Hotel Proprietor Dies.

Peter Meltzler, for many years proprietor of the Riverside hotel, in Lock Haven, died late Saturday night. He was seventy-seven years old. The deceased was in the hotel business for fifty-four years. He served in both the Confederate and Union armies during the Civil War. Some years ago he erected a monument in the local cemetery that was imported from Germany. It is surmounted by a life-size statue of himself.

Do You Get Up

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miscrable.

With a Lame Back?

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remark-hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special ar-rangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home et Brand-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake
