

DEATHS.

JONAS CONFER.

A year ago while in a lumber camp at Hanover, Jonas Confer received a paralytic stroke from the effects of which he never recovered, and Wednesday of last week he died at the home of his son, Joseph K. Confer, in Georges Valley, being aged seventy-two years, and eleven months.

Interment was made in the cemetery in Georges Valley Sunday morning, Rev. Snook officiating. Mr. Confer was for many years a resident of Georges Valley, and is survived by a widow, nee Caroline Lingle, and the following children: Forrest W., Ranover; Joseph K., and Asher C., Georges Valley, William Confer, of Stone Mill, and Mrs. Lydia Immel, of Millhelm, is a sister.

SAMUEL M. VONADA.

Friday evening the death of Samuel M. Vonada occurred very suddenly at his home in Bellefonte, of neuralgia of the heart. He was born at Jackson-ville a little over forty-six years ago. For the past fourteen years he has resided at Bellefonte, being employed by the Bellefonte Lumber Company. He was a member of the Reformed church, and is survived by his wife, nee Minnie Yearick, and two children, Anna E. and Samuel; also three brothers and sisters: James, Frank and Mrs. John Schaffer, of Jackson-ville, and Mrs. Henry Tibbens, of Bellefonte. Interment was made Tuesday, Rev. A. M. Schmidt officiating.

MRS. CATHARINE FISHER.

Saturday morning Mrs. Catharine Fishburn, who made her home with her nephew, Winfield Summers, near Bellefonte, was found dead in bed. She was aged seventy-seven years. Interment was made Monday morning at Shiloh church.

The deceased was the widow of Michael Fishburn, and leaves no children. The following brothers and sisters survive: Michael S. Rosman, Henry Rosman, Tusseyville; Calvin T. Rosman, Zelleville; John F. Rosman, Beloit, Kansas; Mrs. Samuel Grove, Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Mary Miller, Carson City, Michigan; Mrs. Sarah Thompson, McAlays Fort.

RICHARD S. HECKMAN.

Richard Samuel, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Heckman, of Johns-town, died Thursday of last week, after an illness of but a few days from scarlet fever. Interment, which was private, took place the following day. His age was nine years, three months, twenty-seven days. Beside the sorrowing parents, one sister, Katharine, survives.

The lad's playmate died six weeks previous from the same disease. The word was received here by the grandfather, Merchant W. H. Kresmer, and other relatives with great sorrow, for Richard was a favorite among them.

H. C. WITMER.

Henry Clayton Witmer, banker and property owner in Los Angeles, California, died on 19th ultimo, at his country place, La Verne, near Los Angeles. Mr. Witmer was one of the leading figures in finances and civic improvements in Los Angeles.

Mr. Witmer is the son of the late David Witmer, his mother, nee Katharine Korman, a native of Bush Valley, surviving, and is a resident of Los Angeles. His wife, one son, and two daughters—Miss Victoria Witmer, and Mrs. Mary Agnes Lewis, of Los Angeles—survive.

The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. Isaac Smith and ex-Sheriff Brungart of Centre Hall.

FRANK MILLER.

Sunday night Frank Miller, a retired farmer in Madisonburg, died at his home in that place. Interment was made Wednesday morning, Rev. F. Wetzel, of the Reformed church, pastor of the deceased, officiating. His age was sixty-five years.

A widow, nee Catharine Smeltzer, and two sons, Kline, of Clearfield, and Elmer, of Madisonburg, survive.

Mrs. Edward Fultz died at her home at Woodward, Monday evening. The family formerly lived near Linden Hall. Mrs. Fultz had been in poor health for a year or more, and just before going to Woodward was in the Bellefonte hospital. Her maiden name was Jane Benner and her first husband was Wm. Etlinger, to whom she had two children, Jay and Bessie, both of whom survive, as does Mr. Fultz. Her age was about forty-two years.

LOCALS.

Mrs. D. L. Bartges and granddaughter Ruth Bartges are in Johnstown to which place they went to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. Alfred Reiber.

Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder is a clerical delegate from Central Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod to the General Synod, which meets at Richmond, Indiana, this week.

John Everhart, of Franklinville, Huntingdon county, father of Samuel Everhart, of near Boalsburg, was stricken with paralysis a short time ago, and is in a rather serious condition.

Samuel H. Glenn, of Altoona, accompanied by his little son, was in Centre Hall last week, and was quite proud to mention that Mrs. Glenn was the mother of a girl baby that just tops the family out to a '9.

