

DEATHS.

GEORGE GROSS.

George Gross, a well known citizen of Union county, died at his home in New Berlin Wednesday of last week and was buried Saturday. Mr. Gross was born August 23, 1823, at the old homestead and his education was begun at New Berlin, and later took a course of two years at the Lewisburg Academy. Leaving school he engaged in farm work in 1844. Mr. Gross with three other young men, went to Seneca county, Ohio, driving the entire distance. He had relatives in that locality and for a year clerked in a store of his uncle in Bellevue. He worked in a similar capacity at Tiffin, Ohio, and then returned to Pennsylvania and entered the employ of his brother Henry, a merchant at Aaronburg. In 1846 he was married to Miss Elizabeth C. Nettie, a native of Carlisle, who with one son, William G. Gross, survives him.

The year following his marriage he removed to Rebersburg where he engaged in the mercantile business serving as postmaster in that place for some time. In connection with this store he opened a branch in Loganton, continuing both places until 1855, when he disposed of them and removed to New Berlin and became a member of the firm of Gross & Wilson, until 1875, when he retired, and since has led a life that did not involve active business duties and cares.

In 1859 Mr. Gross became connected with the Lewisburg National bank as a director, serving in that capacity until about ten years ago. He was most regular in his attendance at the meetings of the board, and it was seldom that he was absent.

MRS. CATHARINE DAUP.

After attaining the age of eighty-five years, five months and twenty-six days, and living those years without having suffered physical pains, Mrs. Catharine Daup died Sunday evening at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Leaster, at Spruce-town. Mrs. Daup's maiden name was Decker, and she was born in Potter township. Her husband, Joseph Daup, who lived to be eighty-one years of age, died twelve years ago.

The surviving children are (Amelia) Mrs. A. C. Ripka, Centre Hill; Daniel, Centre Hill; (Sarah J.) Mrs. William Ertle, Coburn; (Ellen N.) Mrs. Jefferson Heckman, Spring Mills; (Hettie C.) Mrs. Charles A. Leaster, Spruce-town. Mrs. A. P. Zorby, the only one of the children who died after attaining maturity, died several years ago.

As stated before Mrs. Daup was blessed with good health, and on the day of her death was able to walk about the house in a smart manner. She died instantly, having gone to the front door, opened it, and fell to the ground below. It is thought she was suddenly seized with paralysis causing her to fall to her death.

The funeral took place Wednesday morning, Rev. S. A. Snyder, of the United Evangelical church, officiating. Interment was made in the Spruce-town cemetery.

DR. D. E. GENTZEL.

As a result of a paralytic stroke Dr. D. E. Gentzel, of Spring Mills, died Wednesday morning Saturday previous he was in Brush Valley on professional business at the home of Daniel Weaver, when he was stricken with paralysis, and from that time he never regained consciousness. His age was sixty-four years.

Interment will be made Saturday morning in the Heckman cemetery, services from his late residence.

He is survived by a widow and eight children, namely: Menno, Moyer and Cleveland, Spring Mills; Benjamin, Brush Valley; Katie and Herbert, at home; Edgar, Buffalo Run. Alice and James are deceased. Dr. Gentzel enjoyed an extensive practice as a veterinary surgeon, and was a good citizen.

JOHN LEECH, JR.

Tuesday the remains of John Leech, Jr., were interred at Boalsburg. Mr. Leech was a railroad man, and was employed in Altoona, and while on duty fell from a box car Wednesday of last week and sustained injuries that terminated in death at an Altoona Hospital Saturday.

The deceased was aged twenty-nine years, and was a son of Mrs. Eliza and the late John Leech, of Boalsburg. He was unmarried. Besides the mother the following brothers and sisters survive: William, Robert, Anna, Edna and Mrs. William Stewart, Boalsburg; and Mrs. Blaine Brown, Tyrone.

William R. Hopkins, one of Howard's well known citizens, died at his home in that place Thursday of last week. He was a sufferer from pleurisy which resulted in a complication of diseases. He was a forgerman by occupation, and was seventy-seven years, one month and twenty-five days old. In August, 1854, he was married to Mary Ann Rumberger, of Huntingdon, who survives with three children: Mrs. J. B. Holter, Maude and Nellie Hopkins, all of Howard. One brother, John Hopkins, of Principio, Md., also survives.

Interment was made at Howard, Rev. W. W. Rhoads conducting the services.

DEATHS.

