Van Pelt-Harris.
From Democratic Watchman.

John Lorenz Van Pelt, of Barnesboro, and Miss Jane Miller Harris, daughter of Mrs. Rachel Harris, of this place, were married at the Fort Pitt hotel, Pittsburgh, last Saturday evening. The wedding was an exceptionally quiet one on account of the recent death of the bride's sister, Miss Anna Harris, and was witnessed only by members of the bride's family. Mr. and Mrs. Van Pelt have been spending their honeymoon this week as members of the party accompanying Joseph Harris in his private car on an inspection trip over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Great American Industry.

One of the greatest of all American industries is the business of educating the boys and the girls. The conduct of this business costs as much as $442,000,000 a year. It takes $240,000,000 to pay the teachers and $80,000,000 each year to provide buildings. Over one-fifth of the entire population of the United States are enrolled as pupils in the schools. The number of teachers employed in the common schools in the school year ending June, 1907 was 475,000. Of these 370,000 were women. The average school year is now much longer than in former times, now being 150 days. When we consider the volume of books, of stationery of school supplies for all this army of 19,000,000 school children we are impressed with the enormous economical and commercial importance of the school system.

The Garman Opera House.

The Howell Keith Stock Company is at the Bellefonte opera house all of this week, March 1st to 6th, with a Saturday afternoon matinee. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies' tickets Monday night. The repertoire of this company includes such plays as "True American Hearts," "Utah," "Cowboy Girl," "Dangerous Double," "Child of the Regiment," "Slaves of the Orient," "For Love's Sake," and others. Among the specialists will be Mr. Keith in vaudeville; Kenneth, the mind reader and hand-cuff king; Nellie Lyons Healy, comedienne; Prescott, upside down pianist; Marie Dunne, vocalist; Una, the winsome sobrette; Dunne and Elliott, singing and dancing novelties; and Sylvia, the spectacular electric dancer. Something new every minute, every evening this week. Watch for "Yama," the great musical comedy on Tuesday, March 9th.

Bradford, Cartoonist, Writes Fairy Verse.

The comic section of The North American for March 7 will contain something altogether new in the way of an entertainment feature for children. It is really surprising that Walter R. Bradford, The North American's prize humorous cartoonist, should devote into a writer of fairy story verse. However, he has done so, and it is said that he has made a remarkable success of it. To illustrate Bradford's version, "The Little Journeys of Nip and Tuck," The North American has secured John R. Neill, who is probably the best-known illustrator of children's books in America. Together they have made the prettiest feature ever printed in a comic section of a newspaper. Bradford's verses are light and entertaining and amusing. Neill's pictures are beautiful and attractive. The North American's object is to give to its patrons something decidedly different from the average coarse comic feature. The management of the paper believes that it has succeeded.

Presbyterian Church Services.

Beginning Monday evening, March 8th, there will be services in the Presbyterian church during the week. Rev. C. O. Anderson, of Belleville, will preach each evening except Saturday. The Lord's Supper will be observed on the following Sabbath, March 14th, at 10.30 a. m. The public are cordially invited to all these services.

Haines-Snook.

Miss Olive Snook, of Millheim, and Jacob Haines, a railroad engineer of Sunbury, were married at Millheim Wednesday morning. The young couple will go to Washington on their honeymoon trip, and then locate in Sunbury, where a house all ready furnished awaits.

New Hardware Store.

D. A. Boozer is having his room fitted up with shelves, etc., and will stock up with a complete line of hardware. This community has long been in need of a hardware store, and Mr. Boozer will supply that demand.

Automobile Road.

The administration road bill has been introduced in both house and senate, and calls for an appropriation of $5,000,000 for a road from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, by the way of Harrisburg.

Three Pittsburg Councilmen Galt.

After fifty-two hours deliberation a Pittsburg jury found three city councilmen guilty of conspiracy. The jury recommended extreme mercy.

Old ladies' light Kang calf, 95c at Yeagers.

The second week of February court opened the first Monday in March. Queer but true.