Mrs. D. K. Keller and son James, Mrs. James B. Reish and James A. Keller Friday morning went to Philadelphia for a ten day's visit and sight seeing. While in the city they will be the guests of Miss Wra Heckman, a stenographer, who is a sister of the ladies.

Mrs. William Reiber, of Colyer, who for a long time has been suffering from rheumatism to such an extent that she is unable to walk, is hopeful of recovering again, although improvement is coming very slowly. Mr. Reiber is planning to have a rolling chair built, which will be suitable for traveling over the roads, and in this way his wife will be conveyed from one point to the other with comparative ease.

Juniors' Glorious Victory.

Monday was a gala day for Boalsburg in every respect but the base ball game in the afternoon. The junior team from Centre Hall outplayed the nifty midgets in all departments of the game, and at the close the score stood 19 to 7 in favor of Centre Hall.

Both teams have been playing good ball this year, each having won two games out of three played with nearby towns, prior to the game played Monday afternoon. The result of the contest makes the number of games won by Centre Hall to be three and one lost, while Boalsburg won two and lost two. A battle royal was expected, but the Boalsburg lads had an off day in fielding and batting and the victory went to the visitors.

Much credit must be given the losing team, for the majority of their number were very young and small in stature, nevertheless they had the grit that all good ball players must possess, and in a few years they will do justice to the great national game.

Little Weber, who pitched the last half of the game, and "Stuffy" Stover, who by the way, caught a remarkable game behind the bat, formed a Tom Thumb battery that would prove invincible playing against teams of their own size.

As for Centre Hall, too much can not be said of their fine playing. Few errors were made, and they walloped the ball for keeps. As usual the Bradford "twins" were in the game all the time. Paul had three safe hits, one of which was batted so far that he would have scored a clean home run had home plate been ten feet nearer to third. "Billy" was there with five runs and at least a half dozen stolen bases. The ball generally reached the bag when he did, but the baseman was unable to find him to touch him out. The rest of the team also fielded fluently and nearly every one had at least one or two hits to help swell the score.

Lastly, the good work of the battery must not be overlooked. Smith and Kerlin played the game as it should be played and their work kept the score down.

The score by innings:— Centre Hall—0 4 3 0 1 4 1 0 6—19 Boalsburg—0 0 0 0 1 0 0 3 3—7

The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Festival. The festival held Saturday evening by the local I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs was both well attended and patronized. The ice cream, cake, strawberries, etc., were choice, and good money's worth returned to the purchasers.

Miss Sarah Brungart held the lucky number that claimed the lamp, and D. L. Kerr, secured the center piece, a handsome piece of needle work.

Grove Reunion, June 10th.

The first reunion of the Groves will be held at Grange Park, Centre Hall, Thursday, June 10th. A good attendance is desired, as it is the intention of those participating to effect an organization, and take action with a view of writing a history of the Groves in Pennsylvania.

Auction at Colyer.

There will be auction at the Colyer store of G. R. Meiss Saturday evening. This is the last whack of the hammer, Mr. Meiss says, and he invites all to come who want bargains.

Special Term of Court.

A special term of court will convene Monday, June 21, with Judge C. R. Savidge, of Sunbury, presiding. The juries will be drawn to-day (Thursday.)

Boalsburg can put up as enthusiastic a rooting line now as it could a quarter of a century ago when "Daddy Mickle" laid down the dough for the expense of the Boalsburg team of ball players. This was demonstrated Monday, when the citizens turned out and rooted for good, although the words of encouragement was lost in that swishing sound following a hit made by the visitors good for one or more sawdust bags. This is as it should be. The young must be encouraged to do their best. Cussing the erring never results in the mending of ways. Boalsburg at present has a gamy set of youngsters that in time—when the battery will have attained the height of the length and a half of the average base ball bat—will do that town credit.

Harris Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gray, of Milesburg, and Mrs. Lindsey, of Pitsaun, were visitors at the H. S. Harro home last week.

Mr. Orr and Miss McCormick, of Hubsburg, were over Sunday visitors at the home of J. A. Fortney.

Will Hoy and family, of State College, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

J. Wm. Stamm, of Altoona, attended the Memorial service at Boalsburg. Mrs. Jared Mayes and children are visitors from Milton.

Miss Sallie Riley, who spent a year in Altoona, is visiting in this place. Charles Bateman and family, of Tyrone, were the guests of Mrs. John Leech from Saturday till Tuesday.

John Fisher and family, of Bellefonte, visited here for a few days. Fred and Linn Weber, of State College, enjoyed a few days with their former companions in Boalsburg.

