retreat for the mothers and daughters, who for any cause must appear before court. will earn the gratitude of every one except the miserable miser.

Perhaps this is not the time to build a new court house, but it neve. theless cannot be denied that the present court house, as a whole, has the appearance and accommodations of a nest

M. Shaffer Has Hemorrhag a

Michael Shaffer, who makes his home with his son Bigler Sheffer, east of (entre Hall, suffered a series of hemorrhages of the nose during the past two weeks. The first hemorrhage was slight and was experienced on the for the past few days. 14th instant. Little was thought of it. as there had been no loss of blood of any consequence. Tuesday morning of last week at three o'clock a second hemorrhage followed; Wednesday there were three bleedings, and Thursday one, all but the last one having been excessive. Since the last attack Mr. Shaffer has gained some strength, and it is thought he will ultimately

Mr. Shaffer is a remarkable man. He will be eighty-six years old August 16th, and Friday previous to his first attack walked to Centre Hall, a distonce of about two or two and one-half miles, se he had done a hundred or more times. In passing the Reporter office that day, his alert step attracted the attention of those who saw him, and it was remarked that he was by all odds the hardiest man for his age in this section, if not in the county. What is more Mr. Shaffer has had the full use of all his faculties, and enjoyed life to the fullest extent. The Reporter hopes that he will again recover, and be able to reach the century mark, without aches or pains.

Odd Fellows' Banquet. The Spring Mills Lodge, No. 579, I. O. O. F., held their annual banquet at the Penns Cave hotel on Washington's Birthday. Between eighty and ninety members and guests marched into the dining room to a sumptuous five-course dinner. J. S. Meyer, Eeq , acted as toastmaster and toasts were responded to by T. M. Gramley, Dr. H. S. Braucht, J. F. Bitner and others. The Spring Mills orchestra furnished excellent music throughout the day and many of the younger set took advantage of the opportunity to dance. A very interesting feature of the program was the grand march executed by a number of the brothers in the old Shorthorn bull; 5 head young cattle; 12 lodge. All unite4n voting the affair a grand success in every respect.
