

DEATHS.

MRS. SARAH DERSTINE.

Seventy-seven years, eight months and one day was the age of Mrs. Sarah Derstine, of Centre Hall, at the time of her death Thursday of last week.

Interment was made at Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon, Rev. B. F. Bieber, assisted by Rev. D. Gress and Rev. W. H. Schuyler, officiating.

Mrs. Derstine was the daughter of Jacob and Rebecca Stem, and was born near Colyer. She was the oldest living of the ten children, the surviving members of the family being Mrs. Elizabeth Wert, Jared, William H., Mary and Anna, of Dakota, Illinois; John H., of Farmington, Wash.; Mrs. Adam S.amm, of McConnell, Illinois.

Andrew died in the army, and David died in infancy. She was married to Michael Derstine, December 28, 1854, in Centre Hall, by Rev. L. T. Williams, then pastor of the Lutheran church.

Two and one-half years ago Mrs. Derstine in a fall sustained injuries that made her an invalid ever after, and it is thought the bruises then sustained developed the cancerous growths in the small intestines, which were the direct cause of her death.

MRS. SUSANNA ZETTLER.

Mrs. Zettler, widow of the late Frederick Zettler, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Vonada, in Georges Valley, Tuesday afternoon, aged seventy-eight years and eight days.

Interment will be made at Cross Church, Saturday forenoon; services at the house at 9:30, Rev. B. F. Bieber to officiate.

Mrs. Zettler's maiden name was Susanna Heckman, and is survived by a brother, Jeremiah Heckman, of Spring Mills. Since her marriage she lived in Georges Valley within a half-mile radius. Mr. Zettler died eleven years ago.

The deceased was the mother of twelve children, namely: Luther, George and Jeremiah, in Wisconsin; Frederick, Jr., Oliver, Mrs. Harvey Vonada and Mrs. Stuart Ripka, Georges Valley; Mrs. Calvin Craighton, Washington; John, Amelia, Alice and one who died in infancy are deceased.

MRS. HANNAH LUTZ.

Mrs. Hannah Lutz died Monday evening at the home of her son, Aaron Lutz, on Nittany Mountain, aged eighty-four years, six months and twenty-two days. She had been ill for eight weeks, due to a paralytic stroke received about that long ago, and Tuesday of last week she suffered a second stroke, which resulted in death at the time mentioned.

Interment will be made at Zion, today (Thursday). Services at the home of her son will be conducted at nine o'clock in the morning, Rev. S. A. Snyder, of the United Evangelical church, to officiate.

The deceased was the widow of John Lutz, who died twenty-five years ago. She is survived by four children, namely: Joseph F. and Aaron, Centre Hall; B. Frank, Zion; Mrs. Mary Dunkle, Bellefonte.

MRS. CALVIN CHAMBERLAIN.

Mrs. Calvin Chamberlain, a resident of Lock Haven, died on the 12th inst., after suffering for fifteen years, aged sixty-two years. She was a member of St. John's English Lutheran church, Lock Haven, and funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. A. Parr.

Mrs. Chamberlain at one time lived at Centre Hill, but when quite young moved to Lock Haven. She is survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters: Charles E., Frank W., Alvin A., Mrs. James Hickey, Mrs. Harry Saxton. Her three sons, two nephews and a son-in-law acted as pall-bearers.

Mrs. Chamberlain was a Christian woman and a loving mother.

MRS. A. C. CONFER.

Wednesday of last week Mrs. Confer, wife of Asner C. Confer, died at her home near Beaver dam school house, below Spring Mills, aged thirty-four years, eleven months. Interment was made in Georges Valley, Saturday, Rev. Snook officiating.

Mrs. Alice Confer was the daughter of the late Jacob D. Breen, of Gregg township, and is survived by her husband and four children, the oldest of whom is a daughter about sixteen years of age. One sister, Mrs. Elmer Ripka, of Spring Mills, also survives.

The deceased had been ill for eight or more weeks, and suffered from internal cancerous growths.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Palmer, of near Linden Hall, were in town Wednesday, and called at the Reporter office.

HOWARD BASKERVILLE KILLED.

Son of Rev. H. C. Baskerville, formerly of Centre Hall, Shot Down at Tabriz, Persia.

The city dailies Wednesday morning contained an account of the killing of Howard Baskerville, at Tabriz, Persia. Mr. Baskerville will be remembered by many of the Reporter readers as the eldest son of Rev. Henry C. Baskerville, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in Centre Hall.

The dispatch, dated Tabriz, Persia, April 20th, follows:

Howard C. Baskerville, an American missionary who recently resigned as a teacher in the Presbyterian school here to join the revolutionists, was killed in a battle today.

Baskerville was leading a sortie from the besieged city when he was shot down. The object of the expedition was to open a way for the bringing in of provisions, of which the city stands greatly in need. It was not successful.

As a result of the strong representations made by the British and Russian ministers at Teheran, the shah has consented to a six-day armistice here, a measure which will enable the obtaining of provisions for the thousands of women and children in Tabriz clamoring for bread.

Food in Tabriz is exhausted, and the hungry and desperate elements have threatened attacks on the foreign consulates.

BASKERVILLE SOUGHT ADVENTURES.

Following is a dispatch from St. Paul, Minnesota:

Howard C. Baskerville was 24 years old, according to his mother, who, with the young man's father, Rev. H. C. Baskerville, resides at Royalton, Minn., where the latter is pastor of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Baskerville said the young man had always been of an adventurous disposition and had gone into the missionary service about eleven months ago.

Bucknell vs. Carlisle Indians.

For the first time in five years the Bucknell base ball nine will meet the Carlisle Indians on Bucknell's ground, Saturday afternoon, April 24th. This promises to be one of the biggest attractions that the Orange and Blue will offer this season at home and will be of special interest to the old Grads and friends of the University who remember the exciting skirmishes with the Redskins back in 1901 and 1902.

The Athletic Association has gone to an extra expense in getting the Indians to come to Lewisburg, and great preparations have been made to accommodate the crowds who will pour in from the towns as far north and south as Williamsport and Harrisburg respectively, with many from other parts of the state. There will be available seating capacity for all.

Unwritten Law Upheld.

The Coroner's jury in the case of J. E. Craig, charged with killing Edward Russell Saturday night, rendered a verdict Monday that "death was caused by a gun-shot wound fired from a revolver in the hands of John E. Craig in self-defence and while protecting the honor of his own home."

A writ of habeas corpus was applied for by Craig's counsel, and without further hearing Judge Bell released Craig on $2,000 bail.

Craig, who is a locomotive fireman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, came home unexpectedly Saturday night and found his wife and Russell together. Russell sprang at Craig and in the fight which followed Craig shot Russell. Craig says he fired in self-defence. This incident occurred in Altoona.

Church Dedication.

The new Lutheran church, at State College, will be dedicated with appropriate services Sunday, May 2nd. The dedicatory sermon will be preached Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. H. L. Yarger, D. D., Field Secretary of Church Extension, at Atchison, Kansas. The evening sermon will be preached by Rev. C. T. Aikens, D. D., president of Susquehanna University, at Selinsgrove.

A general invitation is cordially extended to the people of the community to be present.

Apples at this season of the year are a luxury, but yet there are some to be had, as was demonstrated by Joshua T. Potter who brought a sample of his stock on hand to the Reporter office.

LOCALS.

M. S. Derstine advertises sale of household goods, in Centre Hall, Sat. day afternoon, May 1st.

An examination will be held May 8th, at Hublersburg, by the U. S. civil service commission for the position of postmaster at Nittany. The compensation received last year was $306.

J. Homer Decker, assistant clerk to the County Commissioners, assumed the duties of his office last week. Mr. Decker was formerly a school teacher, and is a native of Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. Lizzie Wolf and friend, Miss Ida Clabaugh, of Altoona, were in Centre Hall last week, Mrs. Wolf having come here to assist her brother, Samuel Shoop, to prepare for the sale of his household goods.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Emerick take this method of returning thanks to the friends and neighbors who assisted them during the last illness of Mrs. Jane Harper, and also for kindness shown by them after her death.

The burden of our changing social order falls upon our daughters, claims the Woman's Home Companion for May, and this magazine shows by striking examples and figures how topsyturvy is our way of training girls.

The clothing firm of Harry Witten & Company opened their new store in the Rossman building, Monday morning. They advertise a full line of men's, boys' and youths' clothing, as well as shoes, and tailor-made skirts. Call to see them when in Centre Hall.

Jacob Walker, of near Centre Hall, was a caller Wednesday morning, and was pleased to relate that his brother, Hiram Walker, accompanied by his family, paid them a visit, remaining over Sunday. Mr. Walker is proprietor of the Wayne Hotel, in Juniata.