William Bower, of Potters Mills, advertises letters testamentary on the estate of Jacob Hessel, in this issue of the Reporter.

Elmer E. Houtz, of Linden Hall, who will quit the farm and go into the butchering business in Boalsburg, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary A. Snyder, who several months ago went to Freeport, Illinois, to visit her son James I. Snyder, is on her way home, and at present is in the Pittsburg district with two other sons, Milton Snyder and Samuel F. Snyder.

Mrs. Catharine Horner, who recently sold her property in Centre Hall, will move to her home west of Centre Hall in which her son Calvin Horner lived up to about a year ago. L. G. Rearick will occupy the house vacated by Mrs. Horner.

An exchange tells a horrible tale about a young lady who thoughtlessly jerked back her head so suddenly to keep from being kissed that it broke her neck. This should be a warning to all girls not to jerk back. In fact, it would be better to lean forward a little.

Messrs. J. L. Tressler and Frank A. McClintic, both of Linden Hall, were in Centre Hall Tuesday on a bit of business. Mr. Tressler lives on the Tressler homestead, at Linden Hall, and Mr. McClintic is tenant on Mr. Tressler's farm farther north of Linden Hall.

The county commissioners have employed an additional clerk in the person of Homer Decker, son of James Decker, of Pine Grove Mills. Mr. Decker will not enter upon his duties until he has closed his term of public school which he is teaching in Ferguson township.

At a meeting of the Mifflin county board it was decided that nothing could be gained by appealing to the higher courts on the question of license. Thus the action of the Mifflin county court, which refused to grant a single license in the county, will stand uncontroverted.

Capt. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, Monday morning went to Philadelphia where he will attend the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association meeting in session this week. The captain avails himself of every opportunity to keep abreast in the advancements in his profession.

Mr. and Mrs. William Poorman, of Howard, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Rearick, in Centre Hall, for a few days. The young couple were just married in January. Mrs. Rearick, who is a sister of Mrs. Poorman, gave a dinner for them the latter part of the week, to which a number of friends in town were invited.

Malcolm D. Fleming, of Wheeling, West Virginia, who has been with a large tailoring establishment for a number of years, expects to open business for himself the first of April, in the city in which he now lives. He is a first-class tailor, and is accustomed to cut and fit clothing for the best class of customers found in the larger cities.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Lohr and daughters, Kittle May and Cora, of Marble Rock, Iowa, are in Centre Hall, the guests of H. C. Robinson, Joseph Lutz and others. Mr. Lohr is the son of the late David Lohr, whose death in December, called him and his family to the east. He went west some twenty-five years ago, and engaged in farming. Recently he sold out his holdings and on returning west thinks of locating farther south.

Dr. S. M. Nissley, veterinary surgeon of Bellefonte, made a few trips to the E. M. Huyett farm, west of Centre Hall, superintended by P. H. Luse, on account of a brood mare becoming sick. An operation was necessary, and since the animal is improving. Dr. Gantzell was called into consultation. Dr. Nissley, who had the case in charge, is skilled in his profession, yet if the animal referred to recovers, it will be a great wonder.

David Snyder, of Linden Hall, was a caller Monday morning to arrange for the printing of sale bills for the personal property of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Snyder, April 3rd. Mr. Snyder, who for a number of years has lived on the Keller farm, east of Linden Hall, owned by Prof. P. H. Meyer, will move about April 1st to the Wieland farm, west of that place. The Wieland farm was recently purchased by Merchant John M. Wieland, of Boalsburg.

Young people who contemplate beginning housekeeping this spring will find it to their interest to visit Rearick's furniture store, Centre Hall, before buying their outfits. Of course, Mr. Rearick is not in the business exclusively for his health, but his profits are so modest that the average furniture dealer would be inclined to think that he had little concern for that "rainy day" in the future. The buyer has no concern for this, his object is to buy the best goods at the lowest price, and with this in mind he should call at the Rearick furniture store, Centre Hall.