Misses Lola and Vera Ardrey, of Bellefonte, spent several days of last week with Mrs. N. W. Meyer.

Russell and Charles Stamm, of near Mill Hall, spent Memorial Day in Boalsburg.

Mrs. Margaret Bailey and daughters, Edna and Eva, visited in Boalsburg from Saturday till Tuesday.

George Lohr and Robert Leech visited Friday and Saturday, with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lohr, at Buffalo Run.

William Folk, of College township, and Miss Irene Segner, of Boalsburg, were married at the Presbyterian manse at Lemont, by Rev. W. K. Harnish, Wednesday evening, May 28.

Mrs. Margaret Riley is spending this week with the Frank Whitehill family, the attraction there being a little grandson, the first boy in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tennis, with their little son Ralph, of Sinking Valley, were visitors at Edward Riley's from Saturday till Tuesday.

Reuben Stuart, of Pittsburg, visited here from Saturday till Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sweeney spent Saturday in Centre Hall.

Mrs. J. Baumgardner and Mrs. Adaline Kling, of State College, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.

W. S. Wieland and family, of Bellefonte, and F. E. Wieland and family, of Linden Hall, were guests at the J. M. Wieland home, Sunday.

Mrs. Tilman Klinefelter and daughter, of near Tusseyville, spent Wednesday afternoon of last week in Boalsburg.

The Musser Brothers, of the Millheim monument works, erected a monument in the Boalsburg cemetery in memory of Flora Kuhn Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stover and son spent Thursday and Friday with the John Everhart family, near Franklinville. Mr. Everhart, in addition to other ailments, has had several paralytic strokes, and at this writing is critically ill.

$107 were taken in at the festival Monday evening.

LOCALS

The commencement exercises at Bucknell University will be held from the 18th to 23d.

The Potters Mills base ball teams had a match game Saturday. The juniors came out victorious, the score being 10 to 8.

Mrs. Armagast, who is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kuhn, at Old Fort, has been seriously ill for several weeks.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Lue west of Centre Hall. The youngster put in an appearance Thursday of last week and is hale and hearty.

The girls and boys who took part in the singing at the Memorial services Saturday evening, may obtain their flags by calling at the residence of P. H. Meyer, any time this week.

Miss Rae Fleisher returned from Los Angeles, California, after a residence there of several years. For the present she will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. E. W. Crawford.

Charles D. Emerick has been ill at his boarding house in Pittsburg for the past few months. His father, M. L. Emerick, visited him last week, and brought back the news that his condition was slightly improved, but yet serious.

Messrs. Andrew Sheesley, of Zerby Station, and Irvin Showers, of Centre Hall, are operating a shingle mill below Woodward on the Luther Weaver timber tract. They will be through with the work in a short time, and if any one wishes to have the services of a good mill they will do well by conferring with the gentlemen named.

Will Keller, the mail carrier, will be the best man at the Breon-McClellan wedding, in Pulaski, New York, on 16th instant. Somebody, whose name for the present slipped the writer's memory, remarked that Mr. Keller wanted a little practice in marching to marital music, and if he likes the step he may put his right foot first in his own behalf.

If this turns out to be a "potato" year, George R. Meiss will have enough tubers to stock a half dozen state institutions. He planted two hundred and sixty five bushels of seed potatoes on something over twenty-five acres of ground on his mountain farm, near Colyer. Mr. Meiss, in years gone by, has been able to raise fine crops of potatoes on this farm, and there is no reason why he cannot do it again on a larger scale.

Four head of fat cattle sold by D. K. Keller, east of Centre Hall, weighed 5119 pounds, which passed for $300 00, the price per pound being six cents. In the lot was a bull weighing 1705. The cattle were all raised by Mr. Keller, and he thinks it more profitable to keep his calves until they have reached maturity than to sell at the high prices for yearling. He is also giving some attention to hogs, and recently had shipped to him from C. H. Dildine, proprietor of the Greenwood stock farm, in Cambria County, a thorough-bred Chester white boar.

A Hair Dressing

If you wish a high-class hair dressing, we are sure Ayer's Hair Vigor, now improved formula, will greatly please you. It keeps the hair soft and smooth, makes it look rich and luxuriant, prevents splitting at the ends. And it keeps the scalp free from dandruff.

Does not change the color of the hair. Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

At the same time the new Ayer's Hair Vigor is a strong hair tonic, promoting the growth of the hair, keeping all the tissues of the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. The hair stops falling, dandruff disappears. A splendid dressing. —Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.—
