Grove Real Estate Sold.

The real estate of the late John Grove was sold at public sale Saturday afternoon, on the homestead farm, in Potter township. The purchasers were William M. and Hiram Grove, heirs.

The homestead was purchased by Wm. M. Grove, who lived on it for many years until a year ago. It contains one hundred and thirty-two acres. Consideration, $4900.

The lower Grove farm and the Woods farm, containing eighty-five and one hundred and fifty acres, respectively, together with one hundred and twenty-eight acres of wood land on Egg Hill, was purchased jointly by Wm. M. and Hiram Grove. Consideration, $3325.

Potter Barn Raised.

The Mary Potter barn, west of Centre Hall, was raised Tuesday. The structure proper is 50x85 feet, and straw shed 35x45. The work of raising was completed before the noon hour, one hundred and twenty-six persons assisting. The carpenters in charge are the Kerstetters, of Pleasant Gap, the crew numbering eight. Every piece of timber fit to a hair's breadth, so the laymen say, which accounts for the speed in erection.

The Potter barn, it will be remembered, was burned last fall.

He had been perfectly well in the morning and his death was due to paralytic stroke. He was born at Burnt Cabin and was aged sixty-six years, four months. THE DEAR YOUNG GIRL.

Should Not Cheapen Herself by gabbling With Every Lobster and Wart on the Street.

Girls, don't cheapen yourselves by being everybody's playthings. It is all right for you to have a "fellow" and go to places with him, but don't be every fellow's girl, just because he asks you to be, and then imagine that you will not cheapen yourselves in the eyes of everybody, especially the young men. It is a laudable ambition for a girl to have a "fellow," and she is entitled to the best, if she is the right kind of a girl. But it makes no difference how really good she is, she loses the respect of everybody when she gets so boystrook that she cannot walk down the street without stopping to "gab" with every "lobster" she happens to meet. When she permits such familiarity and cultivates it, she loses her dignity, and that is one of the rudiments of being a lady. The average young man has no genuine respect for the girl who is familiar with all the boys of her acquaintance, and she is the last girl in the world he would think of marrying.

It is really a disgusting sight to see an otherwise sensible girl gadding up and down the streets, "gabbling" with every "wart" she meets, loafing around the stores and shops and sponging treats from all who have the price and disposition to "loosen."

That girl is marked for the bargain counter, and when she marries, it is invariably the last or only chance. Married life can be happy only when husband and wife have the most implicit confidence in the cheap, gadding, gossiping, giddy girl, the one who imagines the boys are all eager for her company, when in reality they only use her as a plaything with which to pass away the time.

Don't cheapen yourselves, girls, but pick out some really good young man, some fellow with an ambition beyond cigarette smoking, booze, fighting or gambling, and tie to him. If he does not suit you, get some other fellow until you get the right one—that is if you must have a fellow—but don't fool around with a half dozen of them at once, and think for a minute that any of them really respect you.

An honest girl is the most beautiful object in all creation, even if she is as homely as a hedge fence, but a cheap girl—oh, get the ax!

A Cough Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs. If your doctor endorses it for your case, take it. If not, don't take it. Never go contrary to his advice.

The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one at bedtime. As a rule, laxative doses are better than cathartic doses. For constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, headaches, they cannot be excelled. Ask your doctor about this.
