Death of a Young Girl.

Ruth A., daughter of John and Amanda Foreman, died on Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Foreman, near Buffalo Run lime stone quarries. She had been an invalid all her life. Her age was fifteen years, ten months and eighteen days.

LOCALS

Yesterday was show day in Bellefonte.

The oats, wheat, grass and corn need rain.

Outside of being a bit cool, the latter May days have been fine.

The Centre County Pomona Grange meets today (Thursday) in Logan Grange Hall, Pleasant Gap.

Merchant W. H. Kreamer, Mrs. Kreamer and granddaughter Rebecca Kreamer, Tuesday, drove to Rebersburg, making their annual trip there prior to Memorial Day.

Mrs. A. Miles Arney, of Niagara Falls, accompanied by her children, came to Centre Hall Wednesday, and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Arney for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Arney drove to Bellefonte to meet her.

Dr. W. H. Schuyler, secretary of the Centre County Sunday School Association, is attending the sessions of that body being held in Philipsburg. Mrs. B. F. Bieber and Mrs. S. W. Smith, delegates, are also in attendance.

Miss Alice Robinson is at the home of her parents at present, but will return to Philadelphia Friday. She is taking a course in the hospital connected with the University of Pennsylvania, and will become a trained nurse.

Among the prosperous farmers in the vicinity of Centre Hall are Messrs. Frank P. Floray and Harry Fye, both of whom purchased new carriages. The former also secured a set of double harness, making his entire purchase from D. A. Boozer, a local dealer. Mr. Floray is located on a farm that prior to coming into possession of the Florays was regarded as unproductive, but by skillful farming, it has since been brought up to a tith that is attracting attention. Lime and commercial fertilizers is undoubtedly the secret of the success on the Floray farm.

WEST SUSQUEHANNA GLASSIS.

That Body of the Reformed Church Met in Annual Session in Bellefonte—Rev. D. Gress, President.

Wednesday evening of last week, in St. John's Reformed church, Bellefonte, West Susquehanna Classis opened its 53rd annual sessions, Rev. A. M. Schmidt, pastor loci.
Rev. Samuel H. Stein, the retiring president, preached the sermon, using as his text, Zachariah 4:6: "Not by might nor by power but by my spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts." The Rev. A. A. Black, treasurer of classis, and W. D. Donat, stated clerk, conducted the devotional services. After the sermon the classis was called to order and the Rev. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall, was elected president for the ensuing year.

Thursday morning classis opened promptly at 9 o'clock, the Rev. F. W. Brown, conducting the devotional services. Rev. W. C. Rittenhouse, of Williamsport, was elected Corresponding Secretary. After the adoption of the new rules of order, contained in the new constitution, the president announced his list of standing committees. Rev. W. F. Curtis, President of Allentown College for Women, then addressed classis giving a very encouraging report of the condition of the college since he entered upon his work there.

The rest of the morning was taken up with reading of the parochial reports of the ministers.
Thursday evening addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Rittenhouse, of Williamsport, on "Deacons work in the Reformed church," and by Rev. Frank Wetzel, of Rebersburg, on "Ministerial relief."

Friday Classis was opened with religious services conducted by Rev. F. Wetzel.

The report of the treasurer, Rev. A. A. Black, was as follows:

Home Missions	$2154
Foreign Missions	2091
Contingent Fund	245
Beneficiary Education	578
Church Building Fund	1553
Ministerial Relief	100
Sunday School Board	180
Orphan Homes	371
Seminary Aid	381
Sustentation	297

Total benevolences for Classical year. $8350

Several charges failed to pay their apportionment in full, Roalsburg, Lewistown, Beaver Springs, Lewisburg, Sellingsgrove and Susquehanna.

The reports of the Committees on Minutes of General Synod and Eastern Synod were read and many items referred to committees for action. Ray H. Dotterer, of Mill Hall, a recent graduate of the Reformed Theological Seminary at Lancaster, was examined and duly licensed to preach the gospel, and dismissed to Somerset Classis, Pittsburgh Synod.

During the afternoon the Committee on Minutes of Classis made its report. Superintendent C. E. Schaeffer addressed classis on the work of the home mission board and also its needs.

Friday evening was the Laymen's meeting. The address was delivered by W. H. Keller, Esq., of Lancaster. A list of twenty questions had been prepared and distributed among the elders, Prof. C. F. Dewire conducting the meeting. Several brief addresses were made by ex-Governor Beaver, Judge Orvis, Hon. J. C. Meyer and others. This meeting proved to be a very interesting and profitable one. There was a large attendance.

Saturday morning sessions opened at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. R. L. Gerhart conducted the devotional exercises, and president appointed several special committees. The report of the standing committee on overtures was given and disposed of.

During the afternoon Superintendent W. F. More addressed classis, as did also Dr. J. P. Moore. Services preparatory to the holy communion were conducted at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. George K. Ely and Rev. M. G. Schucker. The sermon was preached by Rev. Elias S. Noll, at 3:30 o'clock. Business was again taken up.

