

FEBRUARY COURT.

Devoted to hearing Commonwealth cases Monday and Tuesday.

February session of court convened Monday morning at ten o'clock, and the forenoon session was taken up in calling and swearing the grand jury. J. P. Sebring, a retired farmer of Half Moon township, was chosen foreman. Hearing motions and petitions on the part of the several members of the bar and taking the return of the constables of the several townships and boroughs of the county occupied the remainder of the time until twelve o'clock when court adjourned until two o'clock. After hearing motions and petitions, the first case was taken up.

Com. vs. Joseph Conaway, prosecutrix Gertrude Vonada; indicted first count, assault and battery; second count, assault with attempt to commit rape. The trouble occurred in Snow Shoe township, Oct. 11, 1908. After hearing part of the Commonwealth's testimony the defendant changed pleas from not guilty to that of guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $100, costs of prosecution, and to the Huntingdon Reformatory.

Com. vs. Thaddeus M. Meyers, prosecutor T. L. Casey; indicted for leasing house for immoral purpose. Defendant waived the finding of grand jury, plead guilty and sentence was suspended upon payment of the costs.

Com. vs. Mrs. Rowdell Meyers, indicted leasing house for immoral purposes. Defendant waived finding of grand jury and plead guilty.

Com. vs. Elvina Eversole, prosecutor T. L. Casey; indicted for keeping bawdy house. Defendant waived finding of grand jury and plead guilty. The above three cases are from Phillipsburg, and the prosecutor is a member of the state constabulary.

The Sciota Sign Co. vs. James F. Stott, appeal. Plaintiffs suffered a voluntary non-suit.

Fillmore Craig vs. D. J. Gingery, appeal, continued at cost of defendant.

Daniel Lutz vs. Harry Beck, appeal, defendant confessed judgment in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $60.02.

Com. vs. James G. Grafmeyer, prosecutrix Lillian A. Grafmeyer, indicted first count, assault and battery, second count, separating from wife and neglecting to support wife; third count, separating from child and neglecting to support it. This grows out of an altercation between prosecutrix and defendant on January 28, 1909, and the subsequent separation alleged early in February. Verdict, guilty on three counts, and motion made for new trial.

Com. vs. Jerry Sowers, prosecutors W. I. Gilliland and W. E. Sowers; charged with malicious mischief. Defendant waived finding of grand jury and plead guilty.

Com. vs. Robert Ward, prosecutrix Elmira Brown, indicted for desertion and non-support of his three children. Defendant plead guilty.

Com. vs. Frank Campbell, indicted for open lewdness; prosecutor John Justice, policeman. Defendant plead guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10.00, costs of prosecution, and ten days in county jail.

T. B. Budinger vs. Wm. Kioski, appeal. This is an action brought to recover on a book account. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $154.90.

Lloyd Smith returned home after spending some time at Spring Mills.

The protracted meetings at Spruce-town will be brought to a close this week. The attendance at these meetings was quite large.

DEATHS.

MRS. HOWARD MEYER.

After an illness of two weeks from acute indigestion, Mrs. Howard Meyer died at her home in Williamsport, Tuesday of last week. Interment was made Sunday.

The maiden name of the deceased was Miss Annie M. Runkle, daughter of John P. Runkle, of Potter township. She was aged fifty-three years, eleven months and eight days. Her husband survives as do also two sons and one daughter, all married. The brothers and sisters surviving are Capt. William H. Runkle, Centre Hall; James Runkle, Spruce-town; Mrs. Emeline Shutt, Centre Hall, and Mrs. John Mitchell, Williamsport.

The Meyer family formerly lived in Centre Hall, but moved away a number of years ago.

FREDERICK GLASGOW.

Frederick, a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow, of near Tusseyville, died Sunday afternoon. Funeral Wednesday morning, interment at Tusseyville, Rev. Gress officiating.

The boy, who was eight or nine years old, had been ill for some weeks from a complication of diseases. A consultation was held by physicians a short time before his death, and the disease was decided to be tuberculosis. Everything possible was done to save the lad, but death made its claim at the time mentioned above.