Among the appreciative readers of the Reporter is Mrs. S. L. Conser, of Lincoln, Nebraska. She is the daughter of John From, formerly of Bealsburg, who went west during the early seventies. Mrs. Conser has also been in the west since 1871 or 1872. In a note to the Reporter she expressed a desire to return to the old home once again.

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Jane Harper, last week, were her nieces, Mrs. Ella Westerfield and Mrs. Nannie Piantz, both of Bradner, Ohio, daughters of Mrs. Sarah Bierly; Mrs. R. M. Magee, and the latter's son, William A. Magee, of Philadelphia. The ladies are remaining for the week, but Mr. Magee returned to the city.

Mr. Mingle, of Mingle's Shoe Store, Bellefonte, informs the Reporter that his sales have steadily increased through the panic, and that the past year was a record breaker in volume of business. This is a remarkable showing when all business seems to be at a standstill, and can be accounted for only by the fact that he deals only in reliable and up-to-date goods, sold at the lowest possible prices.

With a view of preparing for a state road through Centre Hall, some time in the future, would it not be a good plan to have the streets surveyed, and a sidewalk grade established. This is a necessary move before a state road will be built through a borough, and aside from that, an established grade is a necessity when permanent walks are being laid. A grade now, will save much expense in the future when errors must be settled for out of the borough treasury.

Jacob S. Derstine, of Freeport, Illinois, who was called east on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Derstine, remained here until death came to her relief. Mr. Derstine left Centre Hall in 1883, and since has been located in the city mentioned above, and is one of a number of young men from this town who live in the prosperous Illinois city and, like the city, are also prospering. Mr. Derstine was an apprentice in the Murray carriage shops, and on completing his trade, found employment in one of the large shops in Freeport, and has continued there ever since, although the management changed one or more times. He is an expert trimmer, is in love with his work, and has no time for anything else except to look after the wants of his good wife, a Freeport lady.

Refusing to assume the responsibilities resting on those in official positions is invariably detrimental to the morals of the community in which such officials happen to sit in authority. Every toleration of evil, be it murder, arson, robbery, theft, or any of the innumerable crimes, encourages not only the perpetrators of that crime, but invites others to commit similar ones. As the tree is bent so it will grow. The first crime committed by the youth should be punished, because, as a rule, it is a crime of less degree than the second or third, and will be a means of deterring him and his like from committing evil in the future. The wrong doer will use every means of avoiding punishment, even to the extent of inducing officials to wink at their crime, and by so doing make them partners to it. It appears to some that evil is only evil when the shaft is directed toward them, and that when an attempt is made to blight, if not destroy, the life of another its seriousness for some reason or other is not comprehended.

DEATHS.

J. S. HOFFMAN.

A telegram was received Tuesday evening by Miss Carrie Speicher, that J. S. Hoffman, of Arcanum, Ohio, had died after a brief illness. His age was about sixty-three years.

Mr. Hoffman was born near Tusseyville, and was the son of Henry Hoffman. He accompanied his father to the west many years ago, but returned a number of times to visit friends and relatives, and on these trips always spent part of the time with his cousin, the late John Speicher, in Centre Hall. Mr. Hoffman was an undertaker and furniture dealer. He is survived by a wife, a western lady, and two children.

Richard W. Miller died in Huntingdon, of paralysis, aged sixty-three years. He followed carpentering all his life. Two brothers and one sister survive, namely: Herman, of Bellefonte; Frank, in Montana, and Mrs. William Gehret, of Bellefonte. Interment was made at Bellefonte last Friday.

Some Turtles.

An Eschol correspondent to the Perry County Democrat says that while Aaron Sweger and William Burrell were fishing in the creek on the Adams farm they discovered a turtle on the water's edge. It crawled into a hole in the bank of the creek. Procuring a shovel the men dug into the bank and discovered a nest of turtles numbering 103 good sized turtles, which filled two large bags. They got a bucket full of turtle eggs.

In speaking of an Easter service rendered by the Sunday School choir of the First English Lutheran church, in Tyrone, the Times makes these comments: "The Broken Seal" was prepared by the Lutheran Board of church extension. Prominent on the program was a recitation by Miss Florence Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, a niece of Dr. A. R. Markle. The young lady selected "The Resurrection" as an appropriate reading. Miss Kepler possesses unusual ability as a reader, and her presentation was much enjoyed and appreciated.

Like Finding Money.

J. D. Murray, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money for he is selling a regular fifty-cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half-price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is only recently, through the solicitation of Druggist Murray, that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. He urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should n't, Mr. Murray will return your money.

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. Follow his advice.