Several special committees reported. The report of the Committee on Reconstruction of Bellefonte and Nittany Valley charges was received and a lengthy and affecting discussion followed.

Classis voted to make Bellefonte congregation a distinct and separate charge. The Zion congregation and Hublersburg another distinct charge, and Mt. Bethel, Salona, Emanuel's Eden and Howard a third distinct charge, thereby forming three charges where formerly there were two. A third charge will likely be made from Sellingsgrove and Liverpool in a short time. A committee was appointed to organize a new congregation in State College, also at Dry Valley Cross Roads.

The president and stated clerk of classis and an appointed member, according to the new constitution, were made an executive committee, which shall attend to the business which needs attention between the annual sessions of classis.

This committee consists of Revs. Daniel Gress, W. D. Donat and K. Otis Spessard, Ph. D., and shall have power to dissolve a pastoral relation, to dismiss or receive a minister or a licentiate, to confirm a call, to appoint committees to ordain and install, to authorize the organization of new congregations, to aid in the amicable adjustments of disputes in any charge or congregation, etc. The committee on finances reported, assigning the apportionments to the various charges. $38000 were raised for congregational purposes. The committee on the state of religion and morals reported a healthy condition and advancement in the work of the Master, the membership being 6350. The committee on Missions, and the Committee on Benevolent Institutions gave encouraging reports.

Saturday evening two splendid addresses were delivered by Superintendent W. F. More, on "Bethany Orphans' Home," and Rev. R. L. Gerhart, D. D., "The John Calvin Memorial Address." The closing business session was held from nine to eleven o'clock Saturday night.

A special Committee on the Articles of Federation of churches holding the Presbyterian form of government reported. The classis declined to approve the articles of agreement sent down by the General Synod. Classis adjourned to meet at Middleburg the third Wednesday evening in May, 1910.

The form of closing: All ministers and elders gathered about the chancel railing, repeated the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, sang the Long Meter Doxology, and the president pronounced the benediction.
Sunday morning Superintendent W. F. More, of the Bethany Orphans' Home, gave a long and interesting address to the Sunday School.

Holy communion was celebrated by the attending ministers, elders and congregation, at eleven o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. Daniel Gress. Sunday evening Rev. Jairus P. Moore, of Tokio, Japan, addressed a large audience on "The World for Christ."

These services closed the regular annual meeting of classis.

Rev. B. F. Bieber, accompanied by Philip F. Auman as delegate, attended Lutheran conference held at Dreisbaugh's church, Millburg charge.

SUMMER TRIPS AFAR AND NEAR.

Summer days are coming fast. Already vacation days are being discussed in the home and in the office, and in a few weeks the annual exodus to country, seashore and mountain will have begun.

America abounds with delightful summering places, in valley, on mountain, and beside the sea—thousands of resorts whither wend the pilgrims in search of pleasure and recreation.

Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agents now have on sale excursion tickets to the greater number of these resorts; by the first week in June there will be about eight hundred points covered by Pennsylvania Railroad summer excursion tickets.

From the rock-bound bays of Newfoundland to the sunny slopes of the Virginia shores; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; along the forty beaches of New Jersey; even to the far coast of the Pacific Ocean, these summer resorts stand ready to entertain the transient or all-summer guest.

Any Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent will cheerfully give information concerning routes and fares to these resorts, enabling summer pilgrims to plan their outing at a minimum of time and cost.

Information may also be secured by addressing Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia; C. Studds, D. P. A., 263 Fifth Avenue, New York City; Wm. Pedrick, Jr., D. P. ## FRIEND FARMER!

We wish to call your attention to the Weber and Columbia Wagons we have been offering you for the last few weeks through the columns of this paper.

In referring to the good qualities of these wagons we wish to say that nothing but the best of material enters into their construction; this combined with the best of mechanical skill, and the latest improved machinery designed especially for the construction of wagons, goes to make up these most complete and perfect wagons; not even the smallest details are overlooked.

The lumber used is selected by experienced men and is of four years' seasoning.

The axles are of the very best grade of hickory.

The hubs are the very best quality of white oak.

The spokes are strictly A 1 grade of oak and hickory mixed and driven in hot glue.

The feloes are oak and are thoroughly soaked in boiled oil before tires are set, and are joined with improved steel dowels, which prevents clipping at the joints.

They are exceptionally well ironed, light running and attractively painted, and in all a wagon that will give years of service.

We very cordially invite you to step in and examine these splendid wagons whether you are contemplating a purchase now or not. We want you to thoroughly understand their construction and see where they are better than the ordinary vehicle.

The important thing in buying a wagon is to know before hand what service it will give you; the important thing in selling them is to show you that, as well as we can, and then be sure that they are as good as we lead you to expect.
