COMMENCEMENT.

The Centre Hall High School held its Commencement Thursday Evening of Last Week.—A Class Roll of Eight.

The Centre Hall High School commencement exercises were held in the Grange Arcadia Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week.

Wednesday evening was "Class Day" and the program consisted of piano music, class song, class history by Miss Lena Emerick. The class history was well written, giving a character sketch of an amusing nature of each member of the graduating class. It was well delivered and received loud applause from the audience. Another song was given by the class.

A play was then rendered by several members of the class, entitled, "The Two Buzzards," or "Trying to Keep a Secret." This play was exceptionally well produced. All parts were well prepared and well executed. There was concerted movement from the beginning and kept up throughout, so that not for a moment was there any lag in the interest. Hearty applause was accorded the actors at different points in the production.

The Class Day exercises were closed with a song by the class. This was the first class day in the history of the Centre Hall schools, and was engaged in with great interest and highly appreciated by all.

Thursday evening the regular graduating exercises were held. Prof. P. H. Meyer had charge of the music and was assisted by the Christie Smith Orchestra, from Bellefonte, and Misses Dora Meyer and Roxanna Briebin.

The class of 1909 numbered eight graduates: Harry F. Hubler, Lena Mae Emerick, Isabel Rowe, Ruth Irene Thomas, Clayton Homan, Lester E. Baird, J. Bruce Arney, Gross R. Allison.

The first oration was delivered by Clayton Homan on "Our Nation's Progress"; the second oration by J. Bruce Arney, "Ancient and Modern Oratory"; an essay by Lena M. Emerick, entitled "The Balance Wheel of Life"; an oration by Gross R. Allison, "Our Commonwealth"; an oration, "The Formation of Character" by Lester E. Baird; an essay, "Reading," by Ruth I. Thomas; an oration, "The Secret of Success," Harry F. Hubler. The valedictory was given by Isabel Rowe, "The Dignity of Labor". The valedictory was given to the one having the highest class standing. The program was interspersed with music of the very best quality. All the orations and essays were carefully prepared and well delivered, doing credit to all the graduates. Especially was the valedictory a fine production, containing many splendid and touching things in the way of appreciation of what the citizens, directors and teachers did to bring about the successful and enjoyable graduation of this class, and also splendid wishes to under classmates and classmates and tender words of farewell. The class motto was, "Honors Wait at Labor's Gate."

The graduation exercises were thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience that taxed the capacity of the hall. Centre Hall borough has great reason to be justly proud of her schools. The standard of her schools has been brought up rapidly during the past two years, both in discipline, in application and industry, in instruction and requirement, and in result in intellectual accomplishments. This improvement is due largely to the ability, untiring and devoted efforts of the present principal, Prof. C. R. Neff, together with the efficient work of the associate teachers and gratuitous efforts of the directors and hearty co-operation of citizens.

There is hope in the coming years to still further tighten the standard of the borough schools, and earnest efforts should be directed to that end.

LOCALS

The Hon. John Noll was appointed court clerk to take the place of Charles Smith, deceased.

The appropriation for Pennsylvania State College was reduced by the governor from $774,974 to $530,999.

The appropriation of $12,000 for building the Bellefonte Hospital was cut down to $6000 by Governor Stuart.

Mrs. J. H. Meyer, of Boalsburg, who is always ready to lend a helping hand, visited an aunt, Miss Elizabeth Meyer, who is ill at her home at State College.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will meet Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, in the United Evangelical Sunday School room. All boys and girls are invited to be present.

The advertisement of Messrs. Swabb and Fohringer appears in this issue. The gentlemen have opened a bakery and grocery near Colyer, and will make trips to Centre Hall twice each week. See their adv.

Miss Orpha Gramley, of Spring Mills, who succeeded James B. Strohm as teacher of the Grammar Grade of the Centre Hall schools, closed her school Monday. Miss Gramley met with good success as a teacher. Her methods of instruction are highly commended by those who have carefully watched them. In the near future she expects to attend a class reunion at Irving College of which institution she is a graduate.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Bulletin
SUMMER TRIPS AFAR AND NEAR.

Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have been begun.

America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain, and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither wend the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation.

Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets.

From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all-summer guest.

Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.

Information may also be secured by addressing Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia; C. Studds, D. P. A., 263 Fifth Avenue, New York City; Wm. Pedrick, Jr., D. P. FRIEND FARMER:

We wish to call your attention to the Weber and Columbia Wagons we have been offering you for the last few weeks through the columns of this paper.

In referring to the good qualities of these wagons we wish to say that nothing but the best of material enters into their construction; this combined with the best of mechanical skill, and the latest improved machinery designed especially for the construction of wagons, goes to make up these most complete and perfect wagons; not even the smallest details are overlooked.

The lumber used is selected by experienced men and is of four years' seasoning.

The axles are of the very best grade of hickory.

The hubs are the very best quality of white oak.

The spokes are strictly A 1 grade of oak and hickory mixed and driven in hot glue.

The fellos are oak and are thoroughly soaked in boiled oil before tires are set, and are joined with improved steel dowels, which prevents clipping at the joints.

They are exceptionally well ironed, light running and attractively painted, and in all a wagon that will give years of service.

We very cordially invite you to step in and examine these splendid wagons whether you are contemplating a purchase now or not. We want you to thoroughly understand their construction and see where they are better than the ordinary vehicle.

The important thing in buying a wagon is to know before hand what service it will give you; the important thing in selling them is to show you that, as well as we can, and then be sure that they are as good as we lead you to expect.