Frederick Bartley, an old soldier and one of the oldest residents of Nittany Valley, died at the home of his son William, at Hublersburg, after a few days' illness from pneumonia. His age was eighty-two years, seven months and twelve days. For a number of years he engaged in farming. When the war of the rebellion broke out he enlisted and served throughout the war with great bravery. He was one of the oldest Odd Fellows in this part of the state, having joined the Nittany lodge in 1848. His wife died a number of years ago, since which time he has made his home with his children, of whom he has eight living.

Miss Mary Bodie, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bodie, of Buffalo Run, died in Philadelphia. About six months ago she went to the Quaker City to learn to be a professional nurse and while taking care of a typhoid fever patient she contracted the disease herself with the result that it terminated fatally. She was only eighteen years of age and in addition to her parents is survived by three brothers and three sisters. She was a member of the Methodist church, and a bright and intelligent young lady.

Another old soldier has answered the last roll in the person of P. W. Bullock, of Clarence, who died Wednesday of last week of pneumonia. He was overseer of the poor of Snow Shoe township and of late had been engaged in cutting prop timber, even though he was seventy years old. He served all through the Civil War and about a year ago became a member of Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., of Bellefonte. He is survived by his wife and three sons, namely: J. W., of Beech Creek; Edward, of Snow Shoe, and Martin, of Clarence.

Ammon W. S. Schenck passed away at his home in Howard, Friday of last week, after having suffered from an abscess on the brain for about ten days. The young man was aged twenty-two years, two months and sixteen days, and was a son of Ralph and Emeline Schenck. His mother died several years ago, but the father survives with the following brothers and sisters: Sylvester E., of Wilmerding; Mrs. F. M. Pletcher, of Blanchard; Alonzo E., Oscar L., Otto B., Florence G., of Howard.

Monday morning the venerable John H. Biddle, of Tyrone, passed to his reward after only a few hours' suffering from paralysis with which he was stricken Saturday evening. He was born in Boalsburg and spent most of his life in Centre county, being a farmer. Last December he went to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. H. L. Chauey, in Tyrone. His age was a little over eighty-seven years. Five sons and three daughters survive.

Miss Rebekah Grove died at the home of her nephew, A. G. Foster, in Harrisburg, after a protracted illness from nervous prostration. She was born at Howard, where her early life was spent. Later she went to Lock Haven, and for a number of years past has made her home with her nephew, in Harrisburg. Her nephew and a niece, Mrs. E. F. Heffner, of Lock Haven, are her immediate survivors.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Brungart, near Tusseyville. The little one was not only quite welcome in the Brungart family, but the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCool, are wonderfully elated.

The Centre Hall High School is about to close its 1908-1909 term. The principal, Prof. C. R. Neff, has endeavored to bring the borough schools to a higher standard of efficiency, and in a great measure has succeeded. He has used every means to inspire his pupils, and if they fail to measure up to what may be expected from high school graduates, the blame must be attributed to a lack of application on the part of the pupil. Prof. Neff has yet two years of his three-year term to serve as principal, and at the close of that time the local schools undoubtedly will have been amply rewarded, and the community generally benefited by having had one whose ability in every line of school work is unquestioned.

Non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla

If you think you need a tonic, ask your doctor. If you think you need something for your blood, ask your doctor. If you think you would like to try Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla, ask your doctor. Consult him often. Keep in close touch with him.

Ask your doctor to name some of the results of constipation. His long list will begin with sick headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Then ask him if he would recommend your using Ayer's Pills.

... INVITATION ...

To My Friends and Customers:

You all know the great loss I had on the 5th day of January last and was completely burned out of everything I had and was one of the heaviest losers of all the unfortunate ones. I was very sorry to have to leave this place after having built up so large a trade as I had. I was advised by my numerous friends here and surrounding country that the best I could do was to start up again and my customers would stand by me. I took the advice and started in business in the Photograph Gallery Building, corner Main and North Sts. I now invite all my friends to come and do business with me as before the fire. Your patronage will be greatly appreciated and I will try my very best to please you and give you the best goods for your money--this has always been my method of doing business. The store is not as large as before, but we carry the finest line of Clothing, Shoes, and Gents' Furnishing Goods ever seen in Millheim.

We also have been adding a full line of Ladies' Millinery--the like of which was never before shown in Millheim--at prices to suit purchasers. This line we are going to run as a specialty.

Remember! All of our customers having Premium Tickets from before the fire in our other store can have them redeemed, and we will give tickets as before and furnish fine presents.

Hoping you will all give us a call and inspect our line, and we will do all in our power to treat you right, and your patronage will be greatly appreciated.