Beside the parents, a younger brother survives.

Mrs. Catharine Bressler, more familiarly known as "Grandmother" Bressler, died at her home near Marengo, after a lingering illness from a complication of diseases. She was seventy-four years old and most of her life was spent in the vicinity of her birth. Three sons and one daughter survive, also several step-children. Her husband died many years ago.

The Weather Man.

Thursday, 18th instant, it was cloudy and warm, the two extreme points which the thermometer registered having been 40 and 51. Friday the same was 46 and 44, with ten hundredth inches of rain. Saturday thirty-two one hundredth inches of rain fell, and the thermometer indicated 40 and 35. Sunday there was a trace of rain, mercury registering 46 and 39.

Monday it was fair, with the extremes in temperature at 55 and 36. Tuesday rain set in about eight o'clock and continued throughout almost all of the day, the fall aggregating one and seven one hundredth inches, with the mercury at 38 and 28. Wednesday the temperature was about the same, the day beginning with rain.

Married at Methodist Parsonage.

Charles Masett and Miss Carrie Love, both of Honey Grove, Juniata county, were married at the Methodist parsonage, Spring Mills, by Rev. J. Max Lantz, on the 11th inst.

LOCALS

The Pink Label this week. Andrew Smith, who for some time had been living in Lock Haven, is now located at Mackeyville.

Mrs. S. H. Knepley, of Centre Hall, has been seriously ill during the past week. Her condition is such that there is not much hope for recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bradford gave a card party to a number of their friends Tuesday evening. The choicest and delectable refreshments were served.

The Logan National Bank expects to open its doors for business, Monday, March 1st, with W. A. Morris cashier. The bank is located in a good field and has bright prospects before it.

If any person, by mistake, took a silver fork that does not belong to them, at the County Grange meeting, the owner will be pleased if they will leave the same with Miss Florence Rhoads.

Claude K. Stahl, who has been in the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in Altoona, for several years, is home to recover a slight break in health. He is taking the pure air cure, the doses being as frequent as the lungs can be made to perform their work.

From the best information at hand all the residents of Centre Hall have houses into which to move, April 1st, except J. A. Reesman, the tinsmith. It appears he cannot find accommodations anywhere in the borough. Mr. Reesman has been a resident here for many years, and has paid enough rent to buy several modest dwelling houses.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber, of Centre Hall, are in New York, having gone there Saturday. While in the metropolis they will be entertained and shown the sights by their son, S. E. Weber, who with his wife have been living there for several years. Mr. Weber is expected back the latter part of this week, but Mrs. Weber may stay a while longer.

Did the Best He Knew.

Geordie Horn was a character well known among the country-folk of the Scotch highlands twenty-five years ago. He belonged to a class rather hard to classify, for he was neither a tramp nor a farm hand, although frequently following the habits of both. Wandering from farm to farm, the greater part of the time he was kindly treated and hospitably entertained generally. While he was a man of unusual strength, he was mentally weak and exceedingly laxy.

"He's a gie cute chiel, though slow in the uptake" (understanding), was the way a good many described him.

One day he arrived at his friend the doctor's and complained of a severe pain in his breast. The doctor handed him a plaster, with instructions to put it on his chest without delay. Geordie gave him one of his knowing looks and took his departure. The doctor met him a few days later and inquired how he was feeling now. Geordie replied, "Nae better." "Did you do as I told you with the plaster?" the doctor went on.

"Weel, no, not exactly. I done the best I could. I didn't have a chest, see I stuck it on my handbox" (hat box).

An Expensive Dollar.

Not long ago in this town a kind friend of the family gave one of the kids a dollar. Of course it was too much to let the kid get out and spend for candy and gum, so it was religiously put up on the sideboard or some other safe place to be kept—just for what the deponent saith not. In about a week the juvenile owner of the big round coin remarked at the breakfast table, "Papa, mamma spent my dollar yesterday." The head of the house took the hint and fished up another dollar, which, like its predecessor, was placed in a good safe place to keep.

During the next month by a carefully tabulated record which he kept on his cuff he repaid this elusive dollar just thirteen times. So at the end of the month you will not be surprised to learn that our friend sent the donor of the original dollar this curt note:

Dear Sir—Inclosed you will find a check for $13. It's the dollar you gave our youngster. I return it simply to avoid bankruptcy. Already it has cost me somewhere between fifteen and twenty.

—Lamah (Mo.) Democrat.

Dollar Fish.

"Have you any dollar fish here?" a woman asked of one of the attendants at the aquarium.

While the question may seem curious, it was really very simple, for the dollar fish is only a young moonfish.

The moonfish is a curious but beautiful creature, almost round in shape and extremely thin and having the loveliest of pearly sides. It swims on edge, so that it always presents its sides of pearl to view. It takes its name from its shape and because, further, in color it suggests the silvery moon.

Young moonfish of the size of a standard silver dollar—and they are scarcely any thicker—are called dollar fishes because of their resemblance to that coin in size and shape and color, and the woman making the inquiry about dollar fishes was duly informed that there was none in the tanks at the present time, but that they did have them occasionally. —New York Sun.

Three Sabbaths Each Week in Tangier.

Morocco is a country of many Sabbaths. The first three days I spent in Tangier were all Sabbaths. Arriving on a Thursday night, the next day was Friday, the Mohammedan Sabbath, which was followed by the Jewish Sabbath—the Hebrew element in Tangier is considerable and strict in religious observance—and that in turn by the Christian Sunday. Subsequent comparison, however, revealed little difference between any days of the week. On the Mohammedan Sabbath a black flag is hoisted on the minarets at the prayer of dawn, instead of the white flag that announces the time of devotions on other days. It remains up until the middle of the forenoon, by which time everybody is supposed to have found out what day it is. —New York Post.

The Word "Charlatan."

"Charlatan," says a writer in the London Chronicle, "is companion to 'quack' in our vocabulary, and of this word the origin is certainly Italian. It is 'charlatan,' merely a chatterer, and describes the traveling doctor in his cart who used to offer in an overwhelming torrent of talk his pills to villagers in the market place. He was a dentist as well as a physician and wrenched out the tooth in public. The genus is not yet entirely extinct."

A Word Breaker.

"Fine looking old gentleman." "Yes, but he was never known to give a man his word that he did not break it." "Dishonest, eh?" "Nope; he stutters."—Houston Post.

Dignity and Ignorance.

"So you have decided to call in another doctor?" "I have," was the reply. "The absurdity of the man prescribing linseed tea and mustard plasters for people of our position!"

A Noble Parent.

In writing a sketch of Washington a pupil ended her essay by saying, "Washington married a famous belle, Martha Custis, and in due time became the Father of His Country."—Delineator.

Kind words are benedictions. They are not only instruments of power, but of benevolence and courtesy, blessings both to the speaker and hearer of them.—Frederick Saunders.

Wanted 50 Men and Women.

J. D. Murray, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half-price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty-cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific at hand, you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

Mr. Murray has been able to secure only a limited supply of the specific, so great is the demand, and you should not delay taking advantage of the liberal offer he is making.

Eggs for Hatching or Baby Chicks

From our GREAT Winter-laying strain of Barred Plymouth Rocks and Single-comb White Leghorns. The fact that our hens produced during the month of December as high as $6.75 per day and over $6 worth of Eggs a day during January—Winter months—justifies us in calling them great layers. The reason is this: Our hens have been bred from a WINTER-LAYING strain. If you hatch from hens which lay only Spring and Summer you will have only Spring and Summer layers and no Winter layers when eggs are way up in price. This is a fact that many do not know, but we can prove it and it seems reasonable. We have had no disease of any kind since in the business, not even a single case of the gapes. We have no one hired to do the work, but give it our PERSONAL ATTENTION, and you will find us at home any time you call. We are looking a good many orders (unsolicited) so let us have your order early, as we had to refuse a number of orders last season which got in late. If you want an INCUBATOR or BROODER we can get you any make you desire at ACTUAL COST. Also have on hand at all times at right prices
