LOCALS.

W. S. Rossmann, of Spring Mills, is holding down a clerkship in the railroad office at Millinburg.

The first April shower passed over the valley Tuesday. There was a bit of electrical display accompanied it. The rainfall was one-half an inch.

A car load of manure spreaders were unloaded at the Centre Hall station for Weber brothers. This is the second car load of spreaders received by them.

The spring crop of darling baby girls, in Centre Hall, was better than in many a year. Each baby is the prettiest, the sweetest, the dearest, but they'll all bawl, see if they don't, before they are a month old.

At a meeting of presiding elders, since the adjournment of the Methodist conference, Rev. James B. Stein, pastor of the Bellefonte Methodist church, has been transferred to Tyrone. He will be followed by Dr. Wilcox, for six years presiding elder of the Williamsport district.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Musser, of Beaver, sold their property in that place, and are for the present located in Ocoola, Ohio, the former home of Mr. Musser. He had just completed the home in the Pittsburg district, when the offer from a purchaser came. He erected and sold several houses previous to this one.

John L. Runkle, of Tusseyville, delivered a horse to Centre Hall, which was sold to a drover. The animal was taken across the mountain and finally became dissatisfied with its condition, tore loose and ran back to this place. It was captured here, and on the second attempt was landed in Bellefonte.

Last week in making mention of the organization of a strong Ladies Temple, K. G. E., in Spring Mills, it was stated that the meeting was held in the hall of the I. O. O. F., which was an error. The Knights of the Golden Eagles have a well furnished hall over the furniture store of Smith Brothers, and it was there the organization was effected, and that will be the regular meeting place of the Temple.

At last matters have been adjusted in such a way that all the former residents of Centre Hall have again leased houses, and are fixed for a living place for another year. This was accomplished by Charles McClenahan moving from Centre Hall to Pleasant Gap; Andy Reesman moving into the Jerry Miller house where Mr. Armstrong lived last year. L. G. Reierick, the undertaker, has also been located. He is now living with his mother, but in a month or so Mrs. Reierick will move into the dwelling house purchased from Samuel Shoop. Mr. Shoop will occupy rooms above the meat market.

Temperance Organization Effected.

The temperance lecture given by Miss Gertrude M. Cogan, in the Methodist church, Friday evening of last week, was highly appreciated by all who attended. The church was well filled with interested hearers, which goes far to show the temperance sentiment in this community.

Miss Cogan spoke for one hour and held rapt attention. Her address was thoughtful, touching at times, and appealing. A part of her mission was the organization of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Society and also the Loyal Legion. Besides the lecture several fervent prayers were offered for the success of temperance work, and several hymns were sung.

At the close of the regular service a Women's Christian Temperance Union was organized with more than a score of members. Several of the men present became honorary members. Mrs. Snyder, wife of Rev. S. A. Snyder, was elected president; Mrs. Henry Kremer, vice president, and Mrs. W. B. Mingle, secretary.

With the temperance sentiment already in Centre Hall, much is to be hoped for in the way of advancement from this splendid organization.

Letter from New Jersey.
From New Jersey comes this letter from J. W. Neese, former miller in the Weber flouring mills at Centre Hall, but now located at Neshaun Station:

Please find enclosed my subscription for another year. The paper is like a weekly visitor from Pennsylvania. We enjoy it very much.

We are having plenty of rain and have had all winter. The weather is very spring-like now. The wheat crop looks very promising, although it has not had any snow to protect it all winter. The winter was very mild, however, and that was in the crop's favor. Some farmers have oats in the ground, others are ready to sow.

This is a good section for farming through here. The land is quite rich, and produces good qualities of grain. Most of the farmers sell their milk to the creameries, shipping it to the cities on the regular milk trains coming through here. Some of the farmers have as high as a hundred gallons of milk a day. The public, or township, roads are like those of Illinois and some other western states. They are mud roads, and in winter and spring time the mud is very deep.

The milling business is very fair with us considering the advance prices of wheat and flour. We are paying $1.20 per bushel for wheat.

The Editor's Kick.

This is the view taken by the editor of the Mirion (Georgia) Record:

A lawyer charges a man $10 for ten minutes' conversation—he insists on paying it. A doctor charges $1 for a prescription and the patient says: "Oh, phaw—is that enough?" An undertaker charges $100 for conducting a funeral and he is perfectly lovely with everybody inside and outside the family. A man buys a gold brick and apologizes for not having bitten before. An editor walks a mile in the hot sun to get the facts of a death or wedding or social function and spends three hours writing it up and tells lies praising people until he hates himself. Then if he makes an insignificant omission, or charges three cents straight for three extra copies, he is a stingy, careless, good-for-nothing old cuss, who never gets anything right and charges four times the price of city papers twice as large.

"Graustark."

The attraction to be presented at Garman's Opera House, Bellefonte, Monday evening, 12th inst., will be the dramatic version of George Barr McCutcheon's famous novel "Graustark" or "A Love Behind a Throne." This attraction has proven to be one of the biggest successes in recent years. The cast is exceptionally strong and is headed by Miss Gertrude Perry. Miss Perry has been praised for her beauty, her personal magnetism, and the exquisite charm of her acting. "Lorry" will be played by Mr. Alfred Britton and it is said he truthfully portrays the American as readers of Mr. McCutcheon's book know him. An elaborate scenic production, picturesque costumes, and electrical innovations are used to enhance the value of this interesting play of love and intrigue.

Spring Mills Academy—April 13.

The Spring Mills Academy will open its regular spring session Monday, April 12th. The curriculum will be arranged with a view of giving special advantages to public school teachers who wish to advance, as well as those wishing to enter upon the profession. Those desiring to enter higher educational institutions will also be amply provided for, as will also those wishing only to pursue the common branches. Tuition will be reasonable. Boarding can be had at very moderate rates at points convenient to the school.
